€3,000,000,000

Euro Medium Term Note Programme unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by mBank S.A.

(incorporated as a joint stock company in the Republic of Poland)

Under this €3,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the Programme), mFinance France S.A. (formerly known as BRE Finance France S.A., the Issuer) may from time to time issue notes (the Notes) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below).

The payments of all amounts due in respect of the Notes will be unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by mBank S.A. (formerly known as BRE Bank S.A., the Guarantor or the Bank, and together with its consolidated subsidiaries, the Group).

The maximum aggregate nominal amount of all Notes from time to time outstanding under the Programme will not exceed €3,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies calculated as described in the Programme Agreement described herein), subject to increase as described herein.

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under "Overview of the Programme" and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a Dealer and together the Dealers), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an on-going basis. References in this Base Prospectus to the relevant Dealer shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see "Risk Factors".

Application has been made to the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF) in its capacity as competent authority under the Luxembourg Act dated 10 July 2005 on prospectuses for securities, as amended (the Prospectus Act 2005), to approve this document as a base prospectus (Loi relative aux prospectus pour valeurs mobilières, which implements Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and the Council of 4 November 2003) (as amended, which includes the amendments made by Directive 2010/73/EU). The CSSF assumes no responsibility for the economic and financial soundness of the transactions contemplated by this Base Prospectus and the quality or solvency of the Issuer in accordance with Article 7(7) of the Prospectus Act 2005. This Base Prospectus will be published in electronic form, together with all documents incorporated by reference on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu). Application has also been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to be admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

References in this Base Prospectus to Notes being listed (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and have been admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2004/39/EC).

The requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Directive (as defined below) only applies to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area (the EEA) and/or offered to the public in the EEA other than in circumstances where an exemption is available under Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive. References in this Base Prospectus to Exempt Notes are to Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Directive. The CSSF has neither approved nor reviewed information contained in this Base Prospectus in connection with Exempt Notes.

The Programme provides that Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchanges or markets as may be agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer. The Issuer may also issue unlisted Notes and/or Notes not admitted to trading on any market.

The Issuer has requested the CSSF to provide each of the competent authorities of the Federal Republic of Germany (Germany), The Netherlands, the Republic of Austria (Austria), the United Kingdom and the Republic of Poland (Poland) with a certificate of approval attesting that this Base Prospectus has been drawn up in accordance with the Prospectus Act 2005. The Issuer may request the CSSF to provide the competent authorities in additional Member States of the EEA with similar certificates of approval.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the Securities Act) or any U.S. State securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction (see "Subscription and Sale").

The aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes") of Notes will be set out in a final terms document (the Final Terms) which will be filed with the CSSF. Copies of Final Terms in relation to Notes to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will also be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu). In the case of Exempt Notes, notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche will be set out in a pricing supplement document (the Pricing Supplement).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Base Prospectus comprises a base prospectus in respect of all Notes other than Exempt Notes issued under the Programme for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive. When used in this Base Prospectus, Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU) and includes any relevant implementing measure in a relevant Member State of the EEA.

The Issuer and the Guarantor accept responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and the Final Terms for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer and the Guarantor (each having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor confirms that any information which has been extracted from an external source has been accurately reproduced and that, so far as it is aware, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with all documents which are deemed to be incorporated in it by reference (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference"). This Base Prospectus shall be read and construed on the basis that those documents are incorporated and form part of this Base Prospectus.

No representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer or the Guarantor in connection with the Programme. No Dealer accepts any liability in relation to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer or the Guarantor in connection with the Programme.

No person is or has been authorised by the Issuer or the Guarantor to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any of the Dealers.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (i) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (ii) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any of the Dealers that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer and/or the Guarantor. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor, or any of the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained in it concerning the Issuer and/or the Guarantor is correct at any time subsequent to the date hereof or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to its date indicated in the document containing the same. The Dealers expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Guarantor during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in the Notes issued under the Programme of any information coming to their attention.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS - Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors – Legend" as

"Not Applicable", the Notes, from 1 January 2018, are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and, with effect from such date, should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (MiFID II); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC (IMD), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, the Prospectus Directive). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

None of the Dealers, the Issuer or the Guarantor makes any representation to any investor in the Notes regarding the legality of its investment under any applicable laws. Any investor in the Notes should be able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period of time.

Investors should consult the Issuer should they require a copy of the 2006 ISDA Definitions.

The rating of certain Series of Unsubordinated Notes to be issued under the Programme may be specified in the applicable Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes). Whether or not each credit rating applied for in relation to the relevant Series of Unsubordinated Notes will be issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation) will be disclosed in the Final Terms. At the date of this Base Prospectus, the Subordinated Notes are not intended to be rated. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO THE USE OF THIS BASE PROSPECTUS AND OFFERS OF NOTES GENERALLY

This Base Prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any Notes in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make the offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. None of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Dealers represent that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, unless specifically indicated to the contrary in the applicable Final Terms, no action has been taken by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Dealers which is intended to permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Notes may come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the EEA (including the United Kingdom, France and Italy, see "Subscription and Sale").

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (a) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (b) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (c) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (d) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of financial markets; and
- (e) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms or Pricing Supplement may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

D.2	Key risks regarding the Issuer and the Guarantor	In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer and the Guarantor may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer and the Guarantor becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. The Issuer and the Guarantor have identified a number of factors which could materially adversely affect their and the Group's businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes. These factors include risks associated with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the granting, financing and securing of loans denominated in foreign currencies and, in particular, in CHF; • regulatory and political risks related to a significant exposure to foreign currency denominated loans, predominantly retail mortgage loans denominated in CHF in the context of proposals to reduce the indebtedness of CHF borrowers and the potential adverse impact on banks; • counterparties – risks arising from the potential inability of the Group's counterparties to fulfil their obligations under transactions and financial instruments entered into with the Bank due to a number of factors, including, bankruptcies, lack of market or individual customer liquidity, economic downturns, adverse financial and market movements, operational failures and increased economic and political uncertainty; • risk management methods. These may prove ineffective at mitigating credit risk; • a failure to successfully introduce new products and services or to implement the Group's strategy and raise brand awareness of the Group; • the Group's credit ratings. RISK FACTORS

In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer and/or the Guarantor may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer and the Guarantor becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer and the Guarantor may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which they currently deem not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's and/or the Guarantor's control. The Issuer and the Guarantor have identified in this Base Prospectus a number of factors which could materially adversely affect their businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes. In addition, the Guarantor has described certain general risks applicable to an investment in Poland and to the Polish banking industry which are associated with an investment in the Notes. Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings as given to them in this section.

Prospective investors should note that the risks relating to the Issuer and/or the Guarantor summarised in the section of this document headed "Summary of the Programme" are the risks that the Issuer and the Guarantor believe to be the most essential to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Notes. However, as the risks which the Group faces relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, prospective investors should consider not only the information on the key risks summarised in the section of this document headed "Summary of the Programme" but also, among other things, the risks and uncertainties described below.

Risks relating to the business and industry of the Issuer and Guarantor

The Group is exposed to various risks resulting from granting, financing and securing loans denominated in foreign currencies and, in particular, in CHF

The Group has a significant exposure to foreign currency denominated loans (predominantly retail mortgage loans denominated in CHF). As at 31 December 2016, PLN 19.1 billion of the Group's net loans and advances to customers were denominated in CHF (compared to PLN 19.8 billion as at 31 December 2015). The Group's CHF denominated loans constituted 23.3 per cent. of the Group's total net loans and advances as at 31 December 2016 (25.2 per cent. as at 31 December 2015).

Since July 2014, the Group has only granted foreign currency loans to private individuals whose income is paid in that foreign currency. However, many of the Group's retail customers who obtained loans denominated in foreign currencies prior to July 2014, are paid income in PLN. In particular, the vast majority of the Group's retail customers who have mortgage loans in CHF earn their income in PLN.

Any depreciation of the PLN against a foreign currency in which the loan is denominated, which is not sufficiently compensated by a decrease in the relevant reference rate, will result in an increase of the PLN value of repayments of principal and payments of interest by the Bank's customers (although this may be mitigated where there is a compensating decrease in the relevant reference rate, such as CHF LIBOR rate) and in an increase of credit risk related to borrowers with loans in foreign currencies.

The PLN has experienced significant depreciation against the CHF since the Swiss National Bank (SNB) decided on 15 January 2015 to discontinue its policy of maintaining a minimum exchange rate of CHF 1.20 per 1.00 euro (the SNB Announcement).

A significant and prolonged depreciation of the PLN (in particular, against the CHF), which is not sufficiently compensated by a lower reference rate, may increase the number of customers experiencing difficulties in servicing their loans. As a result, it may lead to an increase of the Bank's impairment allowances for mortgage loans denominated in CHF and adversely affect the financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

In addition, depreciation of PLN against CHF will cause an increase in total risk exposure amount and consequently a decrease in the capital ratios of the Group.

The Group is also exposed to refinancing risks as a result of mismatches between the maturity of the Group's CHF liabilities and its assets. The Bank's CHF-denominated mortgage loans to retail customers are mainly funded by CHF-denominated loans either from Commerzbank or wholesale funding obtained from international, fixed income markets and, to a lesser extent, by foreign currency deposits. The Group has limited reliance on short-term market instruments for the funding of its CHF assets.

The maturity of the Group's CHF funding is shorter than the contractual maturity of the underlying CHF loans and, as a result, the Bank is exposed to refinancing risks, which are aggravated during periods of increased capital and foreign exchange market volatility.

The material depreciation of PLN against CHF has caused the value of the collateral securing the Bank's CHF denominated mortgage loans to fall below the outstanding value of many of these loans. Any further material depreciation of PLN against CHF will reduce the value of such collateral further and may in turn further increase the loss given the default ratio applicable to the Bank's foreign currency portfolio.

The occurrence of any of the factors mentioned above may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations of the Group.

The Group is exposed to regulatory and political risks related to its CHF denominated loans

The Group has a sizable portfolio of residential foreign currency denominated mortgage loans. In common with other Polish banks holding portfolios of foreign currency denominated mortgage loans, the Group faces the risk that a decision could be made by the Polish Parliament to change the financial terms of loans granted in foreign currencies or to convert loans denominated in foreign currencies to PLN at a historic exchange rate.

On 15 January 2015, the Swiss National Bank made the SNB Announcement and, as a result, the PLN depreciated significantly within a very short timeframe against the CHF. Polish banks have a significant position in CHF denominated loans resulting from the very significant origination of such loans between 2006-2008. According to the National Bank of Poland, CHF loans accounted for approximately 34 per cent. of total mortgage loans within Poland as at 31 December 2016. Therefore, the Polish government, the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (the KNF), the Financial Stability Committee (the KSF) and politicians have presented various proposals which seek to reduce the impact on Polish borrowers of the depreciation of PLN against CHF which was triggered by the SNB Announcement. Certain proposals provided for the conversion of foreign currency denominated loans into Polish zloty at historical exchange rates and required that a substantial part of the costs of such conversion are borne by the lenders.

On 2 August 2016, the President of Poland filed with the Polish Parliament a draft act concerning mortgage loans denominated in foreign currencies and PLN-denominated mortgage loans indexed to foreign currencies (the FX Loans Bill). If approved by the Polish Parliament, the FX Loans Bill would then apply to loan agreements entered into between 1 July 2000 and 26 August 2011. Under the FX Loans Bill, a borrower under an eligible loan would be entitled to request the bank which granted the loan to decrease the principal amount of the loan by the "spread", i.e. the difference between the amount of the loan calculated with the relevant exchange rate announced by the National Bank of Poland (NBP) adjusted by 0.5 per cent. and the amount of the loan calculated under the exchange rate used by the bank, or, if the loan was repaid, to request the bank to pay the borrower an amount equal to the amount of the spread. The FX Loans Bill must be approved by the Polish Parliament to become effective. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, it is not certain how long the parliamentary procedure for such approval may take or whether the FX Loans Bill will be approved at all. According to the President's office, the costs borne by the Polish banking sector as a consequence of adopting the FX Loans Bill should not exceed PLN 4 billion. According to the NBP the actual costs may be twice as large, while the KNF calculated the costs at PLN 9.2 billion.

On 13 January 2017, the KSF published its statement and recommendations with respect to mortgage loans denominated in foreign currencies.

In the opinion of the KSF, there is a need for restructuring of foreign currency housing loans on the basis of a voluntary agreement between banks and borrowers. According to the KSF, the restructuring is particularly justified in the case of borrowers who found themselves in a difficult financial situation due to circumstances beyond their control. Raising individual (Pillar II) capital requirements for foreign exchange mortgage exposed banks will be one of the tools used to force banks to voluntarily convert foreign currency denominated mortgage loans into Polish zloty. The capital requirements for foreign currency mortgages may be gradually raised to make keeping these loans unprofitable. The recommendation of the KSF issued on 13 January 2017 provides for, among others: increasing the risk weight to 150 per cent. from 100 per cent. and increasing the minimum loss given default parameter for exposures collateralised by residential mortgages, the purchase of which was financed by foreign currency denominated loans; implementing the systemic risk buffer; introducing changes in the functioning of the Borrowers' Support Fund, and the KNF's issuing of a supervisory recommendation on best practices regarding the restructuring of foreign currency housing loans as well as supplementing the Pillar II requirements by additional risk factors. At the date of this Base Prospectus, the final method of implementation of the KSF's recommendation is not known. The Bank is therefore unable to estimate the potential impact of the proposed solutions on the capital ratios and financial statements of the Bank and the Group.

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, it is not certain whether, apart from the above, the Polish authorities will adopt any other measures concerning mortgage loans denominated in foreign currencies, including mandatory conversion of these loans into Polish zloty. Any measures concerning the mortgage loans denominated in foreign currencies could have a material negative impact on the Polish financial system.

If any proposal or regulatory measure which seeks to reduce the indebtedness of CHF borrowers by sharing any losses with banks in Poland is adopted, then this is likely to have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group may not be able to maintain the quality of its loan, investment, proprietary investment or trading book portfolios

The quality of the assets in the Group's loan portfolio is affected by changes in the creditworthiness of its customers, their ability to repay their loans on time, the Group's ability to enforce its security interests on customers' collateral should such customers fail to repay their loans and whether the value of such collateral is sufficient to cover the full amounts of those loans.

The quality of the Group's loan and investment portfolio may deteriorate due to various other reasons, including internal factors (such as failure of risk management procedures) and factors beyond the Group's control (such as any negative developments in Poland's economy resulting in the financial distress or bankruptcy of the Group's customers, or restriction of credit information concerning certain customers).

The quality of the Group's loan portfolios can also be influenced by counterparty risk arising from the potential inability of the Group's counterparties, including corporate customers, banks and other financial institutions, to fulfil their obligations under transactions and financial instruments entered into with the Bank due to a number of factors, including, in particular, bankruptcies, lack of market or individual customer liquidity, economic downturns, adverse financial and market movements (e.g. in interest rates or foreign currency exchange rates, commodity prices, the implied volatility of foreign exchange options), operational failures and increased economic and political uncertainty. If the level of the counterparty risk increases, it would adversely impact the creditworthiness and financial standing of the counterparties, and as a result, could trigger additional adverse consequences in the financial contracts of the Group's customers, which could worsen their financial exposure and make it more difficult for them to fulfil their obligations to the Bank. See "The Group has significant exposure to counterparty credit risk in connection with its banking operations" in this section.

The Group's proprietary investment and trading book portfolio consists of stocks, shares, debt securities and derivatives. The quality of the Group's proprietary investment portfolio is affected by macroeconomic and other factors, including the general business environment, the financial standing of companies in which the Group invests and the stock market. The quality of the trading book depends significantly on developments in financial markets and on the creditworthiness and financial standing of counterparties of the transactions in this portfolio. See "The value of the Group's trading book portfolios may be adversely affected by adverse movements in market parameters" in this section.

The quality of the Group's debt securities portfolio is substantially dependent upon the ability of the issuers of the securities in the portfolios to make payments on the securities when due. The ability of the issuers to make such payments may be affected by changes in their financial standing, including liquidity issues, as well as by the global financial crisis, liquidity concerns, increased credit risk and other macroeconomic factors.

Realisation of these risks described above could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group faces risk associated with KUKE insurance

The Bank provides some of its corporate clients with products and services relating to export trade. In some of the markets in respect of which the risk is difficult to fully estimate, in order to address economic and political risk, the Group uses insurance coverage provided by the Polish Export Credit Insurance Corporation (KUKE). KUKE is the only insurance company in Poland authorised to provide export insurance guaranteed by the State Treasury of Poland. Its offer also covers long-term export projects financed by credit loans granted for periods exceeding two years. Loans insured by KUKE bear higher political and geographical risk and in principle are granted for longer periods of time.

Although the Bank has made a limited number of claims from KUKE in respect of loans insurance provided by it and, in some cases, has received payment in respect of those claims, the Bank has a limited track record in making such claims. Accordingly, there is uncertainty in relation to the likelihood of making successful claims under KUKE insurance.

There is therefore a risk that, in the event that the Bank makes a substantial claim in respect of a KUKE-insured loan in its portfolio, the Group may face difficulties in receiving payment in full from KUKE, which could in turn have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Material increases in the Group's impairment losses on loans and advances may have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

In connection with its credit operations, the Group regularly writes down impaired assets and records impairment losses in the profit and loss account of the Group. The total value of the Group's impairment losses is based on the history of losses experienced by the Group, the volume and type of borrowing activity, standards applied in the banking industry, information on defaults in loan payments, the economic situation and other factors connected with the repayment of various loans. It also depends on the risk model applied by the Group, which may prove to be incorrect and result in an incorrect assessment by the Group of the risk associated with its loan portfolios.

Although the Management Board uses its best efforts to establish an appropriate amount of impairment losses on loans and advances, that determination is subject to the evaluation of credit risk and may be affected by numerous factors, including depreciation of PLN against CHF and uncertainties relating to the current macroeconomic environment. The Group could be required to increase its impairment losses on loans and advances in the future as a result of increases in non-performing assets or for other reasons. Any material increase in the impairment losses on loans and advances, any loan losses in excess of the previously determined impairment losses on loans and advances with respect thereto or changes in the estimate of the provision for incurred but not yet identified losses on loans and advances could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The value of the Group's investment and trading portfolios may decrease

The Group's portfolio of securities comprises debt and equity securities. The quality of the Group's portfolio of securities may be affected by macroeconomic factors, the general business environment and developments in the financial markets, and by the creditworthiness and financial position of counterparties to the Group's transactions. The quality of debt securities held by the Group is dependent upon the ability of issuers of the securities to make payments on the securities when due, which in turn may be affected by changes in their financial standing.

As at 31 December 2016, debt instruments issued by the State Treasury accounted for 90.2 per cent. of the Group's debt securities portfolio in investment and trading securities. A decrease in the price of such securities may occur as a result of several factors, in particular: (i) an increased supply of such securities by the Polish government due to an increased issue of those securities to finance the budget deficit or an increased offer of securities by investors disposing of them, (ii) increases in domestic interest rates, or (iii) a decrease in the credit ratings for Poland's sovereign debt, and (iv) increased political risk and a negative perception of Poland by investors. Any decrease in the price of such securities could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's trading book portfolio is composed of negotiable financial instruments whose daily valuations depend on certain market parameters (such as foreign exchange rates, interest rates, prices of bonds and stocks, stock indices values, futures prices, and implied volatilities of options). As these parameters vary continuously according to market forces, valuations of the financial instruments also change accordingly, which may adversely impact unrealised results of these portfolios, even though certain components of market risk of those portfolios are hedged and the trading is carried out within set market risk limits. In addition, market movements may also adversely affect realised results of the trading book. Any occurrence of any of these factors may have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group has significant exposure to counterparty credit risk in connection with its banking operations

The Group is exposed to counterparty risk arising from the potential inability of the Group's counterparties, including corporate customers, banks and other financial institutions, to fulfil their obligations under transactions and financial instruments entered into with the Group due to a number of factors, including, in particular, bankruptcies, a lack of market or individual customer liquidity, economic downturns, adverse financial and market movements (e.g. in interest rates or foreign currency exchange rates, commodity prices, the implied volatility of foreign exchange options, etc.), operational failures and increased economic and political uncertainty. A reduction in the ability of the Group's counterparties to fulfil such obligations, or a default by, or even concerns about the creditworthiness and financial standing of, one or more of the Group's counterparties could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects.

The Group has substantial assets, associated with foreign exchange derivatives, which include foreign exchange swaps, forwards and options conducted with other banking and non-banking clients. These foreign exchange derivatives require the customer to provide collateral if the instrument reaches a prescribed loss level. Due to the significant changes of the PLN exchange rate against certain foreign currencies many customers who purchased foreign exchange derivatives have been unable to provide the required collateral.

Continued foreign exchange rate volatility of the PLN against foreign currencies could increase the pressure on the Group's counterparties and could lead to increased defaults of the Group's counterparties and further losses incurred by the Group on its foreign exchange derivatives. Such developments could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Council of the European Union has adopted a bank recovery and resolution directive which has been implemented in Poland and which is intended to enable a range of actions to be taken in relation to credit institutions and investment firms considered to be at risk of failing. The exercise of any of these actions in relation to the Issuer or the Bank could materially affect the value of any payment under the Notes, the deposits made by the Issuer with the Bank of the issue proceeds of any Notes and the Guarantee.

On 2 July 2014, Directive 2014/59/EU providing for the establishment of an EU-wide framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive or BRRD) entered into force. The BRRD is designed to provide authorities with a credible set of tools to intervene sufficiently early and quickly in an unsound or failing institution so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimising the impact of an institution's failure on the economy and financial system. The powers set out in the BRRD will impact how credit institutions and investment firms are managed as well as, in certain circumstances, the rights of creditors.

The BRRD contains four resolution tools and powers which may be used alone or in combination where the relevant resolution authority considers that (a) an institution is failing or likely to fail, (b) there is no reasonable prospect that any alternative private sector measures would prevent the failure of such institution within a reasonable timeframe, and (c) a resolution action is in the public interest. These tools and powers are: (i) sale of business - which enables resolution authorities to direct the sale of the firm or the whole or part of its business on commercial terms; (ii) bridge institution - which enables resolution authorities to transfer all or part of the business of the firm to a "bridge institution" (an entity created for this purpose that is wholly or partially in public control); (iii) asset separation - which enables resolution authorities to transfer impaired or problem assets to one or more publicly owned asset management vehicles to allow them to be managed with a view to maximising their value through eventual sale or orderly wind-down (this can be used together with another resolution tool only); and (iv) bail-in - which gives resolution authorities the power to write down certain claims of unsecured creditors of a failing institution and/or to convert certain unsecured debt claims to equity (the general bail-in tool), which equity could also be subject to any future write-down.

The BRRD also provides for a Member State as a last resort, after having assessed and exploited the above resolution tools to the maximum extent possible whilst maintaining financial stability, to be able to provide extraordinary public financial support through additional financial stabilisation tools. These consist of the public equity support and temporary public ownership tools. Any such extraordinary financial support must be provided in accordance with the EU state aid framework.

An institution will be considered as failing or likely to fail when: it is, or is likely in the near future to be, in breach of its requirements for continuing authorisation; its assets are, or are likely in the near future to be, less than its liabilities; it is, or is likely in the near future to be, unable to pay its debts as they fall due; or it requires extraordinary public financial support (except in limited circumstances).

In addition to the general bail-in tool, the BRRD provides for resolution authorities to have the further power to permanently write-down or convert into equity capital instruments at the point of non-viability and before any other resolution action is taken (non-viability loss absorption) which may apply to Subordinated Notes. Any shares issued to holders of Subordinated Notes upon any such conversion into equity may also be subject to any application of the general bail-in tool.

For the purposes of the application of any non-viability loss absorption measure, the point of non-viability under the BRRD is the point at which the relevant authority determines that the institution meets the conditions for resolution (but no resolution action has yet been taken) or that the institution will no longer be viable unless the relevant capital instruments (such as Subordinated Notes) are written-down or converted or extraordinary public support is to be provided and without such support the appropriate authority determines that the institution would no longer be viable.

Poland has implemented the BRRD and the general bail-in tool by adopting the Act of 10 June 2016 on the Bank Guarantee Fund, the deposit guarantee scheme and the compulsory restructuring (the Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund) which became effective on 9 October 2016. The Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund introduced to the Polish legal system all of the four resolution tools and powers, including the general bail-in tool, referred to above. Any exercise of the bail-in tool in respect of the Bank may result in the cancellation of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, interest on, or any other amounts payable in respect of, the deposits made by the Issuer with the Bank of the issue proceeds of any Notes and the Guarantee and/or the conversion of the deposits made by the Issuer with the Bank of the issue proceeds of any Notes and/or claims under the Guarantee into shares or other securities or other obligations of the Bank or another person.

The exercise of the general bail-in tool in respect of the Notes by the competent resolution authority (which is likely to be the relevant authority in France or Germany) may also result in the write-down or cancellation of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, or interest on, the Notes.

Noteholders may have only very limited rights to challenge and/or seek a suspension of any decision of the relevant compulsory resolution authority to exercise its resolution powers or to have that decision reviewed by a judicial or administrative process or otherwise.

This may result in Notes not being repaid and Noteholders losing some or all of their investment. The exercise of any power under the BRRD or any suggestion of such exercise could, therefore, materially adversely affect the rights of Noteholders, the price or value of their investment in any Notes and/or the ability of the Guarantor to satisfy its obligations under the Guarantee.

Any reduction in the credit rating of the Bank and its subsidiaries could increase its cost of funding and adversely affect its interest margins

Credit ratings affect the cost and other terms upon which the Group is able to obtain funding. A reduction in the Group companies' credit ratings could increase the costs associated with its interbank and capital market transactions and could adversely affect the Group's liquidity and competitive position, undermine confidence in the Group, increase its borrowing costs and adversely affect its interest margins. Furthermore, should the rating of the Bank be downgraded below investment grade, this could significantly impair the operating business of the Bank, the refinancing costs of the Group and the Bank's eligibility to act as a counterparty to derivative transactions for some market participants.

Rating agencies' assessments are driven by a number of factors, including franchise value, capitalisation, profitability, refinancing opportunities and liquidity as well as potential parental support. Pressure on the Bank's credit ratings may arise, for example, in the event of significantly weaker capital generation driven by poorer financial performance, a material deterioration of asset quality in a less favourable business environment or the downgrade of the parent company, Commerzbank.

On 19 May 2015, Fitch downgraded the Bank's long-term Issuer Default Rating (IDR) from A (negative outlook) to BBB- (positive outlook) as a result of the downgrade of Commerzbank's Issuer Default Rating from A+ to BBB. The Bank's short-term IDR was downgraded to F3 from F1 and the Support Rating was lowered to "2" from "1". On 9 June 2015, S&P lowered the Bank's long-term counterparty credit rating from BBB+ to BBB as a result of the downgrade of Commerzbank's rating from A- to BBB+. A downgrade of Commerzbank's rating and, in consequence, the Bank's rating by Fitch and S&P, resulted from the assessment of the impact of implementation of the BRRD in Germany, which radically re-assessed the likelihood of state support for banks in Germany. On 3 February 2016, S&P changed the outlook on the Bank's credit rating to negative from stable following a negative assessment of country risk. On 7 March 2016, Fitch upgraded the Bank's long-term IDR and the long-term senior unsecured debt rating from BBB- to BBB. The Bank's short-term foreign currency IDR and short-term senior unsecured debt rating were raised from F3 to F2. The outlook for the long-term rating is stable. The upgrade of the Bank's ratings was driven by the upgrade of the long-term rating of Commerzbank AG from BBB to BBB+. On 11 March 2016, S&P again revised the rating outlook for mBank to stable, following a similar revision of Commerzbank's rating outlook. On 15 December 2016, S&P's outlook for mBank's long-term issuer credit rating was placed on CreditWatch with positive implications following a similar rating action in respect of Commerzbank.

A downgrade in the rating of the Bank and its subsidiaries could increase the financing costs associated with transactions on the interbank market and could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Historical results of the Group's loans and advances portfolio may not be indicative of expected future results

The Group's loan portfolio increased significantly between 2005 and 2011 primarily as a result of an increase in the volume of mortgage loans advanced by the Bank. As a result, a significant portion of the loans in the portfolio still has not reached the anticipated years during which default is most likely and the Group's default rate may increase as these loans season.

In addition, as a result of the depreciation of the PLN against CHF, the outstanding principal balance of retail mortgage loans denominated in CHF calculated in PLN may exceed the value of collateral securing such loans and, as a result, the loss given default ratio (the LGD, being the percentage of exposure lost in case of default) applicable to the Group's foreign currency portfolio may increase.

If the default rate of the Group's loans and advances significantly exceeds the default rate that was assumed in setting interest rates for these loans, then the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

The Group may not be able to improve or sustain its current interest rate margins or commissions on loans

The net interest income achieved by the Group depends to a large extent on the levels of the Group's interest-bearing assets and liabilities and the average interest rates on interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities.

