《General provisions》

1. The BRE Bank SA Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions (“Tariff”) sets out the amount and the terms and conditions of fees and commissions charged by BRE Bank SA for banking services and other services provided by BRE Bank SA by order of or to:
 - a) resident businesses, organisational units with a legal identity, organisational units without a legal identity, excluding banks;
 - b) non-residents, excluding natural persons and foreign banks.
2. The following terms used in the Tariff shall be construed as follows:
 - a) Bank – BRE Bank SA;
 - b) business day – a business day at the Bank shall be understood at the Bank as a day on which the Bank is open for the Clients, i.e. every day from Monday to Friday, except for public holidays or days announced previously by the Bank as days free from work;
 - c) Client – a resident business, organisational unit with a legal identity, organisational unit without a legal identity (excluding banks) or a non-resident (excluding natural persons and foreign banks) who orders a banking transaction or holds an account credited with a transaction;
 - d) branch – organisational unit of the Bank which maintains the account of the Client or executes transactions and services in order to implement the Client’s order.
3. All banking fees and commissions shall be paid by the Client unless otherwise agreed by the parties to the transaction and approved by the Bank. Fees and commissions not paid by the other party within 3 months of their accrual shall be charged to the Client.
4. Fees and commissions shall be accrued and charged on the date the transaction is executed or on a monthly, quarterly, or other basis as agreed with the Client.
5. In individual justifiable cases the Bank and the Client may agree a fee or commission or term and conditions of charging fees and commissions other than set out in the Tariff.
6. Properly accrued fees and commissions are not refundable.
7. Fees and commissions due to the Bank in one currency for a transaction in another currency shall be set based on conversion using the mid rate of exchange as quoted by the Bank.
8. Fees and commissions charged in a currency other than that in which the fees and commissions are accrued shall be set based on conversion using the relevant currency purchase or sale rate as quoted by the Bank.
9. In addition to the fees and commissions set out in the Tariff, the Bank shall also charge:
 - a) fees and commissions for postal and telecommunication services necessary to execute the Client’s orders as per the Appendix to the Tariff;
 - b) fees and commissions charged by foreign and domestic banks which participate in the execution of the Client’s order;
 - c) fees for courier delivery by order of the Client;
 - d) other fees charged by persons and institutions participating in the execution of the transaction (protest, legal opinion, etc.).
10. Fees and commissions for unusual services not listed in the Tariff shall be set by the Bank.
11. If the execution of the Client’s order requires special efforts involving extra work time, or if by order of the Client the Bank oversteps the terms and conditions of standard agreements applicable in the Bank which requires legal and technical research and opinions, the amount of charged commissions may be raised by 50%.
12. The Bank may at a later date charge due fees and commissions not charged within the timeframe set out in the Tariff.
13. The Bank shall notify the Client of any amendment of the Tariff by posting notices in the offices of the Bank and, additionally, as per the terms and conditions of the agreement executed with the Client.
