4. Key to tags used in the tables from items 1 and 2

Tag	Description	Meaning
OPF	The ultimate debtor is not the owner of the bank account debited with the transfer amount. It is a “payment-on-behalf” transaction, i.e. a transfer ordered by a different entity/person than the owner of the account debited with the transfer.	Organizacja Płatnicza [payment organisation] (From:)
OPT	The ultimate creditor is not the owner of the bank account credited with the transfer amount. It is a “collection-on-behalf” transaction, i.e. a transfer collected on behalf of a different entity/person than the owner of the account credited with the transfer.	Organizacja Płatnicza [payment organisation] (To:)
X	The debtor’s details do not have to be provided (as the transfer is covered by an exclusion)	eXception
A	The transfer is debited/credited to a payment account maintained by a PSP for the ultimate debtor/creditor. This tag is followed immediately by a slash and then the account number in question.	Account
I	The transfer is not debited/credited to a payment account maintained by a PSP for the ultimate debtor/creditor. This tag is followed immediately by a slash and then the unique transaction identifier.	Identification number (ID)
U	Every PSP is based in the EEA, therefore only selected ultimate debtor/ creditor details must be entered. This tag is followed immediately by a slash and then only by the payment account number / unique transfer identifier (transfer ID).	Unijne [Union] / UE [EU] (specifically the EEA)
N	At least one PSP is based outside the EEA, therefore full ultimate debtor/ creditor details must be entered. This tag is followed immediately by a slash and then by the number of the payment account / unique transaction identifier (transaction ID) and, after the next slash, the first name and surname / business name of the ultimate debtor/creditor.  For POBO: if the threshold of EUR 1,000 has been exceeded, the next slash is followed immediately by the tag designating which details of the ultimate debtor are mandatory. The next slash is followed immediately by the details of the ultimate debtor in line with the information presented under the table in the part regarding POBO. If the threshold of EUR 1,000 has not been exceeded, the provision of these details is optional.	Nieunijne [non-Union] / Non-UE [non-EU] (specifically non-EEA)