Various factors could affect the Group's ability to maintain credit and deposit margins as well as fees and commissions at current levels. These factors include the evolving regulatory environment, increasing competition in the market, changing demand for fixed and floating interest rate loans, possible changes in monetary policy conducted by the Monetary Policy Council, the level of inflation, and changes in interest rates (WIBOR and LIBOR) on interbank markets.

Between 2013 and 2015, the Monetary Policy Council carried out an expansionary monetary policy which was reflected in the scale and frequency of interest rate cuts: cutting the benchmark interest rate by 175 basis points' to 2.50 per cent. in 2013 (six interest rate cuts), by 50 basis points to 2 per cent. in October 2014, and by a further 50 basis points to 1.50 per cent. in March 2015. In 2016, interest rates remained flat.

The Group could suffer decreasing interest rate margins for various reasons, including:

- if market interest rates on floating interest rate loans decline and the Group is unable to offset such effect by decreasing the rates payable on deposits;
- if interest rates payable on deposits increase resulting from additional competition among banks or other factors beyond the Group's control; or
- if increased competition on the market and economic recovery push credit spreads down.

Interest charged on retail loans granted by the Group cannot exceed the maximum interest rate permitted by Polish law. Additionally, an amendment to the Consumer Credit Act which came into force on 11 March 2016 establishes caps on non-interest charges and default interest chargeable under consumer loans.

The Group's inability to maintain interest rate margins and commissions on loans may result in lower net income and could materially adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

A high proportion of long-term mortgages in the Group's loan portfolio makes it difficult for the Group to adjust its loan margins to market terms whilst any deterioration of residential real estate prices and decrease in value of collateral provided to the Bank may negatively affect the Group's business, financial condition and/or the results of its operations

In accordance with Polish law, the Bank or any member of the Group is not able to unilaterally change the terms of granted loans and advances to individuals, including credit margins. As at 31 December 2016, gross housing and mortgage loans to individuals (retail mortgage loans) constituted a material part (72.3 per cent.) of the Group's total gross loans and advances to individuals. As a result, the Group is limited in its ability to change its average credit portfolio margins through the generation of new mortgage loans and advances reflecting current credit margins on the market compared to other financial institutions operating on the Polish market, which have credit portfolios with a larger proportion of short-term loans. Moreover, the Group was not able to recover the cost of the Polish Banking Tax (see "Additional tax burdens may be imposed on Polish banks or the existing tax burden may be increased") from its clients with respect to the portfolio of mortgage loans originating before the introduction of the banking tax. This limited ability to re-price its loan portfolio may adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

When granting mortgage loans and calculating the applicable interest rates, the Group assumes a certain level of prices of residential real property securing such loans. If sale prices of residential real property in Poland substantially decline for any reason, the value of the Group's security might be adversely affected and in cases of foreclosure, the Group may not be able to recover the entire amount of the loan if the borrowers are unable to repay them. In addition, investments in real estate are characterised by low liquidity as compared to other types of investments and such liquidity may further deteriorate in periods of economic downturn. The Group cannot guarantee that if the residential real estate market in Poland deteriorates significantly, the ability to enforce its security in a timely and effective manner would not deteriorate significantly.

As a result of the depreciation of the PLN against CHF, the outstanding principal balance of retail mortgage loans denominated in CHF calculated in PLN may exceed the value of collateral securing such loans and, as a result, the LGD applicable to the Group's foreign currency portfolio may increase.

This could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and the results of its operation.

The Group is exposed to risks resulting from providing non-mortgage loans

The Group has increased its market share of non-mortgage loans in the retail credit portfolio. In recent years the Group offered consumer credit products mostly to existing, low-risk customers. If, as a result of its increased market share in non-mortgage retail loans, the Group has increased its exposure to customers with a higher credit risk, then this could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition results of operations of the Group.

In addition, Polish banks (including the Guarantor) are subject to restrictions on the maximum interest rates which may be charged under a loan agreement. Currently, the maximum interest rate is equal to the sum of the applicable reference rate of the National Bank of Poland and 3.5 per cent. multiplied by two. Any reduction to the applicable reference rate is reflected in the rate which the Bank is able to charge customers on non-mortgage loans. A deterioration in interest rates may therefore have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and the results of its operation.

The Group's risk management methods may prove ineffective at mitigating credit risk

Losses relating to credit risk may arise if the risk management policies, procedures and assessment methods implemented by the Group to mitigate credit risk and to protect against credit exposures prove less effective than expected. The Group employs qualitative tools and metrics for managing risk that are based on observed historical market behaviour. These tools and procedures may fail to predict future risk exposures, especially in a market characterised by increased volatility and falling prices. Given the Group's variety of lending activities, the risk management systems employed by the Group may prove insufficient in measuring and managing risks.

The occurrence of any of the factors mentioned above may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations of the Group.

The Group is exposed to operational risk related to its business activities

The Group is subject to the risk of incurring losses or unforeseen costs relating to inadequate or failed internal processes, human errors, system failures, errors relating to the outsourcing of the performance of certain services to external service providers, or external events. Typical categories of operational loss include: errors made during the execution of operations, record-keeping errors, business disruptions (caused by, for example, software or hardware failures and communication breakdowns), fraud (including related to credit cards), legal claims over transactions or operations and damage to assets. In addition, because some of the Group's business transactions are conducted via internet platforms, the Group is exposed to third party attacks on its IT systems (see "The Group's IT systems may fail or their security may be compromised") which could result in financial or reputational loss. The Group utilises a number of IT systems to conduct its operations. Due to the high complexity of interactions and interdependencies among the Group's IT systems, there can be no assurance that these systems will always properly interact with one another or will always effectively ensure the error-free and timely transfer of data within the IT structure of the Bank and the Group.

The Group also outsources performance of specific activities on its behalf, including IT services as well as document consignment services, cash support services, cash processing, and debt recovery to third parties. Additionally, the Bank outsources to external service providers the performance of certain services related to the sale of retail banking products offered by the Bank. If any of the third parties on which the bank relies fails to duly perform in accordance with the terms of their agreements with the Bank, then this could result in operational deficiencies or reputational risk for the Group. Furthermore, the Group may be exposed to the risk of liability to its customers and reputation loss if such external providers fail to duly perform their services or, specifically, if they perform their services in breach of applicable law or banking regulations or if they take improper actions which result in an infringement of third party rights.

Additionally, failures of the Group's operational risk management system to detect or prevent operational problems of third parties which prevent them from performing the activities outsourced to them could affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects.

The occurrence of the factors described above could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group's fee and commission income may be negatively affected by a decline in business activity in the markets in which the Group is present

The Bank generates fee and commission income primarily from the placement of new loans, the sale of current account products, agency services in connection with the sale of insurance products, sales of card products and electronic online banking products with retail customers, new leasing and debt origination, business accounts, cash management, financial markets instruments, brokerage services and trade finance products with corporate banking customers. A slowdown in business activity in the markets in which the Group is present as a result of the current or future economic environment could decrease the demand for these products, which could have a material adverse effect on its fee and commission income and, therefore, the business, financial condition, and results of operations.

The introduction of new products and services by the Group and the commencement or continuation of business activities in new markets may involve increased risk

The Group concentrates its business activities in retail banking, corporate banking and investment banking. As part of its development strategy, the Group has undertaken steps to diversify its business by providing a wider range of new products and services to its retail, corporate and investment banking customers in the expectation of generating new revenues, raising brand awareness and attracting new customers. However, there can be no assurance that the historical performance of the Group's products and services will be indicative of the future performance of these new products and services. In addition, these new products may involve increased credit risk.

Any failure of these new products and services to generate additional revenues for the Group, raise brand awareness of the Group's products and services or attract new customers or the increased credit risk associated with new products or services, may adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group may also decide in the future to commence operations on new markets, which may expose it to risks relating to conducting foreign operations, including economic, political and regulatory risks.

The Group may fail in implementing its strategy

In June 2016, the Group introduced a new strategy for 2016-2020 called "mobile Bank". The new strategy is based on three critical elements: empathy for the client, leveraging mobility and continued improvements in efficiency. Strategic financial targets for 2016-2020 are based on the Group's ambitious assumptions with regards to cost effectiveness and returns.

The Group may fail to implement its strategy in the coming years in particular due to difficult economic or market conditions and legal and regulatory impediments, an increase in competition from other universal banks, changes in customer behaviour and other factors. In addition internal factors may cause the Group to fail to attain its strategic objectives, including, for example, delays and difficulties in launching new products and solutions in mobile and internet banking, problems in developing cross-selling within the Group or delays in implementing solutions to enhance customer service quality or difficulties in developing the retail or corporate segments. The occurrence of such factors could lead to the Group losing its position as one of the leading universal banking groups in Poland and the leading institution in terms of internet and mobile banking channels.

If the Group does not successfully implement its strategy, or implements it only partially, this may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group faces increasing competition in Poland's banking industry

Since Poland's accession to the EU, at which time restrictions on foreign financial institutions conducting certain type of business activities were lifted, the Polish banking sector has been marked by low barriers to entry and increasing competition, which resulted in a number of acquisitions and market entries by non-Polish financial institutions. The Group primarily faces competition in its universal banking activities, where its competitors include large Polish and international banks operating in Poland's retail, corporate and investment banking markets. In particular, taking into account the large investments made by other banks in new technologies, the Group faces increasing competition in internet and mobile banking, in respect of which the Bank has historically held a leading position.

High levels of competition in the banking industry could also lead to increased pricing pressures on the Group's products and services, which would have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group. In particular, increased competition for deposits may lead to a higher loans-to-deposit ratio and an increase of the Group's cost of funding. In addition, increased competition could lead to a consolidation in the Polish banking sector.

The competitive position of banks, including mBank, is also affected by other financial service providers – entities that are not banks, but which engage in the provision of financial services. While not regulated by the KNF, these entities might be able to offer potential customers more attractive terms for financial services than regulated banks. As a result, the Polish banking sector is exposed to competition from non-regulated entities.

Moreover, new entrants such as FinTech companies, providing online financial services, are also increasingly competing for customers and market share. The developing relationships between FinTech companies and traditional banks are a significant trend and may have a significant impact on the existing market structure for banking services. New players like Google, Apple, Facebook and Amazon could seek to offer financial services traditionally provided by banks. For example, Google launched Android Pay, with contactless payments via mobile phones with the Android system, Apple offers a "cyber-wallet" called Apple Pay, Facebook Messenger allows the transfer of money from their platform, and Amazon Lending offers loans for selected sellers.

These additional competitors are likely to add pressure on margins, especially if they are able to benefit from lower cost structures and less onerous regulatory requirements.

If the Group is unable to maintain its competitive position in the Polish banking sector, this may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations.

The Group faces liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Bank may be unable to meet current and future (including contingent) payment obligations as they become due.

The Group becomes exposed to liquidity risk when the maturities of its assets and liabilities do not coincide. In particular, the Group may be exposed to increased liquidity risk as a result of its holdings of real estate mortgage loans, which are long-term assets. Although generally holdings of real estate mortgage loans are covered by long and mid-term funding, they are partially financed by short-term and on-demand deposits. Maturity mismatches between the Group's assets and liabilities may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations if the Group is unable to obtain new deposits or find alternative sources of funding for existing and future loan and advances portfolios.

In terms of current and short-term liquidity risk, if a substantial portion of the Bank's clients withdraw their demand deposits or do not roll over their term deposits upon maturity, as would be the case with many other banks, the Bank's liquidity position may be adversely affected. Current liquidity may also be affected by unfavourable financial market conditions. If assets held by the Bank in order to provide liquidity become illiquid due to unforeseen financial market events or their value drops substantially, in such circumstances, the Bank might not be able to meet its obligations as they come due and therefore might be forced to resort to interbank funding, which, in the event of an unstable market situation, may become excessively expensive and uncertain. In addition, the Bank's ability to use such external funding sources is directly connected with the level of credit lines available to the Bank, and this in turn is dependent on the Bank's financial and credit condition, as well as general market liquidity.

A loss of liquidity or an inability to raise sufficient funds to finance its operations, particularly its lending operations, may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group may not be able to hire, train or retain a sufficient number of qualified personnel

The success of the Group's business depends, among other things, on its ability to recruit and maintain qualified personnel. The Group is dependent upon high-level management to implement its strategy and day-to-day operations. The Group endeavours to reduce the risk of losing key employees through various measures, including in particular through management and career development measures. Despite these measures, the Group may not succeed in attracting or retaining highly qualified employees in the future. In Poland, there is strong competition for qualified personnel specialised in banking and finance, especially at middle and upper management levels.

Competition of this kind may increase the Group's personnel-related costs and make it difficult to recruit and offer incentives to qualified personnel. In addition, the Group's senior management or key employees of the Group's companies may resign or file a termination notice at any time, which could harm the relationships the Group's companies have developed with its customers. The Group's companies may not be able to retain such employees, and if they do resign, the Group's companies may not be able to replace them with persons of the same ability and experience. This could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects of the Group.

The Group's IT systems may fail or their security may be compromised

The Group relies heavily on numerous IT systems for a variety of functions, including processing applications, providing information to customers, maintaining financial records and providing crucial financial and market data to the Management Board. In addition, the Group uses distribution channels based on an IT platform comprising online banking, mobile banking and call centres.

The Group's activities involve the use and constant development of several IT platforms dedicated to the various segments of the Group. In particular, the business model of the Bank's retail segment, which involves offering banking services through an online transactional system and mobile applications, is significantly dependent on the availability, functionality and security of the Group's IT systems and, as a result of its high reliance on online platforms, it is also particularly exposed to third party attacks via the internet, e.g. cyber-attacks. Malfunctions, in particular with respect to the use of and interactions between the Group's IT platforms, information leakages, service interruptions or similar events may affect the relationship between the Group and its customers. The Group constantly modifies and enhances the protective measures it takes to counteract these risks. Nevertheless, there is a risk that such measures may not be effective against all threats related to cyber-attacks, taking into account their varying nature and evolving sophistication. A successful attack could result in material losses of client or customer information, damage of computer systems, damage the Group's reputation and lead to regulatory penalties or financial losses.

Moreover, programming errors and similar disruptions could impact the Group's ability to serve the needs of its customers on a timely basis, interrupt the Group's operations, damage the Group's reputation or require it to incur significant technical, legal and other expenses. In addition, the integrated IT system or upgraded information technology systems may fail to meet the needs of the Group's growing and changing business.

The Group is also subject to regulation regarding the use of personal data. The Group has procedures in place to ensure compliance with the relevant data protection regulations by its employees and any third party service providers, and has also implemented security measures to prevent cyber-theft. However, if the Group or any of the third party service providers fails to store or transmit customer information in a secure manner, or if any loss or wrongful processing of personal customer data were otherwise to occur, the Group could be subject to investigative and enforcement action by relevant regulatory authorities and could be subject to claims or complaints from the person to whom the data relates, or could face liability under data protection laws. Should some or all of these risks materialise, this may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Risks relating to macroeconomic and regulatory conditions

The effects of the global financial and sovereign crisis had, and any further deterioration of the global economy may have, a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects

The performance of the Group is generally influenced by the condition of the global economy and, in particular, the crisis in the international financial markets and the decline of macroeconomic conditions in Europe, including Poland and Poland's principal trading partners such as Germany and other EU countries.

The financial crisis of 2008-2009 adversely affected developed countries, while developing markets, including Poland, experienced a significant economic downturn. The resulting slowdown in economic growth, the erosion of trust in financial institutions, restricted access to the interbank market and other forms of financing, increased unemployment rates and declines in stock market valuations caused disruptions in financial markets worldwide and impacted liquidity and funding in the international banking system.

In 2010, the crisis severely impacted the financial conditions of various sovereign nations, especially in the Eurozone, causing further pressure on the European financial sector as a result of emerging sovereign credit risk. Negative developments led to a deterioration in the credit ratings of a number of countries and raised doubts as to the ability of those national economies to meet their sovereign debt obligations.

The bail-out packages and the purchase of government bonds by the European Central Bank (the ECB) from countries under pressure calmed the markets and progress has been made in stabilising the economies of certain countries. However these measures have not eliminated concerns in relation to the sustainability of the situation. Concerns remain as to whether it would be possible to support larger European economies, such as Italy or Spain, if the crisis reappears in regards to those countries. The political and economic situation in Greece remains fragile. Additionally, the Italian banking sector is burdened by non-performing loans. The sovereign debt crisis has led to the affected states' existing bonds suffering substantial losses in value (in particular in Greece, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Ireland) and has resulted in a general aversion to risk. A number of European banks sustained substantial losses due to impairments on sovereign debt of affected countries, which led to a weakening of their capital bases.

The performance of the European markets and economies could deteriorate significantly as a result of the difficulties related to the potential re-emergence of the sovereign debt crisis, the consequences of the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union and increasing doubts over the stability of the financial system in the Eurozone. Further developments in the Eurozone will depend on many political and economic factors including, among others, the effectiveness of measures taken by the European Central Bank and the European Commission in connection with the sovereign debt in certain European countries and the role of the euro as the common currency in the face of a diverse economic and political situation in individual Eurozone countries.

In recent years access to capital and credit markets improved markedly including a reduction in credit spreads and an increase in issuance activity by corporations and financial institutions, but there is a risk that these conditions may deteriorate if the global or European economy or emerging markets weaken. Impaired access to capital and credit markets combined with increased credit spreads may raise the Bank's financing costs and reduce its financial flexibility.

These developments would create an unfavourable environment for the banking sector and may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and/or the prospects of the Group.

The United Kingdom's impending departure from the European Union could adversely affect the Group

The United Kingdom held a referendum on 23 June 2016 in which a majority voted to exit the European Union (Brexit). Negotiations are expected to commence to determine the future terms of the United Kingdom's relationship with the European Union, including the terms of trade between the United Kingdom and the European Union. The effects of Brexit will depend on any agreements the United Kingdom makes to retain access to European Union markets, either during a transitional period or more permanently. Brexit could adversely affect European or worldwide economic market conditions and could contribute to instability in global financial and foreign exchange markets, including volatility in the value of the pound sterling or the euro.

Any of these effects of Brexit, and others the Group cannot anticipate, could adversely affect the Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, and could negatively impact the value of the Notes.

The economic conditions in Central and Eastern Europe and the devaluation of the currencies in these countries could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

There is a perception amongst certain investors that the economic or financial conditions of Central and Eastern European countries influence the economic or financial conditions of Poland, and that financial assets of Central and Eastern European countries may be treated as the same "asset class" by foreign investors. As a result, investors may reduce their investments in Polish financial assets due to deteriorating economic or financial conditions in other countries of Central and Eastern Europe. Specifically, the devaluation or depreciation of any of the currencies in Central and Eastern Europe could impair the strength of the PLN. A depreciation of the PLN against foreign currencies may make it more difficult for the Bank's customers to repay their foreign currency loans, which would have a negative impact on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, depreciation of the PLN against foreign currencies would affect the value of the foreign exchange derivatives held by many of the Group's customers. As a result, these customers could become unable to repay amounts due under these foreign exchange derivatives, which could also have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The financial problems faced by the Group's customers could also adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Market turmoil and economic deterioration could adversely affect the respective liquidity, businesses and/or financial conditions of the Group's borrowers, which could in turn further increase the Group's non-performing loan ratios, impair its loan and other financial assets and result in decreased demand for the Group's products. In an environment of significant market turmoil, economic deterioration and increasing unemployment, coupled with declining consumer spending, the value of assets collateralising the Group's secured loans, including real estate, could also decline significantly.

The occurrence of any of these developments could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and/or the prospects of the Group.

Deterioration in Poland's economic conditions could affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

The Group principally conducts its operations in Poland where the overwhelming majority of its customers are located. As a result, the macroeconomic situation in Poland has a material impact on the business, financial condition and result of operations of the Group.

The economic situation in Poland depends on a number of factors, including measures by which a government attempts to influence the economy, such as setting levels of taxation, government budgets, the money supply and interest rates as well as the labour market, the demographic situation in the country, macroeconomic conditions in the world and in Europe and inflow of funds from the European Union.

The Polish economy slowed markedly in 2012. Weaknesses in euro area growth spread to Poland's main trading partners, with a negative impact on Polish consumers and business confidence. As a result, international demand was subdued and private investment and consumption weakened. The labour market deteriorated and credit growth trends reduced. Since the second half of 2013, the Polish economy has begun to improve, but in 2014 the economy was hit by a number of negative shocks, including mainly a sharp decline of demand for Polish products among Poland's eastern trade partners, as well as an economic slow-down in the Eurozone. According to the Central Statistical Office (GUS), the GDP growth rate in Poland reached 3.4 per cent. in 2014 and accelerated to 3.6 per cent. in 2015. In 2016, Poland's GDP growth rate slowed down to 2.8 per cent. The slump in private investment, weaker-than-expected household consumption and reduced inflows of EU funds were the main drivers behind the weak economic growth. The outlook for economic growth calls into question the government's ability to hold the budget shortfall below the EU's 3 per cent. threshold and ensure the flow of EUR 82.5 billion from development funds earmarked for Poland under the EU Financial Framework for 2014-2020.

At the date of this Base Prospectus, Poland's long-term foreign currency sovereign credit rating by S&P Global Ratings was assessed to be "BBB" and by Fitch ratings to be "A"- . The outlook for these ratings is stable. Poland's sovereign rating by Moody's is "A2" and carries a negative outlook. A potential downgrade of Poland's sovereign rating could negatively affect Poland's debt servicing costs and cause a deterioration in the perception by investors of the Polish economy.

A potential prolonged economic slowdown in Poland would damage the Group's operations. Higher unemployment and lower consumption, as well as fluctuations in the financial markets (including the currency market), may adversely affect the financial conditions of the Group's customers, which could, in turn, impair the quality and volume of the Group's loans and advances portfolio and other financial assets and result in decreased demand for the Group's products. In addition, in unstable market conditions, the value of assets securing loans already granted or to be granted by the Group, including real estate, may decline significantly.

The Group's business, as well as the successful implementation of its strategy, is highly dependent on the financial situation of its customers and their ability to repay existing obligations, make deposits and acquire new financial products offered by the Group. The financial situation of Polish households, including the Group's customers, is highly correlated with the unemployment rate. An increase in the unemployment rate in Poland could cause an increase in the Group's impairment losses or hinder growth of the Group's loans and advances portfolio.

The level of risk that is acceptable to customers may also decrease with respect to investments in securities, investment fund units or other investment products offered by the Group. Significant fluctuations or a decline in financial markets may discourage potential customers from buying investment products offered by the Group and current holders may withdraw or reduce their exposure to such products, which may have an adverse effect, in particular, on the Group's fee and commission income.

Any deterioration of the economic, business, political and social conditions in Poland may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and operations of the Group.

The Bank and the Group may be unable to satisfy its or their required capital adequacy ratios

The Bank and the Group are required to maintain minimum capital adequacy ratios as stipulated by the Capital Requirements Regulation (Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms (CRR).

The minimum level of mandatory capital ratios for banks in Poland is higher than stipulated in CRR and encompasses:

- the basic requirement of KNF for banks in Poland to maintain a Total Capital Ratio (TCR) of 12 per cent. and a Tier 1 ratio of 9 per cent.;
- a combined buffer requirement; and
- an additional capital charge in Pillar II.

Taking into account the capital buffers and capital add-on, the required capital ratios for the Bank at the individual level at the end of 2016 amounted to 17.56 per cent. for TCR and 13.61 per cent. for Tier 1 capital ratio. At the consolidated level, the required capital ratios amounted to 17.00 per cent. for TCR and 13.19 per cent. for Tier 1 capital ratio.

As of 31 December 2016 the Group reported TCR and the Tier 1 capital ratio at 20.29 per cent. and 17.32 per cent. respectively, while standalone TCR and the Tier 1 capital ratio for the Bank stood at 24.07 per cent. and 20.59 per cent., respectively. At the date of this Base Prospectus, the adequacy ratios reported by the Bank were above the minimum levels required by the KNF on both the individual and consolidated levels.

Certain developments could affect the Group's ability to continue to satisfy the current capital adequacy requirements, including:

- an increase in the Group's total risk exposure amount as a result of the rapid expansion of its business or depreciation of the PLN against the foreign currencies in which a part of the Group's assets are denominated;
- deterioration of asset quality leading to a higher level of regulatory expected loss, which would cause an increased amount of capital deductions;
- the ability to raise capital;
- losses resulting from a deterioration in the Group's asset quality, a reduction in income levels, an increase in expenses or a combination of all of the above; and
- a decline in the values of the Group's securities portfolio.

The Group may also be required to raise additional capital in the future in order to maintain its capital adequacy ratios in line with future higher regulatory and legal requirements as a result of:

- any increase in the minimum loss-given-default (LGD) parameter for exposures secured by mortgages on residential property, the purchase of which was financed by a foreign currency denominated loan;
- the introduction of the systemic risk buffer and the countercyclical capital buffer and changes of the existing buffers imposed in accordance with the Act on Macroprudential Supervision of the Financial System and Crisis Management in the Financial System;
- an increase in additional capital requirements within Pillar II or extension of the additional capital requirements with regard to additional risk factors related to foreign exchange housing loans imposed on the Bank by bank supervisory authorities or regulators;
- changes in accounting rules or in the guidelines regarding the calculation of the capital adequacy ratios of banks;
- the negative impact on own funds due to possible implementation of new legislation on FX housing loans being developed in the parliament; and
- new high supervisory requirements for the Group regarding the required level of minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) under the Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund.

The Group's ability to raise additional capital may be limited by numerous factors, including:

- the Group's future financial condition, results of operations and cash flows;
- any necessary government regulatory approvals;
- the financial condition of the Bank's majority shareholder;
- the Bank's credit rating;
- general market conditions for capital-raising activities by commercial banks and other financial institutions; and

- domestic and international economic, political and other conditions.

There is no assurance that the Bank will be able to comply with prudential regulations concerning capital adequacy.

Failure to maintain the required capital adequacy ratios or to otherwise maintain sufficient levels of capital may lead to restrictive measures imposed upon the Bank under the Banking Law or the Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund (implementing BRRD in Poland) and may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Moreover, a breach of existing laws relating to required capital adequacy ratios may result in entities in the Group being subject to administrative sanctions which may result in an increase of the operating costs of the Group, loss of reputation, and, consequently, it may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Changes to or an increase in the regulation of the financial services and banking industry in Poland and internationally could have an adverse effect on the Group's business

Regulations governing the banking and financial services industries in Poland and internationally are likely to increase, particularly in the current market environment, where supervisors have recently moved to tighten regulations governing financial institutions. As a result of these and other on-going and possible future changes in the financial services regulatory landscape (including requirements imposed on the Group as a result of governmental or regulatory initiatives, such as the recommendations of the European Union, recommendations of the KNF and new regulations from the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision), the Group may face greater regulation in Poland and other countries in which it conducts operations. Compliance with such changes may increase its capital requirements and costs, heighten disclosure requirements, hinder entering into or carrying out certain types of transactions, affect the Group's strategy and limit or require modification of the rates or fees that it charges on certain loan and other products, any of which could lower the return ratio on its investments, assets and equity. The Group may also thus face increased compliance costs and limitations on its ability to pursue certain business opportunities.

As a result of new recommendations from the KNF, as well as other possible changes in existing recommendations and the issuance of new recommendations affecting supervision, the Bank may become subject to more onerous and strict supervision, increased capital adequacy requirements, changes in its risk model and risk management or be required to incur additional costs, as well as be subject to restrictions on certain types of transactions.

The occurrence of any of the above-mentioned factors may affect the Group's strategy, its growth potential, its fees and commissions, and profit margins and, consequently, could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Additional tax burdens may be imposed on Polish banks or the existing taxes may be increased

In December 2015, the Polish Parliament adopted a law introducing a new banking tax (the Polish Banking Tax). The new tax is calculated by reference to the total assets of a bank, subject to a tax-free amount of PLN 4 billion. Own funds and treasury bonds are excluded from the new tax. The monthly tax rate of 0.0366 per cent. (0.44 per cent. p.a.) has been imposed on Polish banks commencing from 1 February 2016. The tax is not deductible from corporate income tax.

Since it was introduced, the Polish Banking Tax has materially reduced net profit generated by the Group. The amount of the Polish Banking Tax paid by the Group between February and December 2016 reached PLN 328.9 million.

As the revenues from the Polish Banking Tax in 2016 were lower than the amount assumed in the state budget, the Ministry of Finance is currently considering introducing changes in the banking tax in order to increase tax receipts. Any changes in the Polish Banking Tax, which increase the level of the tax payable by the Bank, will affect the financial results of the Group and could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Bank may be required to make substantial contributions to the Bank Guarantee Fund and the Borrowers Support Fund

Pursuant to the provisions of the Polish Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund, the Bank is a member of a mandatory guarantee system and is obliged to contribute to a deposit guarantee fund and a resolution fund.

The Act on the Bank Guarantee Fund set a new methodology for the calculation of the bank contributions to the BGF funds. Based on the targeted levels of funds that are stipulated in the Act, the total financial burden for the sector in 2017 is expected to be only slightly higher than in 2016, assuming no significant pay-outs from the Fund are required. Nevertheless, the new bases cause higher payments to the BGF in the case of banks with a high exposure to retail deposits, while banks that finance their operations to a greater extent with corporate deposits should benefit from these changes.

If an entity that is a member of the fund is declared bankrupt, other members may be required to make additional one-off payments to cover the liabilities of such entity. Due to the scale of the Group's operations, if a member of the mandatory guarantee system were to declare bankruptcy, the Bank may be obliged to make larger payments to the BGF than its smaller competitors.

In 2015 and 2016, the BGF has requested additional contributions from the banking sector to cover the cost of payments to deposit holders of bankrupt banks. In 2015, the KNF submitted a bankruptcy filing for the cooperative bank Spółdzielczy Bank Rzemiosła i Rolnictwa w Wołominie (the Co-operative Crafts and Agriculture Bank in Wołomin - SK Bank). As a result, based on the Act on Bank Guarantee Fund, in 2015 the Group paid a contribution of PLN 141.7 million to the BGF. In 2016, the Group's additional contribution for the repayment of guaranteed deposits to the depositors of Bank Spółdzielczy in Nadarzyn (the Co-operative Bank in Nadarzyn) reached PLN 10.9 million.

In addition, a Borrowers' Support Fund was established pursuant to the Act of October 9, 2015 in order to support residential borrowers in financial difficulties. This fund is intended to provide support to natural persons who find themselves in difficult financial situations and who are required to repay housing loans which significantly encumber their household budgets. The Borrowers' Support Fund is funded predominantly from contributions made by lenders in proportion to their housing loan portfolio for households, for which the delay in repayment of principal or interest exceeds 90 days. The Group was obliged to make related contributions to the Borrowers' Support Fund (PLN 52.1 million in 2015) and, when the value of the proceeds in the fund falls below PLN 100 million, the Group will be required to replenish its contribution pro rata to the support provided to the Group's clients from the date of establishment of the fund to the date of its most recent replenishment.

If the Bank is required to make substantial contributions to the BGF and the Borrowers' Support Fund, it may have a material adverse effect on the Bank Group's strategy, its growth potential and profit margins and, consequently, could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations.

The Group may fail to comply with, or be subject to changes in, certain regulatory requirements applicable to banking and other regulated business, or with the guidelines set forth by financial supervisory authorities on the markets where the Group is present

Apart from its banking operations, the Group also renders other regulated financial services and offers transactional banking products, products relating to the market for financial instruments and insurance products that are subject to the supervision of the KNF, the authority supervising financial markets, including the banking sector in Poland and other relevant authorities in the jurisdictions where it operates. The scope of supervision and regulation of these products and services is also dependent on directives and regulations issued by European regulatory authorities.

The increasing number and ambiguity of certain regulatory requirements, and their application to the Group on the markets where the Group is present, together with changes to the regulatory requirements and guidelines, has placed an increased burden on the Bank and other Group entities to amend their internal policies and procedures in order to meet the requirements of the competent supervisory authorities, and EU directives and regulations, which in some cases may have led to instances of the non-compliance of the Bank and other Group entities. In addition, the requirements and obligations stemming from different jurisdictions and the application thereof may be unclear and contradictory and in some cases may have led to instances of the non-compliance of the Bank and other Group entities.

Uncertainty with regard to the new rules and guidelines during the period in which they are implemented in the jurisdictions relevant to the Group as well as potential further changes to European or Polish banking regulations might impact the Group's ability to access capital or carry out certain business activities.

A failure to satisfy these requirements may expose the Bank or other Group entities to sanctions, fines and other penalties, which may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Expected changes in accounting principles relating to financial instruments may have an impact on the Group's balance sheet and regulatory capital ratios and result in additional costs

In July 2014, the International Accounting Standards Board published International Financial Reporting Standard 9 (IFRS 9) "Financial Instruments", which is set to replace IAS 39 as from 1 January 2018 after its adoption by the European Union. The standard amends and complements the rules on the classification and measurement of financial instruments. It includes a new impairment model based on expected credit losses (ECL), while the current model is based on provisions for incurred losses, and new rules on general hedge accounting.

The new approach based on ECL could result in substantial additional impairment charges for the Group and add volatility to its regulatory capital ratios.

The KNF may identify issues during inspections of the Bank in the future which, if not adequately resolved by the Bank, may result in sanctions, fines or other penalties

In the course of its activities, the Group is subject to numerous inspections, reviews, audits and explanatory proceedings conducted by various supervisors which supervise the financial services sector and other areas in which the Group operates.

- The latest inspection by the KNF took place in October 2016. It focused mainly on: retail credit exposure management, valuation of financial instruments, liquidity risk, bank capital adequacy, implementation of the selected KNF's recommendations; ("Recommendation W", "Recommendation T" and "Recommendation P") and implementation of rules related to customer complaints.

The Group will be required to implement a list of recommendations issued by the KNF following this inspection.

If the Group fails to remedy irregularities found by the KNF in its inspections or if the KNF continues to uncover irregularities during future reviews and inspections, which the Group fails to remedy, the Bank and Group entities may be exposed to sanctions, fines and other penalties, as prescribed by the Polish Banking Law Act of 29 August 1997 (as amended) (the Banking Law). This could affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Interpretation of Polish laws and regulations may be unclear and Polish laws and regulations may change

The Bank has been established and operates under Polish law. The Polish legal system is based on statutory law enacted by the Parliament. A significant number of regulations relating to the issue of and trading in securities, shareholders' rights, foreign investments, issues related to corporate operation and corporate governance, commerce, taxes and business activity have been or may be changed. These regulations are subject to different interpretations and may be interpreted in an inconsistent manner. Moreover, not all court decisions are published in official journals and, as a matter of general rule, they are not binding in other cases and are thus of limited importance as legal precedent. The Bank cannot provide assurance that its interpretation of Polish laws and regulations will not be challenged and any successful challenge could result in fines or penalties or could require the Bank to modify its practices, all of which would have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Interpretation of Polish tax law regulations may be unclear and Polish tax laws and regulations may change

The Polish tax system is subject to frequent changes. Some provisions of Polish tax law are ambiguous and often there is no unanimous or uniform interpretation of law or uniform practice by the tax authorities. Because of different interpretations of Polish tax law, the risk connected with Polish tax law may be greater than that under other tax jurisdictions in more developed markets. The Bank cannot guarantee that the Polish tax authorities will not take a different, unfavourable, interpretation of tax provisions implemented by the Bank or any Group member, which may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Moreover, in relation to the cross-border character of the Group's business, the double tax treaties to which the Republic of Poland is a party also have an effect on the Group's business. Different interpretations of double tax treaties by the tax authorities and changes to these treaties may have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and/or prospects of the Group.

The Bank may be required to implement a recovery programme under Polish banking law

In the event of a breach by a bank, or of a threat of breach, of capital adequacy requirements, significant deterioration of the financial situation of the bank, including the occurrence of a balance sheet loss or a threat thereof, a threat of insolvency or liquidity loss, increasing levels of financial leverage, increases in the Bank's leverage ratio, the value of its non-performing loans or the concentration of exposure, the bank's management board shall forthwith notify the KNF and the Bank Guarantee Fund and shall ensure implementation of a recovery plan.

The KNF may by way of a decision:

- address the management board of a bank with a request to implement a recovery plan, including taking the measures specified in the recovery plan or an update thereof if the premises for its implementation differ from the premises adopted during development of the recovery plan;
- prohibit or restrict granting credit and loans to shareholders (members) and members of the management board, supervisory board and employees of a bank;
- order reduction or withholding of payment of certain variable components of remuneration of persons holding managerial positions in a bank;
- request the management board of a bank to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders in order to assess the situation of a bank, adopt a decision to cover a balance sheet loss or to adopt other resolutions, including resolutions on an increase in own funds;

- request to dismiss one or more members of the management board or persons holding managerial positions if these persons fail to guarantee prudent and sound management of the bank;
- order, on considering a recovery plan, preparation and implementation of a restructuring plan of liabilities towards some or all of creditors;
- request a bank to amend its business strategy; or
- order to amend the statutes of a bank or its organisational structure.

The KNF may also appoint a trustee to oversee the execution of the recovery plan. The trustee may participate in the meetings of a bank's governing bodies and have access to all information necessary to perform its duties. The trustee may also file with the relevant court an objection against the decisions of the management board and the supervisory board.

If the measures ordered by the KNF are insufficient or the implementation of the recovery plan is insufficient to remedy the situation of the bank, the KNF may decide to establish a conservatorship in respect of the Bank. Upon the establishment of a conservatorship, the supervisory board shall be suspended, whereas the management board members of the bank shall be removed by operation of law and previously established proxy and powers of attorney shall expire.

There can be no assurance that the Bank, especially in the event of a deterioration of the results of its operations or high regulatory burdens, may not be required to implement a recovery plan. Such risk would increase if the banks in Poland were forced to convert Swiss franc mortgage loans into zloty at preferential rates. Any failure of the Bank to correctly implement the recovery programme may have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations and on the Group's ability to implement its strategies as set forth in this Base Prospectus.

The impact of competition and anti-monopoly legislation

The Group's business must comply with regulations regarding competition, consumer protection and public aid. Under the Polish Antimonopoly Act, the President of the Office for Competition and Consumer Protection (Urząd Ochrony Konkurencji i Konsumentów, the OCCP) has the right to issue a decision stating that a business entity is participating in an arrangement which aims at or results in the limitation of competition. Moreover, the President of the OCCP may accuse business entities having a dominant position in the Polish market of an abuse of such position. Having determined that such practice has taken place, the President of the OCCP may order the discontinuance of such practices and may also impose a fine. The President of the OCCP also has the authority to declare that the provisions of agreements, as well as the tariffs and fees used by a particular business, violate the collective interest of consumers and, as a consequence, it may order the discontinuance of such agreements and impose a fine on the business.

If there is any suspicion of a breach which could impact trade between Member States, the Treaty establishing the European Community and other community legislation apply directly, while the authority competent to enforce them is the European Commission or the President of the OCCP. Within the scope of their competencies, the European Commission or the President of the OCCP may come to the conclusion that a specific action of a business entity constitutes a prohibited action that restricts competition and is an abuse of market position or breach of common consumer interests, and it may prohibit any such practices or apply other sanctions provided for in the community law regulations or the Polish Antimonopoly Act, which may adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Moreover, acquisitions by the Bank of businesses operating in the financial services and banking sectors may require consents for concentration issued by Polish authorities, foreign competition authorities or financial sector regulatory authorities. The grant of any such consent depends, among other things, on the evaluation of the consequences that the relevant concentration may have on the competition in the market. No assurance can be given that any such consents would be granted. If consent for concentration is refused for a particular acquisition, it will prevent the completion of such acquisition and would restrict the Group's ability to grow.

The Act amending the Act on Protection of Competition and Consumers, which entered into force on 17 April 2016, gives the President of the OCCP certain additional powers. In particular, the President of the OCCP is permitted to issue administrative decisions concerning prohibited clauses in contract templates and ban their further use. The amendment to the Act on Protection of Competition and Consumers introduces a new prohibition on breaching the collective interest of consumers the mis-selling of financial services. The Group has implemented appropriate procedures to mitigate the risk associated with offering financial services that are inadequate for a particular customer. However, as the concept of mis-selling is broad, there is a risk that the OCCP can initiate proceedings against the Bank if it finds that financial services are inadequate for a particular customer.

The current developments regarding the strengthening of consumer rights might lead to further obligations being imposed on the Group, which, in the case of a failure to comply with such rules, could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

Factors beyond the Group's control could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

Factors beyond the Group's control, such as catastrophic events, terrorist attacks, natural disasters, acts of war or hostilities, pandemic diseases and other similar unpredictable events, and responses to those events or acts, may create economic and/or political uncertainties, which could have a negative impact on the Polish economy and, more specifically, could impede the Group's business and result in substantial losses. Such events or acts and losses resulting therefrom are difficult to predict and may relate to property, financial assets or key employees.

If the Group's plans do not fully address these events, or if its plans cannot be implemented under the circumstances, such losses may increase. Unforeseen events can also lead to additional operating costs, such as higher insurance premiums and the implementation of back-up systems. Insurance coverage for certain risks may also be unavailable, thus increasing the risk to the Group. The Group's inability to effectively manage these risks could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks relating to the Group and its relationship with Commerzbank and its affiliates (the Commerzbank Group)

Commerzbank holds corporate control over the Bank

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, Commerzbank held 29,352,897 shares, representing 69.42 per cent. of the Bank's share capital which gave Commerzbank the right to exercise 69.42 per cent. of the total number of votes at any General Shareholders' Meeting.

Commerzbank is able to exercise corporate control over the Bank due to its share in the capital of the Bank and in the total number of votes at the General Meeting. In particular, Commerzbank has majority voting power at the General Meeting, and thus has a decisive voice regarding major corporate actions, such as the amendment of the Articles of Association, issuance of new shares of the Bank, decrease of the Bank's share capital, issuance of convertible bonds, payment of dividends and other actions which according to the Polish Code of Commercial Companies and Partnerships of 15 September 2000 (as amended) (KSH) require a qualified or simple majority vote at a General Shareholders' Meeting for approval. In addition, Commerzbank holds a sufficient number of votes to appoint a majority of the members of the Supervisory Board, which in turn appoints the members of the Management Board. As a result, Commerzbank has the ability to exercise considerable control over the Bank's operations.

If the interests of Commerzbank and the interests of the Group conflict, this could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group.

The Group depends on Commerzbank's funding

The Group still depends to a large extent on Commerzbank's funding, although in recent years the Group has diversified its funding profile. The Bank has been provided with foreign currency denominated senior unsecured funding by Commerzbank and issued subordinated CHF-denominated bonds which have been acquired by Commerzbank. As at 31 December 2016, the total outstanding indebtedness of the Group to the Commerzbank Group, including loans, subordinated liabilities and other liabilities, was the equivalent of PLN 9.3 billion. As at 31 December 2016, the value of subordinated liabilities granted to the Bank by Commerzbank was PLN 2.7 billion.

Any sudden or material reduction in Commerzbank's funding to the Group would have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operation.

In addition, under its loan agreements with Commerzbank, the Bank may be required to repay all outstanding loans with all outstanding interest and associated costs if Commerzbank ceases, directly or indirectly, to own at least 50 per cent. plus one share of the Bank's share capital and/or total number of votes in the Bank. Any reduction in Commerzbank's holding in the Bank's share capital and/or total number of votes in the Bank resulting in an early repayment obligation would have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group diversifies its funding base in order to reduce the volume of funding provided by Commerzbank. It seeks to achieve this by repaying maturing loans and replacing them by increasing the amount of stable deposits (partially swapping deposits with medium and long-term maturity into the required foreign currencies), by issuing senior unsecured bonds and by issuing covered bonds via mBank Hipoteczny.

If the Group is unable to execute its funding strategy, the Group's funding costs may increase and the Bank's funding concentration and reliance on Commerzbank would continue.

For more information see the section "Material Contracts".

The Bank's shareholders are not required to support the Bank

The Bank is an independent entity from its principal shareholder (Commerzbank) and, as indicated above, has historically benefited from its support in different areas. Commerzbank's past efforts do not necessarily mean that it is obliged to provide support and finance to the Group in the future, in particular to subscribe for newly-issued shares in any future equity offering or ensure debt financing for the Group. If the Bank needs further equity injections or debt financing and/or a significant decrease of Commerzbank's shareholding in the Bank in the future were to occur, a lack of financial support from Commerzbank may have a negative reputational effect on the Group. A loss of control over the Bank by Commerzbank in the future may lead to negative consequences resulting from the agreements based on which the Group obtained debt financing, in particular the potential necessity to repay such debt financing earlier. Moreover, the Bank's issuer default ratings by Standard & Poor's and Fitch incorporate uplift driven by parental support, which would be removed if Commerzbank lost control over the Bank.

The occurrence of any of these situations may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations.

Potential conflicts of interest

Neither the Issuer nor the Bank is aware of any conflicts of interest at the date of this Base Prospectus which would be material for the issue and subscription of the Notes.

Nevertheless the following potential conflicts of interest could exist in connection with any issue of Notes in the context of this Programme:

- (i) the Issuer is a subsidiary of the Bank and is subject to the corporate governance rules of the Group, which aim to ensure that the direct or indirect control of the Issuer complies with applicable law. Subject to this provision, it is not excluded that potential conflicts of interest between the Issuer and its principal shareholder and indeed Commerzbank as Arranger or Dealer (since the Issuer and the Bank are part of the Commerzbank Group) could affect the Noteholders; and
- (ii) certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions and may perform services for the Group in the ordinary course of business

Dispute resolution risk

Litigation, administrative or other proceedings or actions may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

Due to the nature of its business, the Group may be exposed to a risk of court, administrative or other proceedings being instituted against it by customers, employees, shareholders and other persons in connection with its business.

The outcome of litigation or similar proceedings or actions is difficult to assess or quantify. Plaintiffs in these types of actions against the Bank or the Group's companies may seek recovery in large or indeterminate amounts or other remedies that may affect the Bank's or the Group companies' ability to conduct their business, and the magnitude of the potential losses relating to such actions may remain unknown for substantial periods of time. The cost to defend future actions may be significant. There may also be adverse publicity associated with litigation against the particular Group's companies that could damage the reputation of the Group or the particular Group's companies, regardless of whether the allegations are valid or whether the Group is ultimately found liable. As a result, litigation, administrative and other proceedings may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group faces risks relating to class action suits

A class action concerning changes in interest rate clauses was brought against the Bank in December 2010 by the Municipal Ombudsman, who represented a group of retail clients of the Bank who took mortgage loans in CHF (as of 17 October 2012, the approved class consisted of 1,247 persons). The claimants demanded that it be determined that the Bank improperly performed credit agreements by collecting overcharged amounts of interest in the period between 1 January 2009 and 28 February 2010. In particular, it was alleged that the Bank improperly applied provisions of the agreements concerning variable interest rates, namely that the Bank should have reduced interest rates on loans when the LIBOR index decreased. It was the first class action brought against the Group.

On 4 April 2016, the Municipal Ombudsman, representing a group of 390 individual, CHF-indexed mortgage loans borrowers, filed a class action against the Bank with the Regional Court in Łódź. In May 2016 the claimant added another 144 persons to the list of the group members. The statement of claim included alternative claims for declaring the invalidity of the loan agreements in part i.e. in the scope of the provisions related to indexation, or declaring that the agreements in question are invalid in whole.

No assurance can be given that the Bank will be successful in the above proceedings. Moreover, as a consequence of the above class actions, a number of other clients of the Bank in similar circumstances to those described above may file claims for compensation.

Taking into account the specificities of the banking industry, increasing awareness of consumers of their rights and consumer protection and the first precedents of class action regarding the protection of consumers in the Polish banking sector, no assurance can be given that the Bank will not face other class actions in the future or that the class actions will not become an inherent element of the Polish banking sector. The occurrence of any such factor may in particular result in the Group's incurring substantial expenses and/or being required to pay damages, it may also harm the Bank's reputation. Any final court judgment issued in relation to any such matters against the Group or any further development relating to class actions may have an adverse effect on the Group's business and financial results.

See "Business of the Group – Legal, Administrative and Arbitration Proceedings".

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the programme

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features:

If the Issuer has the right to redeem any Notes at its option, this may limit the market value of the Notes concerned and an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a manner which achieves a similar effective return

An optional redemption feature of Notes is likely to limit their market value. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

If the Issuer has the right to convert the interest rate on any Notes from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or vice versa, this may affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes concerned.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes are Notes which may bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Where the Issuer has the right to effect such a conversion, this will affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes since the Issuer may be expected to convert the rate when it is likely to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing. If the Issuer converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate in such circumstances, the spread on the Fixed/ Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than the prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. If the Issuer converts from a floating rate to a fixed rate in such circumstances, the fixed rate may be lower than the prevailing market rates.

Notes which are issued at a substantial discount or premium may experience price volatility in response to changes in market interest rates.

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium to their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for more conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

An investor in Subordinated Notes assumes an enhanced risk of loss in the event of the Issuer's insolvency

The Issuer's obligations under Subordinated Notes will be unsecured and subordinated and will rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and at least pari passu with all present and future, direct, unconditional, unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer outstanding from time to time, save for certain obligations required to be preferred by French law in connection with any prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer. In the event of a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer, and to the extent permitted by French law, the rights of a holder of such Subordinated Notes shall be subordinated in right of payment only to claims against the Issuer of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer, as more fully described in Condition 2.3.

The proceeds from the issue of Subordinated Notes might not be treated as the Guarantor's Tier 1 or Tier 2 funds for regulatory capital purposes in Poland

It is not certain whether the KNF will agree to recognise the issue proceeds transferred to the Guarantor by the Issuer from the issue of Subordinated Notes as the Guarantor's Additional Tier 1 or Tier 2 funds according to Art. 127 of the Banking Law, which refers to the CRR in this respect. Under the Banking Law the repayment of Additional Tier 1 or Tier 2 funds cannot be secured directly or indirectly by the Bank. The Subordinated Guarantee does not secure the repayment of the subordinated funds received by the Guarantor, it only secures the repayment of the Subordinated Notes issued by the Issuer. However, the KNF may adopt the view that the existence of the Subordinated Guarantee results in the issue proceeds from the issue of Subordinated Notes not meeting the criteria set out in Art. 127 of the Banking Law, which refers to Articles 52 and 63 of the CRR.

Risks related to Notes generally

Set out below is a description of certain risks relating to the Notes generally:

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors.

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The conditions of the Notes also provide that the Issuer may, with the consent of the Issuer and Paying Agent, but, without the consent of Noteholders, (i) amend the Conditions of the Notes to correct a manifest error, cure any ambiguity or cure, correct or supplement any defective provision contained therein or (ii) amend the Conditions of the Notes in any manner which is not materially prejudicial to the interests of holders of such Notes, or (iii) substitute for itself another company as principal debtor under any Notes in place of the Issuer, as more fully described in Condition 14 (Meetings of Noteholders, Modification and Substitution).

Taxation

Potential purchasers and sellers of the Notes should be aware that they may be required to pay taxes or other documentary charges or duties in accordance with the laws and practices of the country where the Notes are transferred or in other jurisdictions. In some jurisdictions, no official statements of the tax authorities or court decisions may be available for innovative financial securities such as the Notes. Potential investors are advised not to rely upon the tax summary contained in this Base Prospectus and/or in the Final Terms or Pricing Supplement (if applicable) but to ask for their own tax adviser's advice on their individual taxation with respect to the acquisition, sale and redemption of the Notes. Only these advisers are in a position to duly consider the specific situation of the potential investor. This investment consideration has to be read in connection with the taxation sections of this Base Prospectus and the additional tax sections, if any, contained in the relevant Final Terms or Pricing Supplement (if applicable).

The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law, French law or administrative practice

The conditions of the Notes (except the provisions of Conditions 2.3 which will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, French law) are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Base Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law, French law or administrative practice after the date of this Base Prospectus and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

Risk of suspension, interruption or termination of trading in the Notes

The listing of the Notes may, depending on the rules applicable to the relevant stock exchange, be suspended or interrupted by the respective stock exchange or a competent regulatory authority for a number of reasons, including a violation of price limits, a breach of statutory provisions, the occurrence of operational problems involving the stock exchange or generally if deemed required in order to secure a functioning market or to safeguard the interests of investors. Furthermore, trading in the Notes may be terminated either upon the decision of the stock exchange or a regulatory authority or upon application by the Issuer.

Because the global Notes are held by or on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined above), investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more global Notes. Such global Notes will be deposited with a common depositary or common safekeeper (as the case may be) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the global Notes.

While the Notes are represented by one or more global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. While the Notes are represented by one or more global Notes, the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to the common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a global Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the global Notes.

Holders of beneficial interests in the global Notes will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to appoint appropriate proxies.

Clearing system risk of discontinuance

Secondary market sales of book-entry interests in the global Notes will be conducted in accordance with the normal rules and operating procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are under no obligation to perform or to continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time.

Secondary market sales of interests in the global Notes may be conducted in accordance with the normal rules and operating procedures of the domestic clearing system, or interests in the global Notes may be transferred to a direct or indirect participant of another clearing system in accordance with the standard arrangements for such cross-market transfers. None of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg nor any other Clearing System is under any obligation to perform or to continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time.

Any such discontinuance could have a material adverse effect on an investor's holding of Notes or his ability to resell the Notes in the secondary market.

The Notes may be de-listed, which may materially affect an investor's ability to resell

Any Notes that are listed on any listing authority, stock exchange or quotation system may be de-listed. If any Notes are delisted, the Issuer is obliged to endeavour promptly to obtain an alternative listing. Although no assurance is made as to the liquidity of the Notes as a result of listing on any listing authority, stock exchange or quotation system, delisting the Notes may have a material adverse effect on a Noteholder's ability to resell the Notes in the secondary market.

Investors who purchase Notes in denominations that are not an integral multiple of the Specified Denomination may be adversely affected if definitive Notes are subsequently required to be issued

In relation to any issue of Notes in bearer form which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case, a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in bearer form in respect of such holding (should such Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If definitive Notes in bearer form are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

French insolvency law

Under French insolvency law, holders of debt securities are automatically grouped into a single assembly of holders (the Assembly) in case of the opening in France of an accelerated financial preservation (procédure de sauvegarde financière accélérée) or a preservation (procédure de sauvegarde) or a judicial reorganisation procedure (procédure de redressement judiciaire) of the Issuer, in order to defend their common interests.

The Assembly comprises holders of all debt securities issued by the Issuer (including the Notes), whether or not under a debt issuance programme (such as a Euro Medium Term Note programme) and regardless of their governing law.

The Assembly deliberates on the draft safeguard (projet de plan de sauvegarde), accelerated financial safeguard plan (plan de sauvegarde financière-accelérée) or judicial reorganisation plan (projet de plan de redressement) applicable to the Issuer and may further agree to:

- increase the liabilities (charges) of holders of debt securities (including the Noteholders) by rescheduling and/or writing off debts;
- establish an unequal treatment between holders of debt securities (including the Noteholders) as appropriate under the circumstances; and/or
- decide to convert debt securities (including the Notes) into shares or securities that give or may give right to the share capital.

Decisions of the Assembly will be taken by a two-thirds majority (calculated as a proportion of the debt securities held by the holders attending such Assembly or represented thereat). No quorum is required on convocation of the Assembly.

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions relating to the representation of the Noteholders described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in this Base Prospectus and, if applicable, the applicable Final Terms or the Pricing Supplement (in the case of Exempt Notes) will not be applicable in these circumstances.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a description of material market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell his Notes

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities.

If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, he will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of his holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes and the Guarantor will make any payments under the Guarantee in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer or the Guarantor to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

The value of Fixed Rate Notes may be adversely affected by movements in market interest rates

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances whilst the registration application is pending. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out in "Description of the Group – Ratings" of this Base Prospectus and further details may be disclosed in the Final Terms or the Pricing Supplement (in the case of Exempt Notes).

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (i) Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO NON-EXEMPT OFFERS OF NOTES

Restrictions on Non-exempt Offers of Notes in relevant Member States

Certain Tranches of Notes with a denomination of less than €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency) may be offered in circumstances where there is no exemption from the obligation under the Prospectus Directive to publish a prospectus. Any such offer is referred to as a Non-exempt Offer. This Base Prospectus has been prepared on a basis that permits Non-exempt Offers of Notes in Germany, the Netherlands, Austria, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom and Poland as specified in the applicable Final Terms (each specified Member State a Non-exempt Offer Jurisdiction and together the Non-exempt Offer Jurisdictions). Any person making or intending to make a Non-exempt Offer of Notes on the basis of this Base Prospectus must do so only with the Issuer's consent to the use of this Base Prospectus as provided under "Consent given in accordance with Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive" below and provided such person complies with the conditions attached to that consent.

Save as provided above, none of the Issuer, the Guarantor and any Dealer have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any Non-exempt Offer of Notes in circumstances in which an obligation arises for the Issuer or any Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer.

Consent given in accordance with Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive

In the context of a Non-exempt Offer of Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantor accept responsibility, in each of the Non-exempt Offer Jurisdictions, for the content of this Base Prospectus in relation to any person (an Investor) who purchases any Notes in a Non-exempt Offer made by a Dealer or an Authorised Offeror in that connection (as defined below), where that offer is made during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms and provided that the conditions attached to the giving of consent for the use of this Base Prospectus are complied with. The consent and conditions attached to it are set out under "Consent" and "Common Conditions to Consent" below.

None of the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Dealer makes any representation as to the compliance by an Authorised Offeror with any applicable conduct of business rules or other applicable regulatory or securities law requirements in relation to any Non-exempt Offer and none of the Issuer or any Dealer has any responsibility or liability for the actions of that Authorised Offeror.

Except in the circumstances set out in the following paragraphs, none of the Issuer, the Guarantor and, for the avoidance of doubt, any Dealer has authorised the making of any Non-exempt Offer by any offeror and the Issuer has not consented to the use of this Base Prospectus by any other person in connection with any Non-exempt Offer of Notes. Any Non-exempt Offer made without the consent of the Issuer is unauthorised and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor and, for the avoidance of doubt, any Dealer accepts any responsibility or liability for the actions of the persons making any such unauthorised offer.

If, in the context of a Non-exempt Offer, an Investor is offered Notes by a person which is not an Authorised Offeror, the Investor should check with that person whether anyone is responsible for this Base Prospectus for the purposes of the relevant Non-exempt Offer and, if so, who that person is. If the Investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on this Base Prospectus and/or who is responsible for its contents, it should take legal advice.

- VI. retain Investor identification records for at least the minimum period required under applicable Rules, and shall, if so requested and to the extent permitted by the Rules, make such records available to the relevant Dealer, the Issuer and the Guarantor or directly to the appropriate authorities with jurisdiction over the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or the relevant Dealer in order to enable the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or the relevant Dealer to comply with anti-money laundering, anti-bribery, anti-corruption and "know your client" Rules applying to the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or the relevant Dealer;

- XI. if it conveys or publishes any communication (other than this Base Prospectus or any other materials provided to such financial intermediary by or on behalf of the Issuer for the purposes of the relevant Non-exempt Offer) in connection with the relevant Non-exempt Offer, it will ensure that such communication (A) is fair, clear and not misleading and complies with the Rules, (B) states that such financial intermediary has provided such communication independently of the Issuer, that such financial intermediary is solely responsible for such communication and that none of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer accepts any responsibility for such communication and (C) does not, without the prior written consent of the Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer (as applicable), use the legal or publicity names of the Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer or any other name, brand or logo registered

- XII. ensure that no holder of Notes or potential Investor in Notes shall become an indirect or direct client of the Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer for the purposes of any applicable Rules from time to time, and to the extent that any client obligations are created by the relevant financial intermediary under any applicable Rules, then such financial intermediary shall perform any such obligations so arising;

For this purpose, relevant information is information that is available to or can be acquired by the relevant financial intermediary:
 - (i) in connection with any request or investigation by any regulator in relation to the Notes, the Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer; and/or

 - XIV. during the period of the initial offering of the Notes: (i) only sell the Notes at the Issue Price specified in the applicable Final Terms (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Dealer); (ii) only sell the Notes for settlement on the Issue Date specified in the applicable Final Terms; (iii) not appoint any sub-distributors (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Dealer); (iv) not pay any fee or remuneration or commissions or benefits to any third parties in relation to the offering or sale of the Notes (unless otherwise agreed with the relevant Dealer); and (v) comply with such other rules of conduct as may be reasonably required and specified by the relevant Dealer; and
 - XV. either (i) obtain from each potential Investor an executed application for the Notes, or (ii) keep a record of all requests such financial intermediary (x) makes for its discretionary management clients, (y) receives from its advisory clients and (z) receives from its execution-only clients, in each case prior to making any order for the Notes on their behalf, and in each case maintain the same on its files for so long as is required by any applicable Rules;
- (B) agrees and undertakes to indemnify each of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer (in each case on behalf of such entity and its respective directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates and controlling persons) against any losses, liabilities, costs, claims, charges, expenses, actions or demands (including reasonable costs of investigation and any defence raised thereto and counsel's fees and disbursements associated with any such investigation or defence) which any of them may incur or which may be made against any of them arising out of or in relation to, or in connection with, any breach of any of the foregoing agreements, representations, warranties or undertakings by such financial intermediary, including (without limitation) any unauthorised action by such financial intermediary or failure by such financial intermediary to observe any of the above restrictions or requirements or the making by such financial intermediary of any unauthorised representation or the giving or use by it of any information which has not been authorised for such purposes by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the relevant Dealer; and

(C) agrees and accepts that:

- I. the contract between the Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary formed upon acceptance by the relevant financial intermediary of the Issuer's offer to use this Base Prospectus with its consent in connection with the relevant Non-exempt Offer (the Authorised Offeror Contract), and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law;
- II. the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract (including any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract) (a Dispute) and the Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts;
- III. for the purposes of (C)(II), each of the Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary waives any objection to the English courts on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum to settle any dispute; and
- IV. the Guarantor and each relevant Dealer will, pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, be entitled to enforce those provisions of the Authorised Offeror Contract which are, or are expressed to be, for their benefit, including the agreements, representations, warranties, undertakings and indemnity given by the financial intermediary pursuant to the Authorised Offeror Terms.

The financial intermediaries referred to in paragraphs (a)(ii), (a)(iii) and (b) above are together the Authorised Offerors and each an Authorised Offeror.

Any Authorised Offeror falling within paragraph (b) above who meets the conditions set out in paragraph (b) and the other conditions stated in "Common Conditions to Consent" below and who wishes to use this Base Prospectus in connection with a Non-exempt Offer is required, for the duration of the relevant Offer Period, to publish on its website the Acceptance Statement.

Common Conditions to Consent

The conditions to the Issuer's consent to the use of this Base Prospectus in the context of the relevant Non-exempt Offer are (in addition to the conditions described in paragraph (b) above if Part B of the applicable Final Terms specifies "General Consent" as "Applicable") that such consent:

- (i) is only valid during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) only extends to the use of this Base Prospectus to make Non-exempt Offers of the relevant Tranche of Notes in Germany, The Netherlands, Austria, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom and Poland, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The consent referred to above relates to Offer Periods (if any) occurring within 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus.

The only relevant Member States which may, in respect of any Tranche of Notes, be specified in the applicable Final Terms (if any relevant Member States are so specified) as indicated in (ii) above will be Germany, The Netherlands, Austria, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom and Poland, and accordingly each Tranche of Notes may only be offered to Investors as part of a Non-exempt Offer in Germany, The Netherlands, Austria, Luxembourg, the United Kingdom and Poland, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, or otherwise in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or any Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer.

ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN INVESTORS AND AUTHORISED OFFERORS

AN INVESTOR INTENDING TO PURCHASE OR PURCHASING ANY NOTES IN A NON-EXEMPT OFFER FROM AN AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL DO SO, AND OFFERS AND SALES OF SUCH NOTES TO AN INVESTOR BY SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE MADE, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER IN PLACE BETWEEN SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR AND SUCH INVESTOR INCLUDING ARRANGEMENTS IN RELATION TO PRICE, ALLOCATIONS, EXPENSES AND SETTLEMENT. THE ISSUER WILL NOT BE A PARTY TO ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENTS WITH SUCH INVESTORS IN CONNECTION WITH THE NON-EXEMPT OFFER OR SALE OF THE NOTES CONCERNED AND, ACCORDINGLY, THIS BASE PROSPECTUS AND ANY FINAL TERMS WILL NOT CONTAIN SUCH INFORMATION. THE RELEVANT INFORMATION WILL BE PROVIDED BY THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR AT THE TIME OF SUCH OFFER. NONE OF THE ISSUER, THE GUARANTOR AND, FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, ANY DEALER HAS ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY TO AN INVESTOR IN RESPECT OF THE INFORMATION DESCRIBED ABOVE.

FORM OF THE NOTES

Any reference in this section to "applicable Final Terms" shall be deemed to include a reference to "applicable Pricing Supplement" where relevant.

Each Tranche of Notes will be in bearer form and initially be issued in the form of a temporary global note (a Temporary Global Note) or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, a permanent global note (a Permanent Global Note and, together with a Temporary Global Note, each a Global Note) which, in either case, will:

- (a) if the Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note (NGN) form, as stated in the applicable Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the Common Safekeeper) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg; and
- (b) if the Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN Form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository (the Common Depository) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Where the Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are in NGN form, the applicable Final Terms will also indicate Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be notified as to whether such Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The Common Safekeeper for NGNs will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Whilst any Note is represented by a Temporary Global Note, payments of principal, interest (if any) and any other amount payable in respect of the Notes due prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below) will be made (against presentation of the Temporary Global Note if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification (in a form to be provided) to the effect that the beneficial owners of interests in the Temporary Global Note are not U.S. persons or persons who have purchased for resale to any U.S. person, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, has given a like certification (based on the certifications it has received) to the Agent.

On and after the date (the Exchange Date) which is 40 days after a Temporary Global Note is issued, interests in such Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) upon a request as described therein either for (i) interests in a Permanent Global Note of the same Series or (ii) for definitive Notes of the same Series with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms and subject, in the case of definitive Notes, to such notice period as is specified in the applicable Final Terms), in each case against certification of beneficial ownership as described above unless such certification has already been given. The holder of a Temporary Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification, exchange of the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

Payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts on a Permanent Global Note will be made through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (against presentation or surrender (as the case may be) of the Permanent Global Note if the Permanent Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) without any requirement for certification.

The applicable Final Terms will specify that a Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for definitive Notes with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached upon either (a) not less than 60 days' written notice from Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Global Note) to the Agent as described therein or (b) only upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event or (c) at any time at the request of the Issuer. For these purposes, Exchange Event means that (i) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 9) has occurred and is continuing, or (ii) the Issuer has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have been closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or have announced an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and no successor clearing system is available. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 if an Exchange Event occurs. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg or the common depositary (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Global Note) may give notice to the Agent requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 45 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Agent.

The following legend will appear on all Notes which have an original maturity of more than one year and on all interest coupons relating to such Notes:

"ANY UNITED STATES PERSON WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(j) AND 1287(a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE."

The sections referred to provide that United States holders, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Notes or interest coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment in respect of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of such Notes or interest coupons.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will only be transferable in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes"), the Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche of Notes is issued which is intended to form a single Series with an existing Tranche of Notes at a point after the Issue Date of the further Tranche, the Notes of such further Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Notes of any other Tranche of the same Series until such time as the Tranches are consolidated and form a single Series, which shall not be prior to the expiry of the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act, Regulation S) applicable to the Notes of such Tranche.

Any reference herein to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms.

A Note may be accelerated by the holder thereof in certain circumstances described in Condition 9. In such circumstances, where any Note is still represented by a Global Note and the Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and repayable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of such Notes and payment in full of the amount due has not been made in accordance with the provisions of the Global Note, then the Global Note will become void at 8.00 p.m. (London time) on the day immediately following such day. At the same time, holders of interests in such Global Note credited to their accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, will become entitled to proceed directly against the Issuer on the basis of statements of account provided by Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg on and subject to the terms of a deed of covenant and guarantee (the Deed of Covenant) dated on or about 23 March 2016 and executed by the Issuer and the Guarantor.

The Conditions of the original issue being tapped should be reviewed to ensure that they would not require the final terms documenting the further issue to include information which is no longer permitted in final terms. Where the final terms documenting the further issue would need to include such information, it will not be possible to tap using final terms and a drawdown prospectus (incorporating the original Conditions and final terms) will instead need to be prepared.)

[Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the Conditions set forth in the Base Prospectus dated [12 April 2012]/[8 April 2013]/[14 March 2014]/[24 March 2015]/[23 March 2016] which are incorporated by reference in the Base Prospectus dated 8 March 2017. PART A – CONTRACTUAL TERMS

[Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the Conditions (the Conditions) set forth in the Base Prospectus dated 8 March 2017 [and the supplement[s] to it dated [date] [and [date]] which [together] constitute[s] a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (the Base Prospectus). This document constitutes the Final Terms of the Notes described herein for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus. Full information on the Issuer, the Guarantor and the offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of these Final Terms and the Base Prospectus. The Base Prospectus has been published on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website (www.bourse.lu).]

(The following alternative language applies if the first tranche of an issue which is being increased was issued under a Base Prospectus with an earlier date. N.B. when using a post-1 July 2012 approved Base Prospectus to tap a previous issue under a pre-1 July 2012 approved Base Prospectus, the final terms in the post-1 July 2012 Base Prospectus will take a different form due to the more restrictive approach to final terms. The Conditions of the original issue being tapped should be reviewed to ensure that they would not require the final terms documenting the further issue to include information which is no longer permitted in final terms. Where the final terms documenting the further issue would need to include such information, it will not be possible to tap using final terms and a drawdown prospectus (incorporating the original Conditions and final terms) will instead need to be prepared.)

[Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the Conditions (the Conditions) set forth in the Base Prospectus dated [12 April 2012]/[8 April 2013]/[14 March 2014]/[24 March 2015]/[23 March 2016] which are incorporated by reference in the Base Prospectus dated 8 March 2017. This document constitutes the Final Terms of the Notes described herein for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus dated 8 March 2017 [and the supplement[s] to it dated [date] [and [date]] which [together] constitute[s] a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (the Base Prospectus), including the Conditions incorporated by reference in the Base Prospectus. Full information on the Issuer, the Guarantor and the offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of these Final Terms and the Base Prospectus. The applicable Pricing Supplement in relation to any Tranche of Exempt Notes may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the following Terms and Conditions, replace or modify the following Terms and Conditions for the purpose of such Notes. The applicable Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each Global Note and definitive Note. Reference should be made to "Applicable Final Terms" for a description of the content of Final Terms which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.

This Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by mFinance France S.A. (the Issuer) pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined below).

References herein to the Notes shall be references to the Notes of this Series and shall mean:

- (a) in relation to any Notes represented by a global Note (a Global Note), units of each Specified Denomination in the Specified Currency;
- (b) any Global Note; and
- (c) any definitive Notes issued in exchange for a Global Note.

The Notes and the Coupons (as defined below) have the benefit of an Agency Agreement (such Agency Agreement as amended and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Agency Agreement) dated on or about 23 March 2016 and made between the Issuer, mBank S.A. (formerly known as BRE Bank SA, the Guarantor), Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft as issuing and principal paying agent (the Agent, which expression shall include any successor agent) and the other paying agents named therein (together with the Agent, the Paying Agents, which expression shall include any additional or successor paying agents). The Agent and the Paying Agents are together referred to as the Agents.

The final terms for this Note (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Final Terms attached to or endorsed on this Note which complete these Terms and Conditions (the Conditions) or, if this Note is a Note which is neither admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area nor offered in the European Economic Area in circumstances where a prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Directive (an Exempt Note), the final terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Pricing Supplement and may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the Conditions, replace or modify the Conditions for the purposes of this Note. References to the applicable Final Terms are, unless otherwise stated, to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) attached to or endorsed on this Note. Any reference to the Conditions to applicable Final Terms shall be deemed to include a reference to applicable Pricing Supplement where relevant. The expression Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/EU (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive) to the extent implemented in the relevant Member State of the European Economic Area and includes any relevant implementing measure in the relevant Member State and the expression 2010 PD Amending Directive means Directive 2010/73/EU.

Interest bearing definitive Notes have interest coupons (Coupons) and, in the case of Notes which, when issued in definitive form, have more than 27 interest payments remaining, talons for further Coupons (Talons) attached on issue. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons. Global Notes do not have Coupons or Talons attached on issue.

The applicable Final Terms will state in particular whether this Note is (i) an unsubordinated Note guaranteed on an unsubordinated basis by the Guarantor as described in Condition 2.2 (an Unsubordinated Note) or (ii) a subordinated Note guaranteed on a subordinated basis by the Guarantor as described in Condition 2.3 (a Subordinated Note). The payment of all amounts in respect of the Unsubordinated Notes and the Subordinated Notes have been guaranteed by the Guarantor pursuant to a Deed of Covenant, such Deed of Covenant as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time (the Guarantee) dated on or about 23 March 2016 and executed by the Guarantor.)

Any reference herein to Couponholders shall mean the holders of the Coupons and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include the holders of the Talons.

The Noteholders and the Couponholders are entitled to the benefit of the Deed of Covenant (containing the Guarantee) (such Deed of Covenant as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Deed of Covenant) dated on or about 23 March 2016 and made by the Issuer and the Guarantor. The original of the Deed of Covenant is held by the common depository or common safekeeper as the case may be for Euroclear (as defined below) and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined below) and by the Agent on behalf of the Noteholders and the Couponholders at its specified office.

Copies of the Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant are available for inspection during normal business hours at the specified office of each of the Agent. If the Notes are to be admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange the applicable Final Terms will be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu), save that, if this Note is an Exempt Note, the applicable Pricing Supplement will only be obtainable by a Noteholder holding one or more Notes and such Noteholder must produce evidence satisfactory to the Issuer and the relevant Agent as to its holding of such Notes and identity. The Noteholders and the Couponholders are deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all the provisions of the Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant and the applicable Final Terms which are applicable to them. The statements in the Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Agency Agreement.

Words and expressions defined in the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Final Terms shall have the same meanings where used in the Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms will prevail.

In the Conditions, euro means the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of the European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, as amended.

Subject as set out below, title to the Notes and Coupons will pass by delivery. The Issuer, the Guarantor and any Agent will (except as otherwise required by law) deem and treat the bearer of any Note or Coupon as the absolute owner thereof (whether or not overdue and notwithstanding any notice of ownership or writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof) for all purposes but, in the case of any Global Note, without prejudice to the provisions set out in the next succeeding paragraph.

For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a Global Note held on behalf of Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V. (Euroclear) and/or Clearstream Banking, S.A. Notes which are represented by a Global Note will be transferable only in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

References to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in Part B of the applicable Final Terms.

2. STATUS OF THE UNSUBORDINATED NOTES, THE SENIOR GUARANTEE, SUBORDINATION AND THE SUBORDINATED GUARANTEE

The applicable Final Terms will indicate whether the Notes are Unsubordinated Notes or Subordinated Notes and, in the case of Subordinated Notes, the applicable subordination provisions.

2.1 Status of the Unsubordinated Notes

The Unsubordinated Notes and any related Coupons are direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and (subject to the provisions of Condition 3) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) equally with all other unsecured obligations (other than subordinated obligations, if any) of the Issuer, from time to time outstanding.

2.2 Status of the Senior Guarantee

The payment of principal and interest expressed to be payable by the Issuer in respect of the Unsubordinated Notes and has been unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by the Guarantor in the Guarantee (the Senior Guarantee). The obligations of the Guarantor under the Senior Guarantee constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Guarantor and rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and at least pari passu with all other unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Guarantor present and future (save for certain mandatory exceptions provided by Polish law).

2.3 Status of the Subordinated Notes

- (a) The Notes are deeply subordinated notes of the Issuer issued pursuant to the provisions of Article L. 228-97 of the French Code de commerce. The Subordinated Notes and (if not otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms) the Coupons constitute unsecured subordinated obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) at least pari passu with all present and future, direct, unconditional unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Issuer outstanding from time to time, but in priority to the prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer.
- (b) The Subordinated Notes shall, in the event of a bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Issuer, and to the extent permitted by French law, be subordinated in right of payment only to claims against the Issuer of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer. If any judgment is rendered by any competent court declaring the judicial liquidation (liquidation judiciaire) of the Issuer or if the Issuer is liquidated for any other reason, the rights of payment of the holders of Subordinated Notes shall be subordinated to the payment in full of unsubordinated creditors and, subject to such payment in full, the holders of Subordinated Notes shall be paid in priority to any prêts participatifs granted to the Issuer. In the event of incomplete payment of unsubordinated creditors, the obligations of the Issuer in connection with the Subordinated Notes will be terminated.
- (c) No holder of Subordinated Notes who shall be indebted to the Issuer shall be entitled to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against moneys owed by the Issuer in respect of such Subordinated Notes.

2.4 Status of the Subordinated Guarantee

The Guarantor has irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed the due payment of all sums expressed to be payable under the Subordinated Notes on a subordinated basis (the Subordinated Guarantee). The obligations of the Guarantor under the Subordinated Guarantee constitute unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Guarantor to the extent that, in the event of the bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of the Guarantor, and to the extent permitted by Polish law, payment by the Guarantor will be subordinated to claims against the Guarantor of all unsubordinated creditors of the Guarantor and to claims preferred under Polish law generally.

This Condition 3 is applicable only in relation to Unsubordinated Notes. So long as any Unsubordinated Note remains outstanding (as defined in the Agency Agreement):

- (a) the Issuer will not create or have outstanding any Encumbrance upon, or with respect to, any of its present or future business, undertaking, assets or revenues (including any uncalled capital) to secure any Relevant External Indebtedness, except that the Issuer shall be permitted to maintain deposits (kaucja) or substantially similar other deposits with the Guarantor as security for guarantees granted by the Guarantor of Relevant Indebtedness of the Issuer; and

- (b) the Guarantor will not create or have outstanding any Encumbrance upon, or with respect to, any of its present or future business, undertaking, assets or revenues (including any uncalled capital) to secure any Relevant External Indebtedness unless the Guarantor shall, in the case of the creation of an Encumbrance, before or at the same time, in any other case, promptly take any and all action necessary to ensure that:
 - (i) all amounts payable by the Guarantor under the Senior Guarantee are secured by the Encumbrance equally and rateably with the Relevant External Indebtedness; or
 - (ii) such other Encumbrance or other arrangement (whether or not it includes the creation of an Encumbrance) is provided as shall be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (which is defined in the Agency Agreement as a resolution duly passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast) of holders; provided that, the above provisions shall not apply to: (x) any Encumbrance created on property, at the time of purchase thereof, solely as security for the payment of the purchase price thereof and provided that the Relevant External Indebtedness thereby secured does not exceed the purchase price thereof; or (y) any Encumbrance on or with respect to the assets, receivables, remittances or other payment rights of the Guarantor which is created pursuant to any securitisation or like arrangement in accordance with normal market practice and whereby the principal amount of the Relevant External Indebtedness secured by such Encumbrance is substantially limited to the proceeds received by the Guarantor in exchange for the sale, assignment, pledge or other transfer of such assets, receivables, remittances or other payment rights.

3.2 Definitions

In these Conditions:

Encumbrance means any mortgage, pledge, lien, charge, assignment, hypothecation, security interest, title retention, preferential right or trust arrangement and any other security agreement or arrangement;

Relevant External Indebtedness means any Relevant Indebtedness which is payable in or by reference to a currency which is not the lawful currency for the time being of Poland; and Relevant Indebtedness means: (A) any obligation with a maturity greater than one year for the payment of borrowed money which is in the form of, represented or evidenced by a note, bond, debenture or other security or a similar instrument, which is, or is capable of, being quoted, listed, dealt in or traded on a stock exchange or other recognised securities market; or (B) any present or future guarantee or indemnity in respect of any of the foregoing.

4. INTEREST

The applicable Final Terms will indicate whether the Notes are Fixed Rate Notes, Floating Rate Notes or Zero Coupon Notes.

4.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

This Condition 4.1 applies to Fixed Rate Notes only. The applicable Final Terms contains provisions applicable to the determination of fixed rate interest and must be read in conjunction with this Condition 4.1 for full information on the manner in which interest is calculated on Fixed Rate Notes. In particular, the applicable Final Terms will specify the Interest Commencement Date, the Rate(s) of Interest, the Interest Payment Date(s), the Maturity Date, the Fixed Coupon Amount, any applicable Broken Amount, the Calculation Amount, the Day Count Fraction and any applicable Determination Date.

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

If the Notes are in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

As used in these Conditions, Fixed Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

Except in the case of Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (a) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such Global; or
- (b) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest, in accordance with this Condition 4.1:

- (i) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms:
 - (A) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (the Accrual Period) is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the

Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (1) the number of days in such Determination Period and (2) the number of Determination Dates (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) that would occur in one calendar year; or

- (B) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:
 - (1) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
 - (2) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (ii) if "30/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In these Conditions:

Determination Period means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to but excluding the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and sub-unit means, with respect to any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, with respect to euro, one cent.

4.2 Interest on Floating Rate Notes

This Condition 4.2 applies to Floating Rate Notes only. The applicable Final Terms contains provisions applicable to the determination of floating rate interest and must be read in conjunction with this Condition 4.2 for full information on the manner in which interest is calculated on Floating Rate Notes. In particular, the applicable Final Terms will identify any Specified Interest Payment Dates, any Specified Period, the Interest Commencement Date, the Business Day Convention, any Additional Business Centres, whether ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination applies to the calculation of interest, the party who will calculate the amount of interest due if it is not the Agent, the Margin, any maximum or minimum interest rates and the Day Count Fraction. Where ISDA Determination applies to the calculation of interest, the applicable Final Terms will also specify the applicable Floating Rate Option, Designated Maturity and Reset Date. Where Screen Rate Determination applies to the calculation of interest, the applicable Final Terms will also specify the applicable Reference Rate, Interest Determination Date(s) and Relevant Screen Page.

(a) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (i) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or
- (ii) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an Interest Payment Date) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period. In these Conditions, Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date).

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (A) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 4.2(a)(ii) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (i) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (b)(2) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (ii) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (1) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (2) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or
- (B) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or
- (C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or
- (D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In these Conditions, Business Day means a day which is both:

- (a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London and each Additional Business Centre (other than TARGET2 System) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (b) if TARGET2 System is specified as an Additional Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer (TARGET) System (the Target 2 System) is open; and
- (c) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the TARGET 2 System is open.

(b) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes will be determined in the manner specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(i) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this subparagraph (i), ISDA Rate for an Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the 2006 ISDA Definitions, as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. and as amended and updated as at the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes (the ISDA Definitions) and under which:

- (A) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (B) the Designated Maturity is a period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (C) the relevant Reset Date is the day specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the purposes of this subparagraph (i), Floating Rate, Calculation Agent, Floating Rate Option, Designated Maturity and Reset Date have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(ii) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (A) the offered quotation; or
- (B) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (being either LIBOR, EURIBOR, PRIBOR or WIBOR, as specified in the applicable Final Terms) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page (or such replacement page on that service which displays the information) as at 11.00 a.m. (London time, in the case of LIBOR, Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR, Prague time, in the case of PRIBOR, or Warsaw time, in the case of WIBOR) on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent.

If the Agent cannot determine the Reference Rate as aforementioned, because the Screen Page is not published, or if the Agent cannot make such determination for any other reason, then the Reference Rate for the respective Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean, rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred thousandth of a percentage point, (0.000005 per cent. being rounded upwards), determined by the Agent of the interest rates which five reference banks selected by the Agent in conjunction with the Issuer (the Reference Banks), quote to prime banks on the relevant Interest Determination Date for deposits in the Issue Currency for such Interest Period.

Should two or more of the Reference Banks provide the relevant quotation, the arithmetic mean shall be calculated as described above on the basis of the quotations supplied.

If less than two Reference Banks provide a quotation, then the Reference Rate for the respective Interest Period shall be determined by the Agent, the Reference Rate shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date.

If the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 4.2(b)(ii), the Rate of Interest shall be the offered quotation or the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations on the Screen Page, as described above, on the last day preceding the Interest Determination Date on which such quotation was offered (though if a Margin applies, plus or minus such Margin, substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

(c) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(d) Determination of Rate of Interest and calculation of Interest Amounts

The Agent will at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period.

The Agent will calculate the amount of interest (the Interest Amount) payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (i) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note; or
- (ii) in the case of Floating Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation

Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 4.2:

- (i) if "Actual/Actual (ISDA)" or "Actual/Actual" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (ii) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;
- (iii) if "Actual/365 (Sterling)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (iv) if "Actual/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (v) if "30/360", "360/360" or "Bond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y₁ is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y₂ is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M₁ is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M₂ is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D₁ is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

D₂ is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D₁ is greater than 29, in which case D₂ will be 30;

- (vi) if "30E/360" or "Eurobond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D_1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D_2 will be 30;

- (vii) if "30E/360 (ISDA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D_1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D_2 will be 30.

(e) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms) or the relevant

Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms), one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

Designated Maturity means, in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

(f) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Agent will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed (by no later than the first day of each Interest Period) and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 13 as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will promptly be notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13. For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression London Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(g) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 4.2, by the Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Agent in connection with the exercise or non exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

4.3 Accrual of interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date for its redemption unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue until whichever is the earlier of:

- (a) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Note have been paid; and
- (b) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Note has been received by the Agent and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13.

5. PAYMENTS

5.1 Method of payment

Subject as provided below:

- (a) payments in a Specified Currency other than euro will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively); and
- (b) payments will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee.

5.2 Payments Subject to Fiscal and Other Laws

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 7 and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 7) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

5.3 Presentation of definitive Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in Condition 5.1 above only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of definitive Notes, and payments of interest in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia and its possessions)).

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below)) should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of ten years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 7) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 7) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note or Long Maturity Note in definitive form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A Long Maturity Note is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any definitive Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant definitive Note.

5.4 Payments in respect of Global Notes

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any Global Note will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to definitive Notes or otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant Global Note, where applicable against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such Global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment made, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made either on such Global Note by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

5.5 General provisions applicable to payments

The holder of a Global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note and the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note must look solely to Euroclear, or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition, if any amount of principal and/or interest in respect of Notes is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and/or interest in respect of such Notes will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

- (a) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Notes in the manner provided above when due;
- (b) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and
- (c) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer and the Guarantor, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer or the Guarantor.

5.6 Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, Payment Day means any day which (subject to Condition 8) is:

- (a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in:

- (i) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation;
 - (ii) each Additional Financial Centre (other than TARGET2 System) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
 - (iii) if TARGET2 System is specified as an Additional Financial Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open; and
- (b) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the TARGET 2 System is open.

5.7 Interpretation of principal and interest

Any reference in these Conditions to principal in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable:

- (a) any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to principal under Condition 7;
- (b) the Final Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (c) the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (d) the Optional Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes;
- (e) in relation to Zero Coupon Notes, the Amortised Face Amount (as defined in Condition 6.5); and
- (f) any premium and any other amounts (other than interest) which may be payable by the Issuer under or in respect of the Notes.

Any reference in the Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 7.

6. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

6.1 Redemption at maturity

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as specified below, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer at its Final Redemption Amount (which shall be at least be equal the Nominal Amount of each Note) specified in the applicable Final Terms in the relevant Specified Currency on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Final Terms.

6.2 Redemption for tax reasons

Net trading income amounted to PLN 244.6 million in 2016 and was lower by 16.5 per cent. compared to 2015 due to reduced revenue from foreign exchange transactions and a loss booked in other trading income mainly as a result of the adverse valuation of interest rate instruments. DESCRIPTION OF THE GROUP

Overview

The Group is one of the largest financial services groups in Poland providing retail, corporate and investment banking as well as other financial services. It is the fourth largest banking group in the Polish market in terms of total assets and customer loans and fifth in terms of deposits according to the financial statements published by Polish banks. Furthermore, the Group has leading positions in Poland in mobile and internet banking, brokerage, commercial real estate financing, factoring, leasing and distribution of insurance products.

Despite strong competition in the Polish financial sector, the Bank's client base has grown almost entirely organically, reaching 5.3 million retail clients (including 628,900 in the Czech Republic and 263,700 in Slovakia) and 20,940 corporate customers as at 31 December 2016.

The main products and services which the Group provides to retail customers, including private banking customers, comprise in particular current and saving accounts, business accounts for microbusinesses, credit products, deposit products, payment cards, investment products, insurance products (including bancassurance products), brokerage services, and leasing for microbusinesses. The Group offers a wide variety of credit products to its retail customers, including consumer loans, mortgage loans and brokerage lines. On the deposit side, the Bank focuses on savings and current accounts as well as term deposits. The Bank also offers its retail customers brokerage products, investment funds, transaction services and foreign exchange services.

The Bank has replicated its retail banking model in foreign markets. In 2007, the Bank launched operations in the Czech Republic and Slovakia, focusing initially on transactional and deposit products and now expanding also into non-mortgage and mortgage loans as the bank has been able to establish and develop strong client relationships. At the end of 2014, mBank launched the first mobile banking platform in the Czech Republic, building on its success in the domestic market. As a result mBank in the Czech Republic is a fully fledged retail bank representing a successful extension of the Polish model.

The Group's range of products and services for corporate clients is focused on transactional banking products and services (primarily business accounts, local and foreign transfers, payment cards, cash services and liquidity management products). They are combined with business financing products which are used as a means for maintaining long-term banking relationships with clients and a platform for cross-selling more sophisticated non-capital intensive products and services (such as hedging instruments, services relating to the equity capital markets (ECM), debt capital markets (DCM) and mergers and acquisitions (M&A), as well as factoring and leasing).

The Management Board of the Bank believes that the Bank's distribution concept for its clients combines the most technologically advanced solutions adapted for the Polish banking market and the current and future operating environment, including internet and mobile-based tools (such as its retail banking platform New mBank and corporate banking internet platform "mBank CompanyNet"), premium service quality and a mid-sized physical distribution network located throughout Poland. The physical distribution network of the Bank in Poland is composed of (i) its own organically grown countrywide retail network of 138 locations of mBank branded outlets and 141 outlets comprising mFinanse Financial Centres, agency service points and mKiosk outlets, as well as (ii) 29 fully fledged corporate branches and 16 corporate offices located in the largest cities throughout Poland. The internet and mobile transaction platform supports a branch-light model, thereby giving the Group a low fixed cost base and a high degree of operating flexibility.

History

The Bank was established in 1986 under the business name of Bank Rozwoju Eksportu SA. The State Treasury of the Republic of Poland and the NBP were among its founding shareholders. The Bank was originally dedicated solely to serving corporate customers and focused on granting foreign currency loans to Polish exporters for the purchase of investment goods and technology.

Following its initial public offering in 1992 under which the State Treasury of the Republic of Poland sold a portion of its shareholding, the Bank's shares were admitted to trading on the regulated market operated by the stock exchange in Poland (the Warsaw Stock Exchange).

In 1994, the Bank signed a strategic partnership agreement with Commerzbank, which purchased 21 per cent. of the Bank's shares. Subsequently the Bank's share capital was increased. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, Commerzbank holds shares representing 69.42 per cent. of the Bank's share capital and of the total number of votes at the Bank's General Shareholders' Meeting.

In 1998, the Bank merged with Polski Bank Rozwoju S.A. (PBR) following the acquisition of PBR's shares in a public tender offer.

In 2000, the Bank started its retail operations by launching mBank, a fully internet based bank, which was a pioneering project in the Polish market. During the last decade it has managed to become the leading online bank in Poland in terms of the number of accounts and has developed a network of small branches.

In 2001, the Bank added a second retail brand, MultiBank, a high street brick-and-mortar bank. MultiBank offered a broad range of products and services targeted at affluent customers and micro-businesses seeking a high quality, personalised service.

In November 2007, the Bank expanded into the Czech Republic and Slovakia. At the end of 2016, the Bank provided services to approximately 892,600 customers in the Czech Republic and Slovakia through its internet platform and 37 branches.

The rebranding of the "BRE Bank" and "MultiBank" brands with the "mBank" brand on 25 November 2013 represented a significant milestone for the Group and "mBank" branding has subsequently been used in every market and in every area of the Bank's operations. As part of the rebranding process, most Group companies have also changed their names by adding the prefix "m". The principal objective of the rebranding was to create a coherent banking offer across all businesses previously represented by distinctive brands including BRE Bank, mBank, MultiBank as well as BRE Private Banking & Wealth Management.

In March 2014, mBank announced a strategic alliance with Orange Polska, Poland's largest telecoms operator and on 2 October 2014 both companies launched a joint mobile banking service called "Orange Finanse". Under the agreed co-operation model, mBank provides financial products, while Orange Polska is responsible for sales and the marketing. Through this co-operation, the Group gained access to Orange Polska's client base of more than 16 million customers. Thanks to its innovative offering, Orange Finanse has become an important channel for client acquisition. By the end of 2016, 330,700 accounts were opened with Orange Finanse, including 98,200 in 2016.

In 2014, the Bank entered into a strategic co-operation arrangement with the AXA Group, one of the largest insurance institutions in the world, in order to enhance the quality of products and services offered for mBank Group clients and to expand the Bank's range of insurance products. In March 2015, the Group sold its insurance subsidiary, BRE Ubezpieczenia TUiR, to the AXA Group and entered into agreements with the AXA Group which regulate long-term co-operation between the Bank and the AXA Group for the distribution of life and non-life insurance products.

In October 2015, the Bank conducted a successful migration of customers of the former MultiBank and customers of Private Banking to mBank. Approximately 630,000 customers along with their products and full transaction history were moved onto mBank's new platform.

Competitive Strengths

In 2016, the Group announced its "mobile Bank" strategy for the period 2016-2020, which is based on three pillars: client centricity, leveraging mobility and continued improvement of efficiency.

Leading Market Position across Key Segments

The Group has a leading position in retail, corporate and investment banking in Poland. As at 31 December 2016, mBank's market share in retail loans and retail deposits stood at 6.5 per cent. (7.5 per cent. in mortgage loans and 5.0 per cent. in non-mortgage loans), while mBank's market share in retail deposits stood at 6.1 per cent. (based on NBP figures). Based on publicly available information from, inter alia, the Association of Polish Banks and the PRNews.pl reports, the Bank is one of the leading retail banks in Poland, in terms of active users of internet banking (no. 2 in Poland as at the end of September 2016), active users of mobile Banking (no. 3 as at the end of September 2016) and the number of personal accounts (no. 3 as at the end of September 2016).

As at 31 December 2016, the Bank's market share in corporate loans and corporate deposits stood at 6.1 per cent. and 10.1 per cent., respectively (based on NBP figures). Furthermore, the Bank has been consistently ranked as one of the leading banks providing investment banking services in Poland. According to Fitch Polska S.A., Rating and Rynek, as at 31 December 2016 the Bank was the market leader for arranging bank debt securities and ranked fourth in the market for providing corporate bonds and short-term debt securities. The Bank is also ranked among the leading government debt securities primary dealers by the Polish Ministry of Finance as well as money market dealers by the NBP.

Multi-Channel Retail Banking Model

The Group's Retail Banking business model is based on a multi-channel distribution (branches, internet, telephone, mobile phones) approach. An integrated internet platform is the central pillar of the Bank's broad product and service offering. The Bank's ability to provide different customer groups with a broad range of products and services tailored to their needs has been the key driver supporting the rapid and steady growth in the number of customers. The Bank's retail banking model was further enhanced by the introduction of an innovative new online banking platform which was launched on 4 June 2013. The consistently strong business and financial performance of the Bank's retail operations is a result of its continued focus on building the best service on the market and forging long-term client relationships. The Bank remains among leading banks in terms of acquiring new clients and it continues to broaden the scope of products and services offered.

Given its multi-channel approach, which has been designed to anticipate and follow the changing needs of clients, the Management Board believes that the Bank's current sales mix is already ahead of what is expected to be the pattern of distribution prevailing in the banking sector in the coming years, most importantly internet, mobile, video and call centre channels rapidly gaining importance as demonstrated by the sales levels of various banking products generated by these channels as compared to traditional branches. The Bank promotes a self-service model in which retail customers operate their accounts via mobile banking, the internet and telephone banking, allowing the Bank to leverage its premium client access by proactively using modern real time marketing.

Favourable demographics

mBank's innovative and unique business model puts the Bank in a good position to target young, aspiring, tech-savvy clients. The Bank's retail client base has an advantageous demographic profile as compared to the Polish market.

The Bank estimates that approximately half of its retail clients are under the age of 35 and are expected to reach their highest personal income levels in the future. The Bank believes that this puts it in a strong position to benefit from additional cross-selling opportunities of banking and insurance products. The Bank believes that the maturity profile of the Bank's customer base provides a natural source for revenue growth as well as supports the asset quality of the Group and the responsiveness of its clients to cross-selling initiatives. Moreover, mBank's mortgage clients predominantly live in urban areas and large cities of more than 100,000 residents. The Bank believes that its retail customer base consists of a high socio-economic demographic.

The Group's retail customer base has grown from 4,947,300 customers as at 31 December 2015 to 5,347,900 customers as at 31 December 2016.

Strong Corporate and Investment Banking Business

The Corporates and Markets segment of the Bank is organised into two sub-segments: (i) Corporate & Investment Banking, which covers a comprehensive corporate banking product and services offering and (ii) Financial Markets which focuses on trading and other activities on financial markets.

The strong position of the Bank's corporate and investment banking business in Poland results primarily from its comprehensive offering of financial products and services, diversified distribution channels, including a branch and office network exclusively dedicated to corporate customers and an integrated mBank CompanyNet internet platform, as well as long-standing relationships with its customers. In addition to its standard range of corporate banking products and services, the Bank provides tailor-made product solutions to meet the increasingly complex demands of its clients.

The Bank also operates a modern customer relationship management (CRM) system which enables it to perform comprehensive analyses of corporate customers' potential and needs for banking products and services. The tool effectively supports the Bank's increasing cross selling activities.

mBank's comprehensive cash management offer supports long-term relationships with clients. The Bank offers state-of-the-art solutions to facilitate planning, monitoring and management of most liquid assets, cash processing and electronic banking.

Since 2013, the Bank's investment banking functions have been integrated with its corporate banking functions in order to offer to its corporate clients fully integrated commercial banking products, services and solutions along with its investment banking services, such as ECM, DCM and M&A advisory services, and to build potential for the future extension of its integrated corporate and investment banking offer to medium-sized corporate clients. The Bank's investment banking products and services, as well as commercial lending products, structured finance and market risk hedging instruments complement its core transactional banking products offered to corporate clients.

The Group's corporate customer base has grown from 19,562 clients as at 31 December 2015 to 20,940 clients as at 31 December 2016.

Unique, Award Winning, High-Tech, Branch-Light Platform underpins the Bank's Rapid Growth of Operations and gives the Group a competitive advantage

The Bank has built an advanced, innovative and versatile high-tech internet and mobile transaction platform that is adapted for the banking market where the Bank is present and the current and future operating environment.

The Bank has an innovative, integrated and reliable IT platform. This platform architecture allows the Bank to develop and introduce new products, services and sales channels rapidly, inexpensively and with a low operational risk. The Bank's data warehouse gives fast, high quality, detailed and aggregated reporting of: service quality, network, customer and product profitability, risk performance, and employee performance.

The Management Board believes that the Bank's flexible IT infrastructure will enable the Bank to manage its business expansion strategy.

As an innovator in the market, the Bank has sought to constantly improve its internet and mobile transaction platform. Some examples of innovative and successful products developed and introduced by the Bank include: mSaver (a savings programme with an innovative mechanism where amounts of money are automatically transferred to the client's mSaver account following each of the client's transactions), personal finance management, mOkazje discount programme funded by merchants and the budget planning tool. In 2016, the Bank expanded its FX platform (dedicated to small and medium-sized enterprises) to retail customers, offering access to mKantor, which allows customers to carry out foreign exchange transactions via a mobile application.

The account-integrated internet transaction platform enables the Bank to provide real-time marketing and effectively cross-sell its products and services to its customers. The highly innovative and user-friendly internet and mobile platform allows the Bank to attract new clients to the bank, while the ability to bundle new products and services to existing clients increases their loyalty to the Bank and supports client retention rates.

mBank's widely recognised operational excellence is based on its state-of-the-art user interface for online banking, next-generation mobile applications, video banking and P2P payments via Facebook and text messaging, and real-time, event-driven customer relationship management (CRM): targeted messages in online and mobile applications based on customer behaviour patterns. The Bank's internet transaction platform and mobile banking have been recognised by both clients and external experts, as evidenced by a number of awards and distinctions, including, inter alia, EFMA Innovation Awards for Digital & Mobile Excellence (in 2014) and Most Disruptive Innovation (in 2013 and 2014). In 2016, mBank was named the Best of Digital Bank in Poland by Global Finance and distinguished in the Best Online Treasury Services category in this edition the annual contest. Moreover, in the 15th edition of "Newsweek Friendly Bank" the Bank ranked top in the Mobile Banking category. The mobile application of mBank won two statuettes in the Mobile Trends Awards competition: first place in Mobile Banking category and first place in the Mobile Trends Awards in the category special prize.

The internet and mobile transaction platform supports a branch-light model, thereby giving the Group a low fixed cost base and a high degree of operating flexibility.

Prudent Risk Management

The Group views risk management as an essential part of its activities. It has a decisive influence on the Bank's choice of business strategies, selection of target customers and optimisation of profitability versus risks. The quality of its risk management constitutes part of the Group's competitive advantage. The Group's risk management system, which conforms to the highest market standards, includes up-to-date methodology and procedures of risk identification and measurement, and tools supporting measurement and monitoring of risk with respect to individual types of inherent risks in the Group's business.

The Group also considers that one of its competitive strengths is its efficient credit process, both in respect of corporate and retail customers. Nonetheless, the Group strives to continuously optimise its lending procedures and to actively manage and monitor individual customers' exposures.

Experienced, Stable and Dynamic Management Team driving a Culture of Innovation

The Bank has a highly qualified, stable and experienced senior management team. The Management Board is chaired by Dr Cezary Stypułkowski, currently the longest serving CEO of a leading financial institution in Poland, with 13 years' experience as CEO at Bank Handlowy S.A. (currently Citibank Group), three years' experience at PZU S.A. and more than six years' experience at the Bank. In addition, the Management Board comprises bankers with extensive experience of working in Polish and international financial institutions, such as Citigroup, Commerzbank, ABN AMRO Bank, KBC Group and Zurich Group.

The senior management team has a strong track record and has been instrumental in the development of the Bank's business model, its culture of innovation and in delivering the Group's high levels of profitability on a consistent basis.

The Group's management strategy has helped the Group to maintain its leading position in the Polish banking market while consistently improving its financial performance amid a challenging economic environment marked by continued uncertainty in the financial markets globally.

Commerzbank as the Strategic Shareholder of the Group.

Commerzbank is the principal shareholder of the Bank. As of the date of this Prospectus, Commerzbank holds shares representing 69.42 per cent. of the Bank's share capital and of the total number of votes at the General Shareholders' Meeting. The Group benefits from its relationship with Commerzbank as its strategic shareholder, including access to foreign exchange-denominated funding provided by Commerzbank and operational and know-how support in various areas of business (for example, product development, risk management, and access to global capital markets).

Strategy of the Group

The Group continues to position itself as an innovative and high quality banking franchise in Poland, which selectively exploits attractive opportunities to grow the business in the retail and corporate segments. Additionally the Group continues active balance sheet management with a focus on continuous improvement of the overall profitability of the Group and the generation of attractive returns for shareholders.

Organic development of the Bank's universal bank business model mBank currently stands out as a mobile, modern, transactional bank that excels in attracting young and tech-savvy retail clients. On the Corporate and Investment Banking side, mBank is a leader in providing advanced solutions in terms of transactional banking and successfully integrates its traditional lending business with investment banking and specialised services offered by the Group's subsidiaries. In addition, its strategic partnerships with Orange and AXA create potential for broader client reach and product offering.

The Bank has positioned itself in the Polish market with a strong organically-developed universal bank business model. Being the fourth largest bank in Poland in terms of assets, the Bank is viewed by many recognised banking and innovation experts as a cutting-edge company. Its customer-oriented innovations (internet, mobile banking platform and the "light branch" concept) have been globally recognised. The above advantages put the Bank in a strong position in view of the evolving business environment that all financial institutions face.

The Bank achieved a great majority of its strategic targets from the previous strategy perspective

Since July 2012, the Group has pursued its "One Bank" Strategy for the period 2012-2016. The Group achieved a great majority of its strategic goals. The structure of its balance sheet has been improved in terms of funding diversification, including strengthening of the client deposits' role and loan to deposit ratio improvement from 125.1 per cent. as of 31 December 2011 to 94.7 per cent. as of 30 June 2016. Additionally, long-term liquidity has been kept high and the capital position has been organically strengthened. Despite a turbulent environment, which challenged some of the profitability assumptions, the Bank is positioned above the market in terms of profitability and revenue growth, and remains one of the best banks in Poland in terms of cost efficiency. At the same time, the Bank kept its focus on internal integration of its business model (including the unification of brands, integration of traditional corporate banking services with investment banking offering, migration of former MultiBank customers to the new mBank platform, consolidation of brokerage business and Private Banking under the umbrella of mBank).

New Strategy emphasises organising the Group around customers

In June 2016, the Bank introduced a new strategy for the Group for the period 2016-2020 called "mobile Bank".

The Group's mission has been defined as: "To help. Not to annoy. To delight... Anywhere. " and reflects the Group's customer focus.

The mobile Bank strategy sets the framework for the most important strategic activity directions of the Group. It rests on three pillars: client centricity, leveraging mobility and continued improvements in efficiency. The "mobile Bank" strategy also defines the foundations for the strategy's implementation.

mBank's strategy pillars are as follows:

1. Empathy for the client – the Bank's actions will be driven by clients and their individual needs, preferences and behaviours. The Bank's goal is to ensure that customers are satisfied and would recommend the Bank.
2. Mobility –the Bank aims to be the market leader in mobile banking by focusing on the following priorities: convenience, usability and simplicity from the customer's point of view.
3. Efficiency – a focus on efficiency supports the Group's profitability, while the returns from core banking in Poland are under pressure. Business development in terms of asset classes, maturities, sources and concentration of the business activity (groups of products and client segments, presence in foreign markets) will be carried out in full compliance with the rules for optimal cost efficiency and process digitalisation, efficient capital allocation and stable funding. The Bank will work to increase average revenue per client every year and to simplify, streamline and digitalise all processes towards becoming a 'paperless' bank.

Financial aspirations of the Group reflect being among the leading banks in Poland

It remains the Group's strategic goal to be positioned among the leading banks in Poland in terms of key financial measures. Strategic financial targets for 2016-2020 are based on the Bank's ambitious assumptions with regards to cost effectiveness as well as returns. Moreover, the Bank's intention is to pay a dividend representing at least 50 per cent. of profits, subject to regulatory consent, as well as to further strengthen its funding base. The Group's financial aspirations are as follows:

- Cost-to-income-ratio: to be one of the three most effective listed banks in Poland each year;
- ROE net: to be among the three most profitable listed banks in Poland from the return on equity standpoint adjusted for dividend distribution each year;
- ROA net: to be among the three listed banks in Poland with the highest return on assets by 2020;
- Common Equity Tier 1 capital ratio (CET1 ratio): to maintain the ability of a dividend pay-out in terms of the CET1 ratio and maintain the ratio minimum 1.5 percentage points above the minimum capital requirement for mBank;
- Loans-to-Deposits ratio (L/D ratio): to maintain the L/D ratio at a level not significantly higher than 100 per cent. each year.

The Group will selectively exploit attractive opportunities to expand business in the retail and corporate segments

Retail banking segment

The Group intends to increase its revenues by: (i) attracting new customers through the broad functionality of its current account products which are fully integrated with all of the Bank's retail products, (ii) offering cutting-edge transactional and mobile banking, (iii) improving its understanding of clients' behavioural and demographic patterns in order to identify their current and anticipated future needs and, as a result, increasing the number of products provided to its customers for whom the Bank is not currently its first choice and (iv) using advanced segmentation techniques for its retail customer base and real-time marketing tools to improve the relevance of communication, and hence intensify the sale of certain products and services, by offering products and services when clients want them.

In order to attract new customers, the Bank will seek to create products and services which more precisely meet the needs of younger customers, whilst leveraging its already strong position among young customers. The Bank has set acquisition of a one-third of 18-24 year-old clients entering the banking market in Poland as a key strategic goal.

The range of products and services the Group intends to cross sell include: (i) saving and investment products, (ii) non-mortgage lending products such as automatic pre-approved loan limits for certain customers, (iii) mortgage loans and (iv) other products such as transaction products, brokerage and bank-assurance products.

The Bank's activities are focused on strengthening the Bank's leading position in mobile and transactional banking. The Group's first approach will leverage on the Bank's best in class mobile banking application, which is on target to be used by a vast majority of Bank's active individual and business clients by 2020. The Bank aspires to offer the best, most convenient, friendly, intuitive and client-engaging application on the market. The Bank will mobilise current and future clients to take full advantage of offered mobile solutions, while services and communication in terms of the app itself will be stimulated by the habit of its everyday use.

The Bank will continue to seek new alternative, unconventional acquisition and distribution opportunities, including partnerships and co-operation with well-established market players from different industries. The acquisition of young customers will remain an important part of the Group's focus.

The Group integrated its private banking, wealth management and brokerage business in order to better address the needs of affluent customers. A greater focus on micro-businesses and SMEs will be leveraged by the Bank's competitive strengths, i.e. internet and mobile banking supported by quick processes. Both affluent and business customer segments in Poland have above average market growth potential in the following years.

The Group will aim to strengthen its current position in the Czech market. Existing gaps between Polish and foreign branches of the Bank with regards either to products or operational processes are being gradually closed. By applying best practices developed in Poland, the Group intends to strengthen its revenue generation capabilities in foreign branches. The Group will consider different scenarios of developing its operations in Slovakia.

Corporate and investment banking segment

The Group has been consolidating its strong market position in corporate and investment banking by building a competitive advantage in the large companies sub-group (K2, MidCaps) and maintaining its strong position in the large corporations sub-group (K1). The Group will also continue to improve its position in the small and medium-sized enterprises segment (K3), focusing in particular on businesses with a high growth potential and sophisticated banking requirements and which therefore aspire to develop into companies which would fall into the MidCaps sub-group category. This requires more effective use of the Bank's network of branches and offices and a focus on new areas of growth in the corporate and investment banking market. The Group constantly introduces changes in its product range and sales and banking processes based on the expertise of the Bank's business lines and the best practices adopted in the Polish and international banking sectors. The Group intends to further develop its corporate transactional banking services, where the Bank has a leading market position and to increase sales of investment banking products.

The Bank intends to further develop (i) servicing public finance business, (ii) realisation of business opportunities with Polish subsidiaries of international corporations, including Commerzbank's customers and (iii) financing projects conducted with the use of EU funds. The Group expects to attract new clients in all corporate banking segments and benefit from improved cross-selling by tailoring the range of products and services to the needs of corporate clients.

Active Balance Sheet Management and Continued Improvement in Profitability

The Group seeks to diversify its balance sheet structure (both in terms of funding sources and tenors) and business activity to encompass a broad spectrum of products and customers segments within the Group. The Bank believes that a comprehensive approach to balance sheet management is based on three pillars of a healthy balance sheet: capital adequacy, stable funding and return on assets.

In order to further diversify its funding profile and to extend the maturities of its funding base the Group intends to continue to focus on sourcing diversified, long-term and attractively priced funding by, in particular, issuing senior unsecured and subordinated bonds in domestic and international markets and covered bonds secured with retail mortgage loans issued by mBank Hipoteczny. Strengthening the Group's funding self-reliance is also among the key goals of the funding strategy. A further increase of clients' transactional deposits is assumed as a key driver of the Group's funding strategy.

The Bank has adopted a systematic approach to balance sheet management in order to improve the structure of its assets and liabilities and to secure a long-term, stable diversified funding base.

Maintain Prudent Risk Management Approach

The Group intends to maintain a prudent risk management approach through the implementation of a number of measures, including improvement of credit processes by implementing a standard verification mechanism when determining the creditworthiness of existing and potential customers of the Group. A granular customer rating model based on prospective probability of default (PD) and a client value at risk model based on a risk return approach (CVaR) are maintained. With regard to the structure of the loans and advances to customers, the Group intends to maintain a diversified portfolio (both in terms of industry and rating). In the retail banking segment, the Group intends to maintain a low acceptable risk profile by offering its non-mortgage loan business primarily to customers with a proven history at the Bank.

Operations

The Group offers a broad range of retail, corporate, and investment banking services and products to individual retail customers, micro-businesses, small and medium-sized companies, large corporations, non-banking financial institutions and public sector entities (including large and medium-sized local governments).

The Group divides its operations into two principal business segments:

Retail Banking in Poland

Overview

The Bank is one of the few financial institutions in Poland with an integrated internet offering, combining current accounts as well as investment and insurance products.

As at 31 December 2016, the Group serviced nearly 4.5 million individual retail customers in Poland. Gross loans and advances to customers of the Retail Banking Segment in Poland (including subsidiaries) amounted to PLN 47.3 billion and amounts due to retail customers (including subsidiaries) stood at PLN 45.9 billion.

The Bank's retail banking products and services include current and savings accounts (including foreign currency accounts), term deposits, lending products (retail mortgage loans and non-mortgage loans such as car loans, cash loans, overdrafts, credit card and other loan products), debit cards, insurance and investment products and brokerage services offered to retail customers.

mBank Poland

Beginning in 2000, anticipating the development and increasing accessibility to the internet, the Bank established a direct digital retail banking model based on the internet, direct service through call centres, and, subsequently, mobile banking as well as other new technology-based solutions. Starting in 2001, it also operated a second retail banking brand, MultiBank, catering to the mass-affluent, affluent and micro-business enterprises segments. MultiBank was based on the omni-channel model in which the modern format of smaller, sales oriented branches was supported by internet and call centre channels. Both retail operations were merged in 2013 under the mBank brand following the implementation of the broader "One Bank Strategy". The customers of MultiBank were migrated onto mBank's platform in October 2015.

mBank Group currently offers a broad range of products and services primarily targeted at young and aspiring professional customers who seek convenience and integrated end-to-end experience in banking services. mBank also has dedicated services for micro and small business clients. The services include: online current and savings accounts (including foreign currency accounts), term deposits, lending products (retail mortgage loans and non-mortgage loans such as car loans, cash loans, overdrafts, credit cards and other loan products), debit cards, insurance and investment products as well as brokerage services. Customers have access to all of mBank's products and services and can manage their products online with one integrated transactional internet platform. mBank provides an "Investment Fund Supermarket" and an insurance portal through which customers can manage their investment products and buy insurance products. Individual clients and small and medium-sized enterprises also have access to mKantor, which allows customers to carry out foreign exchange transactions via a mobile application.

In the area of small and medium-sized enterprises (SME), in 2016, the Bank launched the mAccounting service which provides SMEs with functionalities, which so far have only been available to the Bank's corporate clients, including automatic monitoring of payments, quick invoicing, simplified invoice payment, analysis of business partners, electronic settlement of tax returns and up-to-date tax data.

Distribution Channels

The Bank uses the omni-channel model in its distribution model. It operates:

- cutting edge online banking;
- modern mobile banking;
- sales-effective call centre; and
- a top quality service, mid-sized physical distribution network.

Internet

The Bank's technologically advanced integrated internet banking platform serves as its primary distribution channel dedicated to retail customers. As an innovator in the market, the Bank has been constantly improving its internet transaction platform and launched the new mBank platform in 2013 with more than 200 new features, solutions and improvements, such as 24-hour assistance offered by online experts via video, voice or text chat, a mobile-enabled user interface, advanced and integrated personal financial management tools, redesigned customer-centric navigation and social media-integrated offers.

Through the Bank's internet banking platform, customers have access to many of the Bank's retail products and services, including, inter alia, accounts, deposits, investment products, brokerage services, cash, car and mortgage loans, insurance, FX platform, pension and comprehensive money transfer handling. Where more complex products and services require the execution of a written agreement with the Bank or paper-based documentation (e.g. providing collateral), the Bank's customers can file applications online and execute any required documentation at an outlet of their choice within the Bank's physical distribution network or have the documentation delivered to them via courier.

According to PRNews.pl, at the end of September 2016, mBank was ranked second in Poland in terms of the number of individual customers with access to internet banking (3,884,357 customers).

Mobile banking

The most recent versions of the mobile applications developed for the most popular platforms (iOS, Android and Windows Phone and Windows 8.1), designed from the ground-up and launched in 2014 as a part of the "New mBank" project have accelerated the Bank's mobile banking strategy. The convenience and usability of these applications contributed to significant growth of mobile business in mBank

The share of mobile log-ins to the Bank's digital channels increased from 22 per cent. in December 2014 to 29 per cent. in December 2015 and to 42 per cent. in December 2016. In 2016, the number of installed mobile applications increased by 300,000 and reached approximately 1.3 million as at 31 December 2016. According to PRNews.pl, mBank's mobile banking had approximately 1,237,885 active users at the end of September 2016 (no. 3 in the Polish banking sector).

The competitive advantage of the Group in mobile banking results from: (i) mBank's unique brand, including the pre-fix "m" which is easily associated with mobility; (ii) young customers who are relatively more tech-savvy and therefore are more open to new methods of accessing banking services and products; and (iii) the digitalisation of business processes, as a consequence of the Retail Banking Division's online, internet origins.

Telephone Banking

The Group has one call centre in Poland in Łódź (with a back-up location), providing high quality service to the Bank's existing and potential clients. The call centre operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. The scope of activities includes, among others, customer support for debit cards, credit cards and personal accounts; money transfers; providing information on the offers of the Group and selling selected products and services such as credit cards, cash loans, personal accounts and insurance products; and performing activation, anti-attrition and retention campaigns and processes.

Physical Distribution Network

As at 31 December 2016, the Bank's physical retail distribution channel in Poland consisted of the following:

- its organically grown countrywide network of 115 mBank branded outlets consisting of financial services centres and partner points which are subject to outsourcing agreements with agencies, six advisory centres and 17 "light" branches;
- 43 mFinanse outlets including financial centres and agency service points; and
- 98 mKiosks located mainly in shopping malls in large Polish cities.

ATM network

The Bank does not operate its own ATM network. In 2016, mBank's customers could use their Visa or MasterCard branded debit cards to access their accounts and withdraw money free of charge at all Euronet, BZ WBK S.A. and Planet Cash networks. Starting from February 2017, the Bank introduced an ATM withdrawal fee for amounts lower than PLN 100. Customers can avoid paying this fee if they use the BLIK service in mBank's mobile application. Customers are able to withdraw money from ATMs without a card by inputting a one-time security code displayed in their smartphone.

Co-operation with Orange Polska

Orange Finanse, a joint-venture between mBank and Orange Polska, Poland's leading telecommunications group, was launched on 2 October 2014. Orange Finanse offers banking products via a mobile application created for the Android and iOS platforms. The banking products provided by mBank are also available via the transaction website www.OrangeFinanse.com and across several hundred Orange outlets.

Basic products offered by Orange Finanse include a personal account and complementary products such as deposits, unsecured loans, credit and debit cards, products designed for micro-enterprises and a package of "benefits" for the clients of Orange Polska. Clients of Orange Finanse are able to use NFC debit cards to make payments via their mobiles without the need to install additional applications. '

In 2016, Orange Finanse developed its product offering supported by marketing campaigns promoting the Orange Finanse brand among existing and prospective clients. The key component of the new offering is an option for active users of the Bank's services to lower their monthly phone bills for a period of up to 24 months. In 2016, Orange Finanse introduced a new more comprehensive credit offer, new forms of deposit and methods for calculating interest on saving accounts and options to pay bills using Direct Debit through online banking. In September 2016, Orange Finanse ranked second in the mobile banking category of Newsweek's Friendly Bank ranking.

As a result of its innovative offering, Orange Finanse has become mBank's most important channel for acquiring customers only two years after its launch. By the end of 2016, more than 330,000 accounts had been opened with Orange Finanse.

The Bank's Private Banking service is dedicated to individuals holding with the Bank or the Group liquid assets of a minimum of PLN 1 million.

As at 31 December 2016, the Group had 6,025 Private Banking and Wealth Management customers.

Products and Services in Poland

Since 2000, the Bank has applied a client-oriented approach based on its modern online banking business model, focusing on anticipating trends in the banking sector in Poland and the development of products and services that will meet its clients' needs.

The Group's main retail products and services include current and saving accounts, business accounts for microbusinesses, credit products, deposit products, payment cards, investment products, insurance products (including bancassurance products), brokerage services, and leasing for microbusinesses.

The Bank's credit product offering comprises non-mortgage loans (NML), mortgage loans (ML) and credit products offered to micro-businesses. The Bank offers non-mortgage loans to both internal and external customers in the form of cash loans, car loans, consolidation loans, overdraft facilities and credit cards.

In 2014, the Bank introduced a simplified credit process for existing customers of the Bank (OneClick) which allows for the performance of a credit analysis and completion of the credit process in seconds.

The Group offers residential mortgage loans in PLN. In August 2011, the Bank discontinued offering mortgage loans in CHF. The CHF mortgage portfolio therefore decreases every year due to repayments. At the end of 2016, the Bank's gross CHF mortgage portfolio amounted to CHF 4.7 billion and represented the majority of the total loans to retail customers. One of the strategic goals of the Bank is to refinance mortgages with covered bonds. In September 2016, mBank Hipoteczny became the sole provider of housing loans to individuals in Poland within the Group. Lending in the retail area is now financed by the issuance of covered bonds, which increases the share of long-term liabilities in the Group's balance sheet.

The Bank has generated steady growth in sales of mortgage lending for micro-businesses since 2013. In order to provide the Bank's customers with credit-related support programmes, the Bank signed agreements with leading European financial institutions (such as the European Investment Bank (EIB)) and the Polish government. The programmes include de minimis loan guarantees under an agreement with Bank Gospodarstwa Krajowego and the EIB.

On the deposit side, the Bank focuses on savings and current accounts as well as term deposits. Saving accounts offer higher interest rates than current accounts, but there is a limit on free withdrawals per month. Customers interested in regular saving have access to a range of a retirement savings accounts and purpose savings accounts called "mSaver". mSaver is a savings programme with a minimum monthly contribution determined by the customer and/or innovative mechanism that enables money to be saved automatically, where small amounts of money are transferred to the mSaver account from each transaction of the client. Customers who are interested in depositing higher amounts of money can negotiate all the terms of deposit, such as duration and interest rate. To meet more sophisticated clients' needs, the Bank offers a wide variety of structured deposits that combine the features of capital protection until maturity with investment in diverse capital markets.

The Bank offers a wide range of debit cards linked to personal accounts, pre-paid cards and credit cards issued in conjunction with VISA and MasterCard. As at 31 December 2016, the number of debit cards issued by the Bank in Poland reached 2.9 million, which represented an increase of 6.5 per cent. year on year. The number of credit cards issued by the Bank stood at 0.3 million as at 31 December 2016, representing an increase of 1.9 per cent. compared to 31 December 2015.

The Bank entered into a strategic co-operation with five leading banks in Poland relating to a joint standard for mobile payments. In response to the challenge of the ongoing mobile technology revolution, in 2015 mBank together with five large national banks launched the local mobile payment system BLIK. This allows customers to pay with their mobile phones in retail and online stores, as well as to withdraw cash from ATMs and send P2P transfers. BLIK uses an open standard developed by Polish Payment Standard (PSP), a company formed by the Bank, Alior Bank, Bank Millennium, Bank Zachodni WBK, ING and PKO Bank Polski. The system is open to all market participants, including other banks and retailers, and will support all transaction types: purchase of goods and services, ATM withdrawal, ecommerce and P2P money transfers. In May 2016, Getin Noble Bank became a participant in the BLIK payment system. BLIK offers fast and simple solutions as well as transaction security to a rapidly growing group of users.

mBank's offer includes an open platform of investment funds launched in 2003 under the name "Investment Funds Supermarket". The platform was refreshed in 2014 providing customers with new analytical information, as well as information tools enabling them to monitor and make investment decisions more easily. The open platform of investment funds is fully integrated with customer current accounts. As at 31 December 2016, the investment fund assets of the Bank's retail clients in Poland reached nearly PLN 6.0 billion.

Brokerage services offered to retail clients include in particular securities accounts, stock trades in financial instruments listed on the WSE and placements of subscriptions/purchase orders in public or private offering of equity instruments, including shares, or debt instruments, as well as trades in derivatives. In 2016, Dom Maklerski generated 4.4 per cent. of all stock trades in Poland, 12.3 per cent. of all futures trades, 8.4% of all bonds trade and 9.7 per cent. of all options trades on the Warsaw Stock Exchange (source: Warsaw Stock Exchange data).

In 2016, mBank Group continued its co-operation with AXA Group, one of the largest insurance institutions in the world, in order to enhance the quality of products and services offered for mBank Group clients and to expand the Bank's range of insurance products.

mBank's clients can access insurance products using both electronic and mobile platform and in physical branches. mBank is able to offer clients a range of insurance products including life insurance, term life insurance, commercial real estate insurance, travel insurance, civil liability insurance (OC), comprehensive motor insurance (AC) and healthcare insurance.

Retail Banking in the Czech Republic and Slovakia (mBank CZSK)

mBank entered the Czech and Slovak market in 2007 as a retail internet bank. The product range includes both products and services for retail customers (current and savings accounts, deposits, credit and debit cards, mortgage and consumer loans as well as insurance), and for business owners (with overdrafts). mBank in the Czech Republic and Slovakia promotes a self-service model, in which customers operate their account via Internet and telephone banking, as the Bank's branches serve mainly as advisory centres for arranging mortgage loans. At the end of 2016 mBank had 26 branches in the Czech Republic and 11 branches in Slovakia.

In December 2014, mBank in the Czech Republic and Slovakia launched the mobile banking application mBank CZ 2.0. In 2015, the new mobile application was enhanced with a QR reader feature and a version dedicated to Windows Phone mobile devices was made available to users. In 2016, mBank in the Czech Republic and Slovakia continued to focus on customer acquisition and developing its position as a leading mobile bank in these markets. The Bank extended its product range to include a new account which is designed specifically for the young (18-24) customer segment.

mBank CZSK continues to acquire new customers. The number of customers in the Czech Republic and Slovakia grew by nearly 72,900 in 2016. As at 31 December 2016, mBank in the Czech Republic and Slovakia had approximately 892,600 customers (628,900 at mBank CZ and 263,700 at mBank SK).

mBank's foreign operations successfully grew both loan portfolios levels and levels of customer deposits. mBank CZSK's gross loan portfolio increased by 11.9 per cent. for the year ended 31 December 2016 and reached PLN 4.3 billion (PLN 3.3 billion at mBank CZ and PLN 1.0 billion mBank SK). Deposits in the Czech Republic and Slovakia stood at PLN 7.9 billion as at 31 December 2016 (PLN 5.6 billion at mBank CZ and PLN 2.3 billion at mBank SK), which represents an increase of 24.5 per cent. year-on-year.

Retail Banking segment includes the following subsidiaries:

- mBank Hipoteczny S.A. (the retail segment of the company's activity);
- mFinanse S.A. (formerly Aspiro S.A.); and
- mLeasing Sp. z o.o., subsidiary (the retail segment of the company's activity)

The Retail Banking segment also previously included the results of mWealth Management S.A. and the retail segment of Dom Maklerski mBanku S.A. until their integration with the Bank.

The integration of the brokerage operations of mBank S.A., Dom Maklerski mBanku S.A. (a leading brokerage advisory firm in Poland) and mWealth Management S.A. into an expanded brokerage bureau of mBank was completed in May 2016. By integrating all of the brokerage entities of the Group together, the Bank is seeking to optimise the portfolio of brokerage services offered to all client groups, both individuals and institutions. Moreover, the integration allows the Bank to better use its resources and potential and, as a result, to enhance the competitive strengths of mBank's brokerage services.

Source: Fitch Polska S.A. and S&P Global Ratings

Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services Europe Limited (S&P Global Ratings or S&P) has assigned the long-term credit rating BBB (CreditWatch positive) to the Bank. Pursuant to S&P's rating definitions, the assigned credit rating of the Bank means the "obligor...has adequate capacity to meet financial commitments. However, adverse economic conditions or changing circumstances are more likely to lead to a weakened capacity of the obligor to meet its financial commitments". CreditWatch highlights S&P's opinion regarding the potential direction of a long-term rating. It focuses on identifiable events and short-term trends that cause ratings to be placed under special surveillance by S&P's analytical staff. The "positive" designation means that a rating may be raised.

S&P Global Ratings has assigned a short-term credit rating A-2 to the Bank. Pursuant to S&P's rating definitions, the assigned short-term credit rating of the Bank means the "obligor... has satisfactory capacity to meet its financial commitments. However, it is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than obligors in the highest rating category."

On 9 June 2015, S&P Global Ratings downgraded the Bank's long-term counterparty credit rating to 'BBB' from 'BBB+'. This rating action followed a downgrade by S&P Global Ratings of the ratings assigned to Commerzbank AG and other German banks and was the outcome of a review by S&P Global Ratings of the implications of the introduction of the BRRD in Germany and the reduced prospects of extraordinary government support. On 3 February 2016, S&P Global Ratings changed the outlook on to the Bank's credit rating to negative from stable following a negative assessment of country risk. On 11 March 2016, S&P Global Ratings again revised the rating outlook for mBank to stable, following a similar revision of Commerzbank's rating outlook. On 15 December 2016, S&P's outlook for mBank's long-term rating was placed on CreditWatch with positive implications following a similar rating action on Commerzbank.

Fitch Polska S.A. (Fitch) has assigned the Bank a long-term credit rating of BBB (stable outlook). Pursuant to Fitch's rating definitions, BBB ratings indicate that expectations of default risk are currently low. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered strong, but adverse business or economic conditions are more likely to impair this capacity. Stable outlook indicates the rating is likely to be stable over a one- to two-year period.

Fitch has assigned the Bank a short-term credit rating of F2. Pursuant to Fitch's rating definitions, the assigned short-term credit rating of the Bank denotes good short-term credit quality. The intrinsic capacity for the timely payment of financial commitments is good.

On 19 May 2015, Fitch downgraded the Bank's Long-term IDR and senior debt rating to 'BBB- (positive outlook)' from 'A (negative outlook)' following the downgrade of Commerzbank AG. The Bank's short-term IDR was downgraded to F3 from F1 and the Support Rating was lowered to '2' from '1'. The rating action, taken in conjunction with Fitch's review of sovereign support for banks globally, reflected Fitch's view that after the implementation of the "Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive", sovereign support can no longer be relied upon. On 7 March 2016, Fitch upgraded the long-term IDR for the Bank and the long-term senior unsecured debt rating from BBB- to BBB. The Bank's short-term foreign currency IDR and the short-term senior unsecured debt rating were raised from F3 to F2. The outlook for the long-term rating is stable. The upgrade of the Bank's ratings was driven by the upgrade of the long-term rating of Commerzbank AG from BBB to BBB+. mBank's IDRs, Support Rating and senior debt ratings reflect Fitch's view of a high probability that mBank would be supported by Commerzbank, if required.

Fitch Polska and Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services Europe Limited are established in the European Union and are registered under the CRA Regulation. As such Fitch Polska and Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services Europe Limited are included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

In 2013, the Bank elected to cease soliciting ratings from Moody's Investors Service (Moody's). Any ratings published by Moody's ratings entities in connection with the Bank are unsolicited and are based purely on publicly available information. Such ratings are therefore not disclosed in this Base Prospectus.

In 2005, a claim was brought by Bank Pekao S.A. (formerly BPH S.A.) in relation to a dispute involving the value of certain rights of usufruct over land and related buildings that were contributed in kind to the capital of Garbary as payment for a share in ZM Pozmeat S.A. worth approximately PLN 100,000,000. The value of the dispute is estimated at PLN 42,854,000. Since 2005 there have been various judgments at the District Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court. On 5 August 2015, the Supreme Court refused to consider an annulment appeal filed by the Bank. The Bank is currently considering its options in relation to the case, including the possibility of reaching an out of court settlement.

Lawsuit brought by Bank Pekao S.A. (previously BPH S.A.) against the Bank and Tele-Tech Investment Sp. z o.o. (TTI)

On 17 November 2007, BPH brought to court a case for damages in the amount of PLN 34,880,000 plus statutory interest from 20 November 2004 to the date of payment, due to alleged illegal actions such as the sale by ZM Pozmeat S.A. to TTI of all shares in the equity of Garbary Sp. z o.o. Class action against the Bank concerning changes in interest rate clause

On 4 February 2011, the Bank received a class action brought by the Municipal Ombudsman representing a group of 835 of the Bank's retail banking clients. The petitioners claimed that the Bank improperly applied provisions of loan agreements concerning interest rate adjustments. The Bank unsuccessfully applied to dismiss the claim, which, as of 17 October 2012, had grown to 1,247 members.

After several initial hearings, a hearing was held on 22 June 2013 and, on 3 July 2013, the court announced its judgment that the Bank had improperly applied provisions concerning interest rate adjustments. The Bank appealed the court's judgment on 9 September 2013, which was dismissed by the Court of Appeal in Łódź on 20 April 2014.

The Bank subsequently appealed the Court of Appeal's judgment on 3 October 2014. On 14 May 2015, the Supreme Court revoked the judgment of the Court of Appeal and remanded the case to the Court of Appeal for re-examination. On 24 September 2015, the Court of Appeal admitted expert evidence to verify the propriety of adjustments made by the Bank to interest rates. The parties are currently considering their positions following the submission of expert evidence. The last hearing was on 24 February 2017 and the case is pending.

The Bank filed a complaint against the above mentioned decision. The case is pending. The Bank intends to file an appeal against the decision to allow the claim to proceed.

Material administrative proceedings pending within 12 months before the date of the Base Prospectus

Court proceedings resulting from the administrative decision of the President of the OCCP regarding the "interchange fee" on transactions with the use of Visa and MasterCard cards

In 2001, the President of the OCCP initiated proceedings against operators of Visa and MasterCard systems and Polish banks issuing Visa and MasterCard credit cards, including the Bank. On 29 December 2006, the OCCP issued a decision ruling that the banks entered into anticompetitive agreements fixing the level of "interchange" fees on transactions with the use of Visa and MasterCard cards. The OCCP ordered the banks to refrain from such agreements and imposed fines on the banks, including a fine on the Bank amounting to PLN 7.7 million.

On 12 November 2008, the Court for Protection of Competition and Consumers (Sąd Ochrony Konkurencji i Konsumentów, the Antimonopoly Court) overruled the OCCP's decision. On 22 April 2010 the Appellate Court repealed the judgment of the Antimonopoly Court and referred the case back to the Antimonopoly Court for re-examination.

On 21 November 2013 the Antimonopoly Court determined its verdict, the result of which is to reduce the fines imposed on the banks by the OCCP. In the case of the Bank, the fine has been reduced from approximately PLN 7.7 million to approximately PLN 1 million.

On 6 October 2015 the Court of Appeals upheld the appeal lodged by the OCCP (which questioned the considerable reduction of fines imposed by the Court of First Instance) and dismissed the appeals lodged by the banks.

The Court of Appeals reversed the ruling of the Court of First Instance (District Court) by dismissing in whole the appeals lodged by the banks, which means that the fine levied in OCCP's original decision in an amount of PLN 7,719,600 remains in force, instead of the fine of approximately PLN 1 million imposed by the Court of First Instance. In order to comply with the decision the Bank paid the fine.

On 25 April 2016, the Bank brought a cassation appeal against the ruling of the Court of Appeals before the Supreme Court. The aim of this cassation appeal is to set aside the ruling in whole or to reduce the fine in whole or in part.

Proceedings instituted by the OCCP regarding violation of collective consumer interests

In August 2010, the OCCP imposed a fine of PLN 1,179,509 on the Bank for violating the disclosure requirements concerning the RRSO (real annual interest rate) in retail banking advertisements. At the same time, the OCCP also required the Bank to make public disclosure of the fine in the Polish media. The Bank appealed the OCCP's decision on the basis that this disclosure requirement was disproportionate to the low level of the fine imposed. On 15 October 2012, the Antimonopoly Court repealed the OCCP's decision and returned the case back to the OCCP for reconsideration.

On 28 December 2012, the OCCP imposed a fine of PLN 14,793,704 on the Bank for using individual pension account template agreements which were contrary to the Banking Law. On 11 January 2013, the Bank appealed to the District Court in Warsaw, requesting that the decision be overruled in whole due to an infringement by the OCCP of the Polish Code of Civil Procedure and the Act on Competition and Consumer Protection. The proceeding is pending.

On 12 December 2015, the OCCP imposed a fine of PLN 6,585,493 on the Bank for non-acceptance and non-compliance by the Bank to the principle that loans can have negative interest rates. This issue arose in relation to some mortgage loans denominated in CHF along with a decrease in the LIBOR rate below zero. Interest rates are calculated as a sum of the LIBOR rate and the loan's margin. The Bank refused to factor in the negative interest rates on CHF-denominated mortgage loans, arguing that a loan agreement is a chargeable contract and interests are a remuneration of the Bank for granting a loan. The Bank has appealed the OCCP's decision.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The following is a summary only of the Group's risk management system. For a more detailed discussion of the Group's risk management system, see Note 3 in the 2015 Consolidated Financial Statements.

Overview

The Group's risk management system is a crucial component of the overall management of its activities and is designed to (i) identify and assess the various risks associated with the activities of each of the Group's individual business lines and the Group as a whole, (ii) control and mitigate such risks, (iii) ensure that the Group's activities comply with regulatory requirements and (iv) optimise the use of the Group's economic and regulatory capital.

The underlying principle of risk management is to optimise the allocation of the Group's available resources, being the available funding base, its own capital, and its ability to generate current profits to fund the achievement of the pursued business goals, while ensuring liquidity and adequate capitalisation. The Group's risk management system addresses all the risk types relevant for the Group. In co-operation with Group subsidiaries, the Bank identifies and assesses all the risk types relevant from the point of view of the scale and scope of the Group's operations. For this purpose, the principles laid down in the document entitled "Internal Capital Adequacy Assessment Process (ICAAP) in mBank Group – Governing Principles" are applied. Those measures result in estimation of capital necessary to cover risk.

The risk management process takes place at every level of the Bank's operations: from individual business units, through specialised units responsible for identification, measurement, monitoring, control and mitigation of risk, to the major decision-making bodies, i.e. the Management Board and the Supervisory Board of the Bank.

Individual risks are monitored and controlled by relevant organisational units within the Bank and those of its subsidiaries. Internal policies and procedures have been implemented with respect to the management, mitigation and reporting of these risks. In selected risk management areas, contingency plans and procedures have been implemented to address any particular risks and are intended to be applied if a particular risk increases significantly. In the process of risk identification, assessment and mitigation, the Group applies modern methodologies in accordance with regulatory standards i.e. the AIRB approach. Such methods, as well as the IT systems used in the risk management process, are constantly reviewed and updated as necessary.

Risk appetite is defined within the mBank Group as the maximum risk, in terms of both amount and structure, which the Bank is willing and able to incur in pursuing its business objectives under going concern scenario (beyond the inherent existential risks). Risk appetite resulting from the available capital and funding base is the starting point in the Bank's risk management, and thus impacts the budgeting process and the capital allocation process.

Division of responsibilities in the risk management process

The Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board, through its Risk Committee, exercises constant supervision of the Bank's operations in the risk taking area, which includes approving the Risk Management Strategy and supervising its execution.

The Management Board undertakes activities designed to ensure that the Bank conducts a policy which enables management of all types of risk which are essential for the Bank's operations and has procedures to manage these risks, in particular, including responsibility for preparing and introducing written strategies and procedures which address internal control system, risk management system, assessment process of internal capital, capital management and capital planning.

The chart below presents the organisational structure of this area:

The roles played by particular units in the process of identifying, measuring, monitoring and controlling risk, which also includes assessing individual credit risk posed by clients and establishing the client selection rules, have been strictly defined. Within the scope of their powers, the units develop methodologies and systems supporting the aforesaid areas. Furthermore, the risk control units also report on risk and support the major authorities of the Bank.

Risk culture

Lines of defence

Risk management roles and responsibilities in the Group are organised around the three lines of defence model:

1. The first line of defence consists of Business Lines responsible for risk and capital management. Business is to take risk and capital into account in all its decisions and within the boundaries of risk appetite defined for the Group.
2. The second line of defence where Risk Area, IT, Security and Compliance are major players, assists the Business by creating risk management strategy for each risk and appropriate policies that give guidance to the Business while taking risk minded decisions. The main goal for the second line functions is to support the Business with the implementation of these strategies and policies and to create oversight over the Group's control environment and risk exposure.
3. The third line of defence is Internal Audit, which ensures independent assessment of the first and the second lines of defence.

Pillars of risk management

The risk management framework in mBank Group rests on the three pillars concept:

1. Customer Focus – striving to understand and balance the specific needs of the Risk's diverse stakeholders (Business, Management Board, Supervisory Board, shareholders, regulators).
2. One Risk – understood as an integrated approach to risk management and responsibility to the clients for all risks (as defined in the Risk Catalogue of mBank Group).
3. Risk vs Rate of Return perspective – supporting the business decision-making processes on the basis of long-term relationship between risk and rate of return avoiding tail risks.

Risk reporting

The Bank has adopted the principle of double risk reporting. On the one hand, the directors of the Bank's organisational units that deal with risk management on an operational level report directly and on an on-going basis to the Management Board members responsible for the relevant units. On the other hand, the risk area departments that monitor and control quantifiable risks submit independent risk reports to the Vice-President of the Management Board – the Chief Risk Officer and to the appropriate committees of the Bank's Management Board (including committees operating within the Business and Risk Forum).

Integrated information on risk and capital management is provided to the Management Board members in a monthly report. The Supervisory Board, the Risk Committee of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board receive on a quarterly basis comprehensive Risk and Capital Monitor (RCM) reports. The RCM covers credit, market, liquidity and non-financial risks (including operational risk) as well as capital adequacy of the Group. Moreover this report covers also the most important risk signals and observations as well as early warning information.

Development of the Polish Banking Sector

Between 1989 and 1991, a two-tiered banking sector was established, separating the central bank from the rest of the banking sector. Nine regional commercial banks were created out of the NBP's commercial and retail banking operations. The NBP branch network and respective commercial loan portfolios of those branches were divided among the newly-established banks to give each new bank a regional base. All of these regional banks were transformed into joint stock companies in October 1991 and were subsequently privatised between 1993 and 2001. Since 1991, Polish banking law has allowed licensing of new private banks in Poland and opened the Polish banking market to foreign investors. As a result there has been a rapid expansion in the number of banks due to foreign banking groups entering the market.

The global financial crisis impacted the quality of loan portfolios and the level of earnings in the Polish banking sector, and also increased pressure on funding for banks. However, because (i) banks in Poland did not have significant exposure to toxic assets prior to the crisis, (ii) there were no significant speculative asset bubbles in Poland (iii) deposits are the main source of banks' funding, (iv) Polish banks have relatively high capital adequacy ratios (with a high proportion of high quality Tier 1 capital) and (v) Poland has experienced a stable macroeconomic situation (evidenced by the fact that Poland did not enter into a recession), the impact of the crisis on the Polish banking sector was limited in comparison to the Eurozone. The inflow of funds from abroad declined and the availability of funding on the inter-bank market was reduced following a lack of trust in the market. As a result, banks sought alternative sources of funding which significantly increased competition on the deposit market. In addition, a few large international financial institutions which suffered as a result of the global financial crisis have reassessed their international strategies, putting their Polish operations up for review and sale (for example KBC Group and Rabobank).

These moves have added to the on-going trend of increasing concentration in the hands of a few large banking groups

According to the KNF, as at 31 December 2016, there were 36 commercial banks in Poland, 27 branches of credit institutions and 558 relatively small co-operative banks.

The level of competition in the Polish banking sector is relatively high due to its low level of concentration. According to the KNF data as at 31 December 2016, the share of top five banks in total banking assets stood at 48.3 per cent. (compared to 48.8 per cent. as at the end of December 2015), while their share in deposits amounted to 47.5 per cent. (compared to 55.0 per cent. as at the end of 2015).

Among the other factors having an impact on competition is a consolidation trend in recent years: e.g. the purchase of Bank Zachodni WBK by the Santander Group in 2011, the purchase of Allianz Bank Polska by Getin Noble Bank in 2011, the sale of Polbank EFG by EFG Eurobank Ergasias to Raiffeisen Bank International in 2011, the merger of Bank Zachodni WBK and Kredyt Bank registered in 2013, the acquisition of Dexia Kommunalkredit Polska by Getin Noble Bank in 2013, the acquisition of the retail operations of DnB Nord Polska by Getin Noble Bank in 2013, the acquisition of Bank Gospodarki Żywnościowej (BGŻ) by BNP Paribas in 2013, the acquisition of Nordea Bank Polska by PKO BP completed in 2014, the acquisition of Santander Consumer Bank by Bank Zachodni WBK completed in 2014, the acquisition of Meritum Bank by Alior Bank in 2014 and the merger of BGŻ with BNP Paribas Bank Polska announced in 2014. In 2015, private equity fund Abris Capital Partners sold Poland's FM Bank to a British private equity fund AnaCap Financial Partners and PZU S.A. (PZU), the largest issuance company in Poland purchased a 25.2 per cent. stake in Alior Bank.

The process of consolidation and ownership changes in the financial sector accelerated in 2016. Three important transactions were concluded in 2016: (i) the acquisition of the non-mortgage assets of Bank BPH by Alior Bank; (ii) the acquisition of Raiffeisen-Leasing by PKO BP; and (iii) the acquisition of a 32.8 per cent. stake in Pekao – the second biggest Polish lender – by PZU and state investment fund Polski Fundusz Rozwoju (PFR) from Italian UniCredit. For PZU, the deal is a step forward in its strategy to build a major new banking group, a plan propelled by the government which is keen to increase the level of Polish ownership in the banking sector and raise state ownership. The remaining UniCredit stake in Pekao (7.3 per cent.) will be sold on the market via equity-linked certificates. In December 2016, Alior Bank announced the termination of the negotiations with Raiffeisen regarding the acquisition of core banking operations of Raiffeisen Bank Polska from Raiffeisen Bank International (RBI). Like UniCredit, RBI was pursuing an exit from Poland as part of restructuring measures.

The Polish banking sector is expected to continue to experience consolidation in the medium term. A number of smaller market players generate relatively low revenues, which will be subject to rising pressure. This may force further consolidation if profitability is eroded. Given pressure on the revenue side (low interest rates, regulatory measures) and additional burdens (banking tax, higher capital requirements), some banks will strive to increase their scale of operations to achieve a satisfactory return on equity.

As a result of changes in the shareholding structure of Polish commercial banks, the share of foreign ownership in the banking assets in the country has declined markedly. As at 30 September 2016, 54.9 per cent. of the total assets of the Polish banking sector belonged to foreign-owned banking groups compared to 59.0 per cent at the end of 2015 and 65.0 per cent. at the end of 2011 (Source: KNF data). After UniCredit's sale of its entire stake in Pekao, the share of Polish ownership in the banking assets in Poland will exceed 50 per cent.

Alternative distribution channels, in particular internet banking and mobile banking, have been becoming of increasing importance in Poland. Moreover, new products, such as markets for financial advisory services, wealth management, insurance products and various investment funds in Poland have seen significant growth and are likely to be a significant driver for profitability in the future.

The restructuring plans conducted by some banks (for example, PKO BP, Alior Bank, Bank Ochrony Środowiska, Getin Noble Bank and BGŻ BNP) involve redundancies and closures of selected branches. These restructurings underline the difficulties that smaller operators face in an increasingly competitive retail segment. With the growing trend of e-banking, other banks may also decide to restructure their branch network.

Financial Situation of the Polish Banking Sector

Poland's banking sector is generally profitable, well capitalised, and predominantly deposit-funded. In 2016, the Polish banking industry operated in a changing market environment. Currently, the following factors impact the operations of the banking sector in Poland:

- a low interest rate environment – interest rates in Poland are at historically low levels. The NBP reference rate stood at 1.5 per cent. and WIBOR 3M reached 1.73 per cent. at the end of 2016. The low interest rate environment depresses generation of net interest income;

- interchange rates, i.e. commissions paid to the bank by the settlement agent for every non-cash transaction made with a payment card issued by the bank, decreased to 0.2 per cent. for debit cards and 0.3 per cent. for credit cards (from the end of January 2015), which restricts the generation of fee and commission income;
- the introduction of a new tax on certain financial institutions ("Polish banking tax") in February 2016 in the amount of 0.44% of assets annually;
- stricter regulatory requirements, putting pressure on capital, costs and operations;
- legislative proposals which seek to reduce the indebtedness of CHF borrowers by sharing losses with banks in Poland;
- consolidation of the banking sector – banks with insufficient scale give way to bigger and stronger entities;
- challenges related to the management and storage of personal data and security in the Internet – cyber-risk;
- spreading technological solutions and their impact on clients' behaviour;
- declining trust in the banking sector as a result of the ongoing debate in relation to the foreign exchange mortgage loans which started in 2015; and
- non-financial sector players (FinTech companies) are gradually entering traditional banking territories and offer innovative financial solutions. Additionally, the PSD2 Directive (Payment Services Directive 2) as of November 2015 will abolish banks' monopoly in the market for payment services (the deadline for EU members to adjust local regulations is two years).

Despite market and regulatory headwinds, the banking sector's net profit in 2016 increased by 24.3 per cent. compared to 2015 and reached PLN 13.9 billion according to KNF data. An increase in the banking sector's earnings was driven mainly by higher net interest income and one-off gains generated on the sale of banks' stakes in VISA Europe Limited (approximately PLN 2.5 billion). Loan loss provisions in 2016 were lower than in 2015, while operating costs increased compared to 2015 (Source: KNF data).

In 2016, loans increased by 5.2 per cent. compared to 2015. Loan growth was supported by a low interest rate environment, depreciation of the Polish currency and declining unemployment. The level of non-performing loans (NPL) to the non-financial sector decreased by 2.8 per cent., while the NPL ratio decreased from 7.6 per cent. as at 31 December 2015 to 7.0 per cent. as at 31 December 2016. Loan growth in 2016 was accompanied by a strong growth in deposits (+9.5 per cent. compared to 2015) driven by a general increase in household income and corporate revenues (Source: KNF data).

The NBP report on financial system stability published in December 2016 confirms that the Polish financial system currently remains stable and banks are adequately prepared to cope with certain risks which may arise. Banks in Poland are well-capitalised. The average TCR (compliant with the CRD IV/CRR approach) as at 30 September 2016 stood at 17.6 per cent. and CET1 capital ratio stood at 16.0 per cent. (Source: KNF data).

In 2017, the Polish banking sector is likely to be impacted by various factors.

Poland's banking sector may expect a continuation of balanced lending growth in the mortgage, consumer and corporate sectors thanks to favourable macroeconomic factors and a good situation of consumers. Lending will be supported by historically low interest rates. According to the NBP analyses the financial cycle is in a recovery stage. Corporate lending should accelerate in the second half of 2017 supported by higher GDP growth, high-capacity utilisation and intensified spending of EU funds. Mortgage lending is expected to show a stable growth driven mainly by demand factors, rising disposable household income and a low interest rate environment. The outlook for consumer loans also appears to be solid with consumer confidence likely to be supported by a further decline in unemployment and growth in wages and salaries.

The Bank currently anticipates that benign economic conditions will support the creditworthiness of borrowers.

At the same time, several developments may weaken the Polish banking sector. In particular, the banking sector faces significant risks to its profitability as a result of potential amendments to the Polish Banking Tax, increases in the contributions to the Bank Guarantee Fund, and costs associated with the legislative proposals concerning mortgage loans denominated in foreign currencies.

There are also certain risk factors in external environment that may adversely affect the Polish economy and, consequently, the situation of the banking sector. They are related among others to the uncertainty regarding the further development of the economic situation in the euro zone, the debt crisis of Greece, Italy's crisis-hit banks struggling with bad loans and the economic slowdown in the main emerging economies. In addition, traditional banks will have to deal with increased competition from FinTech companies and expectations of customers who demand convenience and availability of advanced technologies.

Legal environment

Specific Requirement for the Banks

Engaging in banking activities involves meeting multiple regulatory obligations, most of which follow directly from the provisions of the Banking Law, and from resolutions, ordinances and recommendations made by the KNF. The most important of these obligations relate to the Bank's own funds, the capital adequacy ratio, solvency ratio, exposure concentration, risk management systems and financial management conducted by the Bank.

Banks have a duty to protect banking secrecy. Regulations on personal data protection are particularly important for the functioning of banks in order to protect individual customers. Personal data may be processed exclusively in compliance with detailed regulations, using technical and organisational resources which ensure the protection of personal data against unauthorised processing, including making it available to third parties.

The Bank must also comply with regulations for the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering and terrorist financing.

Certain restrictions also apply if banks retain any third parties for the performance of banking activities for and on behalf of the bank or for the performance of any banking-related operations (so-called "outsourcing").

Agreements concluded by banks with their customers are subject to detailed regulations (see also "Consumer Protection" below).

Banking Supervision Exercised by the KNF

In Poland, banking supervision is currently exercised by the KNF and covers in particular:

- (a) assessing the financial position of banks, including analysing liquidity, the quality of assets, solvency and the financial results of banks;
- (b) estimating, maintaining and reviewing internal capital;
- (c) auditing the quality of risk management systems, and in particular of the risk management system and internal control system;
- (d) auditing compliance of the bank's activities with the appropriate regulations; and

- (e) monitoring and controlling the bank's compliance with the exposure concentration limits and standards for the risk acceptable in banks' operations as determined by KNF.

The KNF has wide powers and legal instruments which enable it to carry out supervision over banks (including the possibility to conduct inspections).

Other Supervisory Authorities

Some areas of banking operations are subject to the supervision of other public administration authorities, the most important of which are as follows:

- (a) the President of the Office for Protection of Competition and Consumers with respect to protecting market competition and consumers' collective rights;
- (b) the General Inspector for Personal Data Protection with respect to collecting, processing, managing and protecting personal data; and
- (c) the minister responsible for financial institutions (the Minister of Finance) and the General Inspector for Financial Information with respect to the prevention of money laundering and financing of terrorism.

Bank Guarantee Fund

The Bank Guarantee Fund covers the monetary assets deposited in bank accounts or receivable in respect of claims confirmed by documents issued by banks with a guarantee system. Participation in the Bank Guarantee Fund is mandatory for all Polish banks and in certain instances for branches of foreign banks operating in Poland. Banks covered by the guarantee system make mandatory annual payments to the Bank Guarantee Fund and are obliged to set up a guaranteed funds protection fund. The mandatory guarantee system ensures that if a bank becomes insolvent, the funds deposited in bank accounts, up to an amount specified in the regulations, are returned. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, funds up to the amount equivalent to EUR 100,000 per single person in respect of deposits in all accounts in a given bank are fully covered by the guarantee system. Funds deposited in particular by government administration authorities, other banks, credit institutions, insurance companies, investment and pension funds are not covered by the guarantee system.

Consumer Protection

The Consumer Credit Act dated 12 May 2011 (as amended), the Civil Code regulations and other consumer protection laws impose on the banks several obligations related to agreements signed with natural persons who perform actions which are not directly related to their business or professional activities (consumers). The most important of those are the requirements to inform the consumer about the cost of extended credit and loans and to include specified terms in the consumer loan agreement as well as the prohibition from including specific clauses which are unfavourable to consumers in agreements. If a customer loan agreement does not meet certain requirements of the Consumer Credit Act, the borrower is authorised under the law to repay the loan in principal amount with interest accrued until the prepayment date. In some circumstances, the borrower may be authorised to repay only the principal amount, without interest, fees and any other amounts due to the bank under the loan agreement.

There is a cap for the maximum interest rates which may be charged by a bank under a loan agreement. Previously, the interest rate cap on consumer loans was determined at four times the Lombard rate (the repo rate at which the NBP agrees to lend to banks). A new formula was introduced from January 2016 which caps the maximum allowable interest rate at two times the sum of the applicable reference rate of the National Bank of Poland and 3.5 per cent.

Personal Data Protection

In light of the large number of individuals serviced by banks, all the regulations concerning personal data protection are of particular importance to banking operations. Personal data may be processed exclusively in compliance with specific regulations, while applying technical and organisational means that ensure the protection of personal data, particularly from disclosure to any unauthorised parties. Additionally, the persons which such data relates to should have the right to access all of their personal data and to correct it.

Mechanisms Preventing the Abuse of Control

There are a number of legal instruments aimed at preventing the abuse of control over the Bank by its major shareholder specified in the provisions of the Public Offering Act and the KSH.

The Bank's Position in the Commerzbank Group

Commerzbank is a leading international commercial bank with branches and offices in almost 50 countries. With approximately 1,000 branches, Commerzbank has one of the most extensive branch networks among German private banks. In accordance with the declaration of the Management Board of Commerzbank, mBank remains Commerzbank's most important subsidiary in Central and Eastern Europe.

Under a strategic agreement signed in 1994, mBank has received several capital injections from Commerzbank, the last of which in 2010 totalling approximately PLN 1.4 billion as Commerzbank acquired approximately 70.0 per cent. of new issue of shares during mBank's capital increase. mBank has received subordinated loans in CHF, which at the end of 2016 stood at CHF 651 million. These were equivalent of PLN 2.7 billion (at an exchange rate of 1 CHF – PLN 4.1173, as at 31 December 2016) and in addition, the Bank has used funding from Commerzbank. A technical co-operation agreement gives mBank access to the network of Commerzbank and its correspondent banks around the world. In addition, Commerzbank offers its know-how to mBank under separate agreements, enabling co-operation in many areas e.g. co-operation in serving international clients (including Commerzbank clients), compliance and money laundering prevention or shared reporting systems in accounting and controlling. In the key area of Risk control the co-operation concerns especially the exchange of experiences regarding the implementation of new European regulations.

Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board exercises regular supervisions over the Bank's operations.

Organisation and Competences of the Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board is comprised of not less than five members elected by the General Shareholders' Meeting, for a joint term of office of three years.

At least half of the members of the Supervisory Board, including the Chairman, have Polish citizenship, permanently reside in Poland, speak Polish and have experience on the Polish market which can be used in supervision of the Bank.

The terms of members of the Supervisory Board expire, at the latest, on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting for approval of the financial statements of the Bank for the last full year of the term of office of the members of the Supervisory Board. The term of a member of the Supervisory Board also expires in the case of death, resignation, or dismissal of the member. The number of members of the Supervisory Board is determined by the General Shareholders' Meeting. At least two of the Supervisory Board members have to be independent Supervisory Board members, unless the General Shareholders' Meeting decides otherwise. The Supervisory Board elects the Chairman and Deputy Chairmen from among its members.

A member of the Supervisory Board whose term expired in the course of the joint term of office of the Supervisory Board can be replaced by another person elected by the Supervisory Board. The election of members of the Supervisory Board within the joint term of office of the Supervisory Board requires the approval of the next General Shareholders' Meeting. If the General Shareholders' Meeting refuses to approve any member of the Supervisory Board elected within the joint term of office, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall elect another member of the Supervisory Board in lieu of the person whose election was refused. If the number of members of the Supervisory Board is less than five due to the expiration of the terms of members of the Supervisory Board within the joint term of office, the Supervisory Board shall elect new members to replace the members whose terms have expired.

GENERAL

Prospective purchasers of Notes are advised to consult their tax advisers as to the consequences, under the tax laws of the countries of their respective citizenship, residence, establishment or domicile, of a purchase of Notes, including, but not limited to, the consequences of receipt of payments under the Notes and their disposal or redemption.

POLAND

1. General Information

The following is a discussion on certain Polish tax considerations relevant to an investor who is a resident of Poland or otherwise subject to Polish taxation. This statement must not be understood to be tax advice. It is based on the Polish tax laws and their interpretation in effect as of the date of this Base Prospectus which may be subject to changes. Such changes may also be retroactive and may negatively affect the tax treatment as described below. This description does not purport to be complete with respect to the tax information that may be relevant for investors due to their personal circumstances. Prospective buyers of the Notes are advised to consult their professional tax adviser regarding the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, disposal, redemption or transfer without consideration of the Notes. The information provided below does not cover tax consequences concerning income tax exemptions applicable to specific taxable items or specific taxpayers (e.g. domestic or foreign investment funds). The reference to "interest" as well as to any other terms in the paragraphs below means "interest" or any other term, respectively, as understood in Polish tax law.

2. Taxation of Polish tax resident individuals (natural persons)

Under Article 3.1 of the Polish Personal Income Tax Act dated 26 July 1991, as amended (the PIT Act), natural persons are subject to tax on their worldwide income (revenues) regardless of the location of the source of such revenues (unlimited tax liability) if they have their place of residence in the territory of the Republic of Poland. Under Article 3.1a of the PIT Act, a person whose place of residence is in the Republic of Poland is the natural person who:

- has his/her centre of personal or economic interests (centre of life interests) within the territory of the Republic of Poland; or
- is present in the territory of the Republic of Poland for more than 183 days in a tax year (Article 3.1a of the PIT Act).

2.1 Capital gains from disposal of the Notes

Capital gains from disposal of the Notes, derived by a Polish tax resident individual from the Notes held as non-business assets, are not cumulated with general income subject to progressive tax rates and are subject to 19 per cent. flat-rate tax. Additionally, no tax is withheld by a tax remitter, but the tax should be settled by the taxpayer by 30 April of the following year.

If an individual holds the Notes as a business asset, in principle, the income should be taxed in the same way as other business income. The tax, at 19 per cent. flat rate or the 18 per cent. to 32 per cent. progressive tax rate depending on the choice and certain conditions being met by the individual, should be settled by the individual himself/herself.

2.2 Withholding tax on interest (including discount) income

According to Article 30a.1.2 of the PIT Act, interest income, including discounts, derived by a Polish tax resident individual (as defined above) does not cumulate with general income subject to the progressive tax rate but is subject to 19 per cent. flat-rate tax.

Withholding tax incurred outside Poland (including countries which have not concluded a tax treaty with Poland), up to an amount equal to the tax paid abroad, but not higher than 19 per cent. tax on the interest amount, could be deducted from the Polish tax liability. Double tax treaties in particular can provide other methods of withholding tax settlements.

Under Art. 41.4 of the PIT Act, the interest payer, other than an individual not acting within the scope of his/her business activity, should withhold the 19 per cent. Polish tax upon any interest payment. In practice, the obligation to withhold tax applies only to Polish interest payers and not foreign payers. Under the Art. 41.4d of the PIT Act, tax on interest or discount on securities is withheld by entities keeping securities accounts for taxpayers, in their capacity as tax remitters, if the income (revenue) is earned in the territory of Poland and is associated with the securities registered in these accounts, and, further, if relevant payments are made to the taxpayers through those entities. However, given that the interest on Notes may be classified as not earned in Poland and the term "person making the interest payment" is not precisely defined in the law, under some interpretations issued by the Polish tax authorities, in certain cases Polish banks or Polish brokerage houses maintaining securities accounts may refuse to withhold the tax based on the fact that they are acting only as an intermediary and therefore should not be obliged under Polish law to remit due tax. According to Article 45.3b of the PIT Act, if the tax is not withheld, the individual is obliged to settle the tax himself/herself by 30 April of the following year.

Additionally, under Art. 30a.2a of the PIT Act, with respect to income (revenue) from interest transferred to taxpayers holding rights attached to securities (including Notes) registered in Polish omnibus accounts (omnibus accounts within the meaning of the provisions of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, hereinafter Omnibus Accounts) whose identity has not been revealed to the tax remitter in accordance with the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, a 19 per cent. flat-rate tax is withheld by the tax remitter from the aggregate income (revenue) released for the benefit of all such taxpayers through the Omnibus Account holder. The tax is withheld on the date when an interest or discount payment is released to the Omnibus Account.

Under Art. 45.3c of the PIT Act, taxpayers are obliged to disclose the amount of interest (discount) on securities (including Notes) in the annual tax return if Notes were registered in an Omnibus Account and the taxpayer's identity was not revealed to the tax remitter.

If a Polish tax resident individual holds the Notes as a business asset, in principle, interest should not be subject to withholding tax but taxed in the same way as other business income. The tax, at 19 per cent. flat rate or the 18 per cent. to 32 per cent. progressive tax rate depending on the choice and certain conditions being met by the individual, should be settled by the individual himself/herself.

3. Taxation of a Polish tax resident corporate income taxpayer

A Polish tax resident, i.e. corporate income taxpayer having its registered office or place of management in Poland should be subject to 19 per cent. income tax on the Notes (both on any capital gain and on interest/discount) following the same principles as those which apply to any other income received from business activity. As a rule, for Polish income tax purposes, interest is recognised as taxable revenue on a cash basis, that is when it is received and not when it has accrued. In respect of capital gains, the cost of acquiring the Notes should be recognised at the time the revenue is achieved. The taxpayer independently (without the involvement of the tax remitter) settles tax on interest (discount) or capital gains on Notes, which is aggregated with other income derived from business operations conducted by the taxpayer.

Although no Polish withholding tax should apply on interest payable to Polish corporate income taxpayers, under specific rules applying to interest income on securities held on Omnibus Accounts, under Article 26.2a of the Polish Corporate Income Tax Act dated 15 February 1992, as amended (the CIT Act), with respect to income (revenue) from interest transferred to taxpayers holding rights attached to securities registered in Omnibus Accounts whose identity has not been revealed to the tax remitter in accordance with the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, a 20 per cent. flat-rate tax is withheld by the tax remitter from the aggregate income (revenue) released for the benefit of all such taxpayers through the Omnibus Account holder. If such tax is withheld with respect to Polish tax resident corporate income taxpayer, with respect to refund of such tax, the entity should contact its tax advisor.

4. Notes held by a non-Polish tax resident individual or corporate

Non-Polish tax residents are:

- natural persons if they do not have their place of residence in the territory of the Republic of Poland (Art. 3.2a of the Pit Act);
- corporate income taxpayers if they do not have its registered office or place of management in Poland Art. 3.2 of the CIT Act.

These rules apply without prejudice to double taxation conventions signed by the Republic of Poland.

Non-Polish residents are subject to Polish income tax only on their income earned in Poland. As of 1 January 2017, under Article 3.3 of the CIT Act, income (revenues) gained in the Republic of Poland by non-residents shall include in particular income (revenues) from:

1. all types of activity pursued in the Republic of Poland, including through a foreign establishment located in the Republic of Poland;
2. immovable property located in the Republic of Poland or rights to such property, including from its disposal in whole or in part, or from disposal of any rights to such property;
3. securities and derivatives other than securities, admitted to public trading in the Republic of Poland as part of the regulated stock exchange market, including those obtained from the disposal of these securities or derivatives, or the exercise of rights resulting from them;
4. the transfer of ownership of shares in a company, of all rights and obligations in a partnership without legal personality, or units in an investment fund or a collective investment undertaking, in which at least 50 per cent. of the value of assets is constituted, directly or indirectly, by immovable properties located in the Republic of Poland, or rights to such immovable properties;
5. the receivables settled, including receivables put at disposal, paid out or deducted, by natural persons, legal persons, or organisational units without legal personality, having their place of residence, registered office, or management board in the Republic of Poland, irrespectively of the place of conclusion of the agreement and place of performance.

Under Article 3.5 of the CIT Act, revenues referred to in point 5 above are understood as revenues listed in Articles 21.1 (including interest) and 22.1, if they do not constitute income (revenues) referred to in points 1 – 4, above.

Similar provisions were added to Article 3.2b and included in Article 3.2d of the PIT Act.

It should be noted that the list of incomes (revenues) gained in Poland, as provided in Art. 3.3. of the CIT Act and Art. 3.2b of the PIT Act is not exhaustive, therefore, other incomes (revenues) may also be considered as sourced in Poland.

Irrespective of the above, it could be argued that in principle the payments under the Notes, which are issued by a foreign entity, are not sourced in Poland unless one of the cases indicated above occurs (in particular, the Notes are traded on the Warsaw Stock Exchange or the payment is made by a Polish entity or individual).

If the payment is considered as interest sourced in Poland and the payer of the interest is a tax remittent under Polish tax regulations, the withholding tax at 20 per cent. under Art. 21.1 of the CIT Act or at 19 per cent. under Art. 30a.1 of the PIT Act should apply. Although this is not clearly regulated in the Polish tax law, in fact, foreign entities do not act as Polish withholding tax remitters.

If the payment under the notes is considered as sourced in Poland, then, the relevant double tax treaty (if any) should be verified to check whether Polish taxation applies. For example, most of the tax treaties concluded by Poland provide for Polish tax exemption on capital gains earned in Poland by a foreign tax resident. In order to benefit from a tax treaty, a foreign investor should present a relevant certificate of its tax residency.

Due to ambiguous wording of the tax regulations in Art. 29.1.5 of the PIT Act or Art. 21.1.2a of the CIT Act, there is a risk that the tax authorities may consider that guarantee payments made by the Guarantor to non-Polish tax resident individuals or corporates might be subject to domestic 20 per cent. withholding tax. Even if this profiscal interpretation of Art. 29.1.5 of the PIT Act or Art. 21.1.2a of the CIT Act is adopted, most of the tax treaties concluded by Poland provide for Polish tax exemption on such revenues earned in Poland by a foreign tax resident. In order to benefit from a tax treaty, the person making a payment qualified as above should receive a relevant tax residency certificate of the non-Polish tax resident individuals and/or corporates receiving the payment (other documents may be required in specific cases).

There is also a risk that certain payments (those corresponding to interest) made by the Guarantor are subject to Polish withholding tax if they were classified by the tax authorities as interest derived from Poland. If this were the case, domestic 19 per cent. (in case of non-resident individuals) or 20 per cent. (in case of non-resident corporates) withholding tax would apply unless the interest recipient benefitted from a reduced rate or an exemption under the relevant double tax treaty. In order to benefit from a reduced rate or an exemption under the relevant double tax treaty, the interest recipient would need to produce the relevant certificate of tax residency (other documents may be required in specific cases).

Separate, specific rules apply to interest income on securities held on Omnibus Accounts. Also in the cases where Polish withholding tax should not apply on interest payable to non-Polish tax residents (natural persons or corporate income taxpayers), under specific rules applying to interest income on securities held on Omnibus Accounts there is a risk that such tax would be withheld. Under Article 26.2a of the CIT Act, with respect to income (revenue) from interest transferred to taxpayers holding rights attached to securities registered in Omnibus Accounts whose identity has not been revealed to the tax remitter in accordance with the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, a 20 per cent. flat-rate tax is withheld by the tax remitter from the aggregate income (revenue) released for the benefit of all such taxpayers through the Omnibus Account holder. Under Article 30a.2a of the PIT Act, with respect to income (revenue) from interest transferred to taxpayers holding rights attached to securities registered in Omnibus Accounts whose identity has not been revealed to the tax remitter in accordance with the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, a 19 per cent. flat-rate tax is withheld by the tax remitter from the aggregate income (revenue) released for the benefit of all such taxpayers through the Omnibus Account holder. If such tax is withheld with respect to non-Polish tax resident taxpayer, with respect to refund of such tax, the entity should contact its tax advisor.

If a foreign recipient of income acts through a permanent establishment in Poland, to which the interest is related, as a matter of principle it should be treated in the same manner as a Polish tax resident.

5. PCC – Civil Law Activities Tax

PCC is levied on civil law transactions, such as a sale or exchange of rights, if such rights are exercisable in Poland or, if exercisable abroad and the acquirer is a Polish resident and the transaction is carried out in Poland. As a rule, given that the issuer is a non-Polish entity, the Notes should not be considered as rights exercisable in Poland.

Neither an issuance of Notes nor a redemption of Notes is subject to PCC.

PCC on the sale or exchange of Notes (which, as a rule are considered to be rights) is 1 per cent. of their market value. It is payable by the purchaser within 14 days after the sale or exchange agreement has been entered into. However, if such agreement has been entered into in notarial form, the tax due should be withheld and paid by the notary public. PCC on sale of the Notes is payable by the entity acquiring the Notes. In the case of exchange agreements, PCC should be payable by both parties jointly and severally.

However, the sale of the Notes: (i) to investment firms or foreign investment firms, (ii) made with the intermediation of investment firms or foreign investment firms; (iii) made on an organised market, or (iv) made outside an organised market by investment firms or foreign investment firms if the proprietary rights were acquired by those firms on an organised market, is exempt from PCC, as defined in the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments.

6. Remitter's liability

Under Art. 30.1 of the Tax Ordinance dated 29 August 1997, as amended, a remitter which has not carried out its obligation to calculate and withhold due tax from a taxpayer, and to transfer the appropriate amount of tax to a relevant tax office, is liable for tax not withheld or tax withheld but not transferred to a relevant tax office. The remitter is liable for those obligations with all of its assets. The provisions on the remitter's liability do not apply only if separate provisions provide otherwise or if the tax has not been withheld due to the taxpayer's fault.

LUXEMBOURG

The following information is of a general nature only and is based on the laws presently in force in Luxembourg, though it is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. The information contained within this section is limited to Luxembourg withholding tax issues and prospective investors in the Notes should therefore consult their own professional advisers as to the effects of state, local or foreign laws, including Luxembourg tax law, to which they may be subject.

Please be aware that the residence concept used under the respective headings below applies for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes only. Any reference in the present section to a withholding tax or a tax of a similar nature, or to any other concepts, refers to Luxembourg tax law and/or concepts only.

Withholding Tax

(a) Non-resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently, there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to non-resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of the Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of the Notes held by non-resident holders of Notes.

(b) Resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the law of 23 December 2005, as amended (the Relibi Law), there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to Luxembourg resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of Notes held by Luxembourg resident holders of Notes.

Under the Relibi Law payments of interest or similar income made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to an individual beneficial owner who is a resident of Luxembourg will be subject to a withholding tax of 20 per cent. Such withholding tax will be in full discharge of income tax if the beneficial owner is an individual acting in the course of the management of his/her private wealth. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. Accordingly, payments of interest under the Notes coming within the scope of the Relibi Law will be subject to a withholding tax at a rate of 20 per cent.

FRANCE

The following is a summary limited to certain French tax considerations relating to the Notes that may be issued under the Programme and specifically contains information on withholding taxes applicable to payments made under the Notes. Each prospective holder or beneficial owner of Notes should consult its tax adviser as to the tax consequences of any investment in or ownership and disposition of the Notes.

Withholding tax

Following the introduction of the French loi de finances rectificative pour 2009 n°3 (n°2009-1674 dated 30 December 2009) (the Law), payments of interest and other revenues made by the Issuer with respect to Notes issued on or after 1 March 2010 are not subject to the withholding tax set out under Article 125 A III of the French Code général des impôts unless such payments are made outside France in a non-cooperative State or territory (Etat ou territoire non coopératif) within the meaning of Article 238-0 A of the French Code général des impôts (a Non-Cooperative State). If such payments under the Notes are made in a Non-Cooperative State, a 75 per cent. withholding tax will be applicable (subject to certain exceptions and to the more favourable provisions of an applicable double tax treaty) by virtue of Article 125 A III of the French Code général des impôts.

Furthermore, according to Article 238 A of the French Code général des impôts, interest and other revenues on such Notes are not deductible from the Issuer's taxable income if they are paid or accrued to persons established or domiciled in a Non-Cooperative State or paid in such a Non-Cooperative State (the Deductibility Exclusion). Under certain conditions, any such non-deductible interest and other revenues may be recharacterised as constructive dividends pursuant to Article 109 of the French Code général des impôts, in which case such non-deductible interest and other revenues may be subject to the withholding tax set out under Article 119 bis of the French Code général des impôts, at a rate of 30 per cent. or 75 per cent. (subject to the more favourable provisions of an applicable tax treaty).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Law provides that neither the 75 per cent. withholding tax set out under Article 125 A III of the French Code général des impôts nor the Deductibility Exclusion will apply in respect of an issue of Notes if the Issuer can prove that the principal purpose and effect of such issue of Notes was not that of allowing the payments of interest or other revenues to be made in a Non-Cooperative State (the Exception). Pursuant to the Bulletin Officiel des Finances Publiques-Impôts BOI-RPPM-RCM-30-10-20-40-20140211, n°70, an issue of Notes will benefit from the Exception without the Issuer having to provide any proof of the purpose and effect of such issue of Notes, if such Notes are:

- (i) offered by means of a public offer within the meaning of Article L. 411-1 of the French Code monétaire et financier or pursuant to an equivalent offer in a State other than a Non-Cooperative State. For this purpose, an "equivalent offer" means any offer requiring the registration or submission of an offer document by or with a foreign securities market authority; or
- (ii) admitted to trading on a regulated market or on a French or foreign multilateral securities trading system provided that such market or system is not located in a Non-Cooperative State, and the operation of such market is carried out by a market operator or an investment services provider, or by such other similar foreign entity, provided further that such market operator, investment services provider or entity is not located in a Non-Cooperative State; or
- (iii) admitted, at the time of their issue, to the clearing operations of a central depository or of a securities clearing and delivery and payments systems operator within the meaning of Article L. 561-2 of the French Code monétaire et financier, or of one or more similar foreign depositories or operators provided that such depository or operator is not located in a Non-Cooperative State.

Reporting obligations

Article 1649 AC of the French Code général des impôts, implementing both automatic exchange of information under European Union regulations as well as automatic exchange of information under the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA), imposes on paying agents based in France to report information (mainly identity and residency of the beneficiaries, and of the controlling persons of the beneficiary as the case may be; national tax identification number; amount of payments made) to the French tax authorities.

Article 242 ter of the French Code général des impôts imposes on paying agents based in France an obligation to report to the French tax authorities similar information, through a general and a specific declaration, applicable as from 1 January 2017 until 31 December 2017 and only in certain territories (Aruba and Saint-Martin), including, among other things, the identity and address of the beneficial owner and a detailed list of the different categories of interest paid to that beneficial owner.

AUSTRIA

1. General Information

The following is a brief summary of certain Austrian tax aspects in connection with the Notes. It does not claim to fully describe all Austrian tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Notes. In some cases a different tax regime may apply. Further, this summary does not take into account the tax laws of any country other than Austria nor does it take into account the investors' individual circumstances or any special tax treatment applicable to the investor and it only addresses tax law aspects relevant for private investors, unless explicitly stated otherwise.

It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. Prospective investors are advised to consult their own professional advisers to obtain further information about the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Notes. Only personal advisers are in a position to adequately take into account special tax aspects of the particular Notes in question as well as the investor's personal circumstances and any special tax treatment applicable to the investor.

This summary is based on Austrian law as in force when drawing up this Base Prospectus. The following summary describes the tax laws to be applied to the Notes acquired against consideration.

Prospective investors are explicitly advised to consult their own professional advisers to obtain further information about the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition, exchange, exercise, settlement or redemption of the Notes.

In this analysis, Austrian legal concepts are expressed in English terms and not in the original German terms. The Austrian legal concepts concerned may not be identical to the concepts expressed in English terms. Therefore, this analysis may only be relied upon under the express condition that any issues of interpretation will be governed and construed solely in accordance with Austrian law as interpreted by the Austrian courts.

The laws and their interpretation by the tax authorities may change and such changes may also have retroactive effect. It cannot be ruled out that Austrian tax authorities adopt a view different from that outlined below.

Tax considerations relevant to prospective holders of Notes which are subject to a special tax regime such as for example governmental authorities, charities, private foundations (Privatstiftungen) or investment or pension funds are not addressed herein.

This summary does not describe the tax consequences for a holder of Notes that are redeemable in exchange for, or convertible into, shares or other securities or rights or which in any other way provide for physical settlement, of the exchange, exercise, physical settlement or redemption of such Notes and/or any tax consequences after the moment of exchange, exercise, physical settlement or redemption. For the purposes of the following it is assumed that the Notes are offered to the public (undefined circle of addressees) from a legal and factual perspective.

2. Austrian resident taxpayers

Income derived by individuals or corporations resident in Austria is taxable pursuant to the Austrian Income Tax Act (Einkommensteuergesetz) or the Austrian Corporate Income Tax Act (Körperschaftsteuergesetz). Individuals having a domicile or their habitual abode in Austria or corporations having their corporate seat or their place of management in Austria are considered residents for Austrian income and corporate income tax law purposes, respectively.

3. Individuals

Not only interest amounts (Zinserträge) but also realised capital gain (Einkünfte aus realisierten Wertsteigerungen) will, irrespective of the period of time the Notes have been held for, qualify as investment income (Einkünfte aus Kapitalvermögen) and be subject to income tax at a special rate of 27.5 per cent. Realised capital gains are the difference between (a) the amount realised (e.g., the sale proceeds, the redemption or other pay-off amount, or the fair market value in case of a deemed realisation) and (b) the acquisition costs, in each case (amount realised and acquisition costs) including accrued interest, if any. There will be no more withholding tax credits upon the purchase of Notes.

Expenses and costs (Aufwendungen und Ausgaben) which are directly connected with income subject to the special tax rate of 27.5 per cent. are not deductible. For Notes held as private assets, the acquisition costs shall not include ancillary acquisition costs (Anschaffungsnebenkosten). For the calculation of the acquisition costs of Notes held within the same Notes account and having the same Notes identification number but which are acquired at different points in time, the floating average price (gleitender Durchschnittspreis) shall apply.

If an Austrian custodian (inländische depotführende Stelle) or an Austrian paying agent (inländische auszahlende Stelle) is involved and settles the realisation of the realised capital gain, the income tax will be deducted by applying a 27.5 per cent. withholding tax. The same (withholding tax of 27.5 per cent.) applies to interests if an Austrian paying agent is involved. The 27.5 per cent. withholding tax deduction will result in a final income taxation (Endbesteuerungswirkung) for private investors (holding the Notes as private assets) provided that the investor has evidenced the factual acquisition costs of the Notes to the custodian. Certain exceptions may apply (in particular for investors whose regular personal income tax rate is lower than 27.5 per cent. - see details below). Regarding Notes held as a business asset, the withholding tax on capital gains is not a final taxation.

To the extent that no withholding tax deduction will be effected due to the lack of an Austrian paying agent and of an Austrian custodian, the investment income derived from the Notes will have to be included in an income tax return in line with the provisions of the Austrian Income Tax Act. Such investment income will be also subject to income tax at a special rate of 27.5 per cent. Expenses and costs (Aufwendungen und Ausgaben) which are directly connected with such investment income are also not deductible.

Withdrawals (Entnahmen) and other transfers of Notes from the securities account will be treated as disposals (sales) unless specific exemptions are fulfilled such as the transfer of the Notes to a securities account owned by the same taxpayer (i) with the same Austrian bank, (ii) with another Austrian bank if the account holder has instructed the transferring bank to disclose the acquisition costs to the receiving bank or (iii) with a non-Austrian bank, if the account holder has instructed the transferring bank to transmit the pertaining information to the competent tax office or has himself notified the competent Austrian tax office within a month; or like a transfer without consideration to a securities account held by another taxpayer, if the fact that the transfer has been made without consideration has been evidenced to the securities account keeping agent or the agent has been instructed to inform the Austrian tax office thereof or if the taxpayer has himself notified the competent Austrian tax office within a month. Special rules apply if a taxpayer transfers his residence outside of Austria. Upon application of the taxpayer, the exit taxation of the Notes held as private assets can be deferred until the actual disposal of the Notes in case the investor transfers his or her tax residence outside of Austria to an EU Member State or certain Member States of the EEA or transfers the Notes for no consideration to another individual resident in an EU Member State or certain Member States of the EEA. In all other cases of a deemed disposal the taxpayer may apply for a payment of the triggered income tax in instalments over a period of seven years.

Taxpayers, whose regular personal income tax is lower than 27.5 per cent. may opt for taxation of the income derived from the Notes at such regular personal income tax rate. Such application for opting into taxation at the regular personal income tax rate must, however, include all investment income subject to such special tax rate. The tax withheld will then be credited against the income tax. Expenses in connection with income subject to final taxation or to the special 25 and/or 27.5 per cent. income tax rate and incurred by the investor are also not deductible for persons having opted for taxation at the regular personal income tax rate.

Losses from Notes held as private assets may only be set-off against certain other investment income subject to such special tax rate (27.5 per cent.) (excluding, inter alia, interest income from bank deposits and other claims against banks) and must not be set off against any other income.

The loss off-setting is conducted on an on-going basis by the custodian with respect to all income and losses that are realised in all custodian accounts managed by such custodian.

For income derived from Notes which have not been offered to the public (undefined circle of addressees) from a legal and factual perspective, the general income tax rate (instead of the special rate of 27.5 per cent.) will apply.

Generally, the same rules apply regarding Notes that are held as business assets by tax residents who are individuals. The most important differences are the following:

Income derived from the Notes which are held as business assets will also be subject to the special tax rate of 27.5 per cent. deducted by way of a withholding tax. However, realised capital gains, contrary to interest income, have to be included in the tax return; no final taxation applies. The special rate of 27.5 per cent. does not apply if the main focus of the entity's operating activity is the achieving of realised capital gains. The tax withheld will be credited against the income tax.

For Notes held as business assets, the acquisition costs shall also include ancillary acquisition costs (Anschaffungsnebenkosten).

Write-downs to the going-concern value and losses derived from the sale, redemption or other pay-off of Notes held as business assets must primarily be set off against positive income from realised capital gains and write-ups of financial instruments of the same business and only 55 per cent. of the remaining loss may be set off or carried forward against any other income.

4. Corporations

Corporate investors deriving business income from the Notes may avoid the application of Austrian withholding tax by filing a declaration of exemption (Befreiungserklärung) with the Austrian entity obliged to deduct the Austrian withholding tax. Income including any capital gain derived from the Notes by corporate investors is subject to Austrian corporate income tax at the general rate of 25 per cent.

There is, inter alia, a special tax regime for Private Foundations established under Austrian law (Privatstiftungen).

5. Certain aspects of the tax treatment of certain Notes

Any income and capital gain from the sale or redemption of Notes acquired against consideration will be subject to income tax of 27.5 per cent. and the tax will be deducted by way of a withholding tax if an Austrian paying agent or custodian is involved.

Zero Coupon Notes will, as other notes, fall within the taxation regime for investment income: the difference between the sales price or the redemption amount, as the case may be, and the acquisition costs, including accrued interest if any, will be subject to the 27.5 per cent., withholding tax if paid out by an Austrian custodian or paying agent.

If held as business assets, interest paid upon redemption of the Zero Coupon Notes is not subject to final taxation, but taxed like capital gains (for the taxation of capital gains of the Notes held as business assets see the description above).

6. Non-residents

As long as neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor has its registered seat (Sitz) or place of management (Ort der Geschäftsleitung) in Austria and is not otherwise deemed to be resident in Austria for Austrian tax law purposes and neither of them has a branch office (Zweigstelle) in Austria, income, including any capital gains derived, from the Notes by individuals who do not have a domicile or their habitual abode in Austria (non-residents) is not taxable in Austria unless the income is attributable to a permanent establishment or other Austrian source income taxable in Austria.

Income, including any capital gain derived from the Notes by corporate investors who do not have their corporate seat or their place of management in Austria (non-residents), is not taxable in Austria provided that the income is not attributable to a permanent establishment or other Austrian source income taxable in Austria.

7. Repeal of the EU Savings Tax Directive and automatic change of information

On 10 November 2015, the Council of the European Union adopted Council Directive (EU) 2015/2060 by which Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income (the "EU Savings Tax Directive") has been repealed with effect as of 1 January 2016. The repeal was adopted as a consequence of the adoption by the Council in December 2014 of Directive 2014/107/EU amending provisions on the mandatory automatic exchange of information between tax administrations.

In respect of Austria, however, special transitional periods applied and the EU Savings Tax Directive continued to apply with regard to Austria until 31 December 2016. Legislation implementing the repeal of the EU Savings Tax Directive and of the EU Withholding Tax Act (EU - Quellensteuergesetz), by which the EU Savings Tax Directive has been implemented in Austria, with effect as of 1 January has been adopted in Austria on 14 July 2016 by the EU Federal Tax Amendment Act 2016 (EU-Abgabenänderungsgesetz 2016, Federal Law Gazette I 2016/77).

The Austrian Common Reporting Standard Act (Gemeinsamer Meldestandard Gesetz) has implemented the automatic exchange of information (Common Reporting Standard – CRS), meeting the international obligations and obligations under EU law of Austria. The Austrian Common Reporting Standard Act regulates the exchange of tax-relevant account data for individuals and entities domiciled in a CRS country. CRS countries are those participating in the automatic exchange of information (including EU member states, Switzerland, Liechtenstein and many more). The Austrian Common Reporting Standard Act applies to both individuals and entities.

8. Other taxes

No Austrian inheritance and gift tax (Erbschafts- und Schenkungssteuer) is in effect. However, according to the Gift Notification Act 2008 (Schenkungsmitteilungsgesetz 2008) gifts have to be notified to the tax authorities within a three-month notification period. There are certain exemptions from such notification obligation, e.g. for gifts among relatives that do not exceed an aggregate amount (of gifts between the same persons) of €50,000 per year or gifts among unrelated persons that do not exceed an aggregate amount (of gifts between the same persons) of €15,000 within five years. Intentional violation of the notification obligation may trigger fines of up to 10 per cent. of the fair market value of the assets transferred.

The sale and purchase of bearer securities is in general not subject to Austrian stamp duty provided that no other transaction potentially taxable under the Austrian Stamp Duty Act (Gebührengesetz) such as an assignment of rights (Zession) is entered into for which a document (Urkunde) within the meaning of the Stamp Duty Act is executed.

GERMANY

1. Income tax

- (a) Notes held by tax residents as private assets

Taxation of interest

Payments of interest on the Notes to Holders who are tax residents of Germany (i.e., persons whose residence or habitual abode is located in Germany) are subject to German income tax. In each case where German income tax arises, a solidarity surcharge (Solidaritätszuschlag) is levied in addition. Furthermore, church tax may be levied, where applicable. If coupons or interest claims are disposed of separately (i.e. without the Notes), the proceeds from the disposition are subject to income tax. The same applies to proceeds from the redemption of coupons or interest claims if the Note is disposed of separately.

On payments of interest on the Notes to individual tax residents of Germany income tax is generally levied as a flat income tax at a rate of 25 per cent. (plus solidarity surcharge in an amount of 5.5 per cent. of such tax, resulting in a total tax charge of 26.375 per cent., plus, if applicable, church tax). The total investment income of an individual will be decreased by a lump sum deduction (Sparer-Pauschbetrag) of €801 (€1,602 for married couples filing jointly), not by a deduction of expenses actually incurred.

If the Notes are held in a custodial account which the Holder maintains with a German branch of a German or non-German bank or financial services institution or with a securities trading business or bank in Germany (the Disbursing Agent) the flat income tax will be levied by way of withholding at the aforementioned rate from the gross interest payment to be made by the Disbursing Agent.

In general, no withholding tax will be levied if the Holder is an individual (i) whose Note does not form part of the property of a trade or business and (ii) who filed a withholding exemption certificate (Freistellungsauftrag) with the Disbursing Agent but only to the extent the interest income derived from the Note together with other investment income does not exceed the maximum exemption amount shown on the withholding exemption certificate. Similarly, no withholding tax will be deducted if the Holder has submitted to the Disbursing Agent a certificate of non-assessment (Nichtveranlagungs-Bescheinigung) issued by the relevant local tax office.

If no Disbursing Agent (as defined above) is involved in the payment process the Holder will have to include its income on the Notes in its tax return and the flat income tax of 25 per cent. plus solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax will be collected by way of assessment.

Payment of the flat income tax will generally satisfy any income tax liability (including solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax) of the Holder in respect of such investment income. Holders may apply for a tax assessment on the basis of general rules applicable to them if the resulting income tax burden is lower than 25 per cent.

Taxation of capital gains

From 1 January 2009, also capital gains realised by individual tax residents of Germany from the disposition or redemption of the Notes acquired after 31 December 2008 will be subject to the flat income tax on investment income at a rate of 25 per cent. (plus solidarity surcharge in an amount of 5.5 per cent. of such tax, resulting in a total tax charge of 26.375 per cent., plus, if applicable, church tax), irrespective of any holding period. This will also apply to Notes on which the principal is effectively repaid in whole or in part although the repayment was not guaranteed.

If the Notes are held in a custodial account which the Holder maintains with a Disbursing Agent (as defined above) the flat income tax will be levied by way of withholding from the difference between the redemption amount (or the proceeds from the disposition) and the issue price (or the purchase price) of the Notes. If the Notes have been transferred into the custodial account of the Disbursing Agent only after their acquisition, and no evidence on the acquisition data has been provided to the new Disbursing Agent by the Disbursing Agent which previously kept the Notes in its custodial account, withholding tax will be levied on 30 per cent. of the proceeds from the disposition or redemption of the Notes.

If no Disbursing Agent is involved in the payment process the Holder will have to include capital gains from the disposition or redemption of the Notes in its tax return and the flat income tax of 25 per cent. plus solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax will be collected by way of assessment.

Payment of the flat income tax will generally satisfy any income tax liability (including solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax) of the Holder in respect of such investment income. Holders may apply for a tax assessment on the basis of general rules applicable to them if the resulting income tax burden is lower than 25 per cent.

(b) Notes held by tax residents as business assets

Payments of interest on Notes and capital gains from the disposition or redemption of Notes held as business assets by German tax resident individuals or corporations (including via a tax transparent partnership, as the case may be), are generally subject to German income tax or corporate income tax (in each case plus solidarity surcharge and, if applicable, church tax). The interest and capital gain will also be subject to trade tax if the Notes form part of the property of a German trade or business.

If the Notes are held in a custodial account which the Holder maintains with a Disbursing Agent (as defined above) tax at a rate of 25 per cent. (plus a solidarity surcharge of 5.5 per cent. of such tax and, if applicable, church tax) will also be withheld from interest payments on Notes and (since 1 January 2009) generally also from capital gains from the disposition or redemption of Notes held as business assets. In these cases the withholding tax does not satisfy the income tax liability of the Holder, as in the case of the flat income tax, but will be credited as advance payment against the personal income or corporate income tax liability and the solidarity surcharge (and, if applicable, against the church tax) of the Holder.

With regard to capital gains no withholding will generally be required in the case of Notes held by corporations resident in Germany, provided that in the case of corporations of certain legal forms the status of corporation has been evidenced by a certificate of the competent tax office, and upon application in the case of Notes held by individuals or partnerships as business assets.

(c) Notes held by non-residents

Interest and capital gains are not subject to German taxation in the case of non-residents, i.e. persons having neither their residence nor their habitual abode nor legal domicile nor place of effective management in Germany, unless the Notes form part of the business property of a permanent establishment maintained in Germany. Interest may, however, also be subject to German income tax if it otherwise constitutes income taxable in Germany, such as income from the letting and leasing of certain German situs property or income from certain capital investments directly or indirectly secured by German situs real estate.

Non-residents of Germany are in general exempt from German withholding tax on interest and capital gains and from solidarity surcharge thereon. However, if the interest or capital gain is subject to German taxation as set forth in the preceding paragraph and the Notes are held in a custodial account with a Disbursing Agent (as defined above), withholding tax will be levied as explained above at "Notes held by tax residents as business assets" or at "Notes held by tax residents as private assets", respectively.

2. Inheritance and Gift Tax

No inheritance or gift taxes with respect to any Note will generally arise under the laws of Germany, if, in the case of inheritance tax, neither the decedent nor the beneficiary, or, in the case of gift tax, neither the donor nor the donee, is a resident of Germany and such Note is not attributable to a German trade or business for which a permanent establishment is maintained, or a permanent representative has been appointed, in Germany. Exceptions from this rule apply to certain German citizens who previously maintained a residence in Germany.

3. Other Taxes

No stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes or duties will be payable in Germany in connection with the issuance, delivery or execution of the Notes. Currently, net assets tax (Vermögensteuer) is not levied in Germany.

THE NETHERLANDS

1. General

The following is a general summary of certain Dutch tax consequences of the acquisition, holding and disposal of the Notes. This summary does not purport to describe all possible tax considerations or consequences that may be relevant to a holder or prospective holder of Notes and does not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which (such as trusts or similar arrangements) may be subject to special rules. In view of its general nature, it should be treated with corresponding caution. Holders or prospective holders of Notes should consult with their tax advisers with regard to the tax consequences of investing in the Notes in their particular circumstances. The discussion below is included for general information purposes only.

Except as otherwise indicated, this summary only addresses Dutch national tax legislation and published regulations, whereby Dutch refers to the part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands located in Europe, as in effect on the date hereof and as interpreted in published case law until this date, without prejudice to any amendment introduced at a later date and implemented with or without retroactive effect.

2. Withholding tax

All payments of principal and/or interest made by the Issuer under the Notes may be made free of withholding or deduction of, for or on account of any taxes of whatever nature imposed, levied, withheld or assessed by the Netherlands or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

3. Taxes on income and capital gains

Please note that the summary in this section does not describe the Dutch tax consequences for:

- (a) holders of Notes if such holders, and in the case of individuals, his/her partner or certain of their relatives by blood or marriage in the direct line (including foster children), have a substantial interest or deemed substantial interest in the Issuer under the Dutch income tax act 2001 (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001). Generally speaking, a holder of securities in a company is considered to hold a substantial interest in such company, if such holder alone or, in the case of individuals, together with his/her partner (as defined in the Dutch income tax act 2001), directly or indirectly, holds (i) an interest of 5 per cent. or more of the total issued and outstanding capital of that company or of 5 per cent. or more of the issued and outstanding capital of a certain class of shares of that company; or (ii) rights to acquire, directly or indirectly, such interest; or (iii) certain profit sharing rights in that company that relate to 5 per cent. or more of the company's annual profits and/or to 5 per cent. or more of the company's liquidation proceeds. A deemed substantial interest may arise if a substantial interest (or part thereof) in a company has been disposed of, or is deemed to have been disposed of, on a non recognition basis;

- (b) pension funds, investment institutions (fiscale beleggingsinstellingen), exempt investment institutions (vrijgestelde beleggingsinstellingen) (as defined in the Dutch corporate income tax act 1969 (Wet op de vennootschapsbelasting 1969)) and other entities that are, in whole or in part, not subject to or exempt from Dutch corporate income tax; and
- (c) holders of Notes who are individuals for whom the Notes or any benefit derived from the Notes are a remuneration or deemed to be a remuneration for activities performed by such holders or certain individuals related to such holder (as defined in the Dutch income tax act 2001).

4. Corporate Dutch resident taxpayers

Generally speaking, if the holder of a Note is an entity that is a resident or deemed to be resident of the Netherlands for Dutch corporate income tax purposes, any payment under the Notes or any gain or loss realised on the disposal or deemed disposal of the Notes is subject to Dutch corporate income tax at a rate of 20 per cent. with respect to taxable profits up to €200,000 and 25 per cent with respect to taxable profits in excess of that amount.

5. Individual Dutch resident taxpayers

If a holder of a Note is an individual, resident or deemed to be resident of the Netherlands for Dutch income tax purposes, any payment under the Notes or any gain or loss realised on the disposal or deemed disposal of the Notes is taxable at the progressive income tax rates (with a maximum of 52 per cent.), if:

- (a) the Notes are attributable to an enterprise from which the holder of the Notes derives a share of the profit, whether as an entrepreneur or as a person who has a co-entitlement to the net worth (medegerechtigd to het vermogen) of such enterprise, without being a shareholder, as defined in the Dutch income tax act 2001; or
- (b) the holder of a Note is considered to perform activities with respect to the Notes that go beyond ordinary asset management (normaal, actief vermogensbeheer) or derives benefits from the Notes that are (otherwise) taxable as benefits from other activities (resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden).

If the above mentioned conditions (i) and (ii) do not apply to the individual holder of Notes, such holder will be taxed annually on a deemed, variable return (with a maximum of, currently, 5.39 per cent.) of his/her net investment assets (rendementsgrondslag) for the year at an income tax rate of 30 per cent.

The net investment assets for the year are the fair market value of the investment assets less the allowable liabilities on 1 January of the relevant calendar year. The Notes are included as investment assets. A tax free allowance may be available. Actual income, gains or losses in respect of the Notes are as such not subject to Netherlands income tax.

The deemed, variable return will depend on the amount of such holder's net investment assets on 1 January of the relevant calendar year and will be adjusted annually. For the net investment assets on 1 January 2017, a deemed return between 2.87 per cent. and 5.39 per cent. will be applied.

UNITED KINGDOM

The following applies only to persons who are the beneficial owners of Notes and is a summary of the Issuer's understanding of current United Kingdom law and published HM Revenue and Customs practice relating only to the United Kingdom withholding tax treatment of payments of interest (as that term is understood for United Kingdom tax purposes) in respect of the Notes. It does not deal with any other United Kingdom taxation implication of acquiring, holding or disposing of Notes. The United Kingdom tax treatment of prospective Noteholders depends on their individual circumstances and may be subject to change in the future. Prospective Noteholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position or who may be subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should seek their own professional advice.

Payment of Interest on the Notes

Payments of interest on the Notes that does not have a United Kingdom source may be made without deduction or withholding on account of United Kingdom income tax.

FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a "foreign financial institution" may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (foreign passthru payments) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer is a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including France and Poland) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (IGAs), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to 1 January 2019 and Notes issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be "grandfathered" for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional notes (as described under "Terms and Conditions—Further Issues") that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes.

THE PROPOSED FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS TAX (FTT)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the Commissions Proposal) for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the participating Member States). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commissions Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. Primary market transactions referred to in Article 5(c) of Regulation (EC) No. 1287/2006 are expected to be exempt.

Under the Commissions Proposal the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate. Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in a programme agreement (such programme agreement as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Programme Agreement) dated on or about 8 March 2017, agreed with the Issuer and the Guarantor a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under "Form of the Notes" and "Terms and Conditions of the Notes". In the Programme Agreement, the Issuer (failing which, the Guarantor) has agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment and any future update of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme and to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith.

Selling Restrictions

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. The applicable Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) will identify whether TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules apply or whether TEFRA is not applicable.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution, as determined and certified by the relevant Dealer or, in the case of an issue of Notes on a syndicated basis, the relevant lead manager, of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors

From 1 January 2018, unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors – Selling Restriction" as "Not Applicable", each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, as the case may be) in relation thereto to any retail investor in the European Economic Area. For the purposes of this provision:

Dealers Transacting with the Issuer and the Guarantor

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform other services for the Issuer, the Guarantor and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
