Moreover, the Standing

Committees of the Supervisory Board shall report to the Supervisory Board with annual reports. The Bank shall make the report available to the shareholders before the General Meeting.

§ 12

1. The Supervisory Board shall adopt resolutions at its meetings provided that at least half of the Supervisory Board Members are present at the meeting, and that notification concerning the meeting has been sent to all Members pursuant to § 9.3. In the case of an equal number of opposing votes, the vote of the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall prevail, subject to § 4.3.

2. Supervisory Board Members may participate in the adoption of resolutions of the Supervisory Board by casting their vote in writing with the intermediation of another Supervisory Board Member. Such casting of votes cannot concern issues introduced to the agenda at the meeting of the Supervisory Board.

3. Members of the Supervisory Board may also attend a meeting using means of direct remote communication, ensuring communication in real time between all the participants as well as the possibility to identify all participants of the meeting, while maintaining safety rules adopted in the Bank. Such a fact should be recorded in the minutes of the respective Supervisory Board meeting. Detailed information regarding attending a Supervisory Board meeting using means of direct remote communication shall be provided with the proposed agenda for the meeting.

4. The Supervisory Board may adopt resolutions in writing or using means of direct remote communication. The resolution shall be valid if all members of the Supervisory Board have been notified of the contents of the draft resolution and at least half of the members of the Supervisory Board have participated in passing the resolution. When putting an issue to a vote in writing, the Chairperson sets a deadline for casting the vote.

5. By proposal of the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, it shall be possible to vote on the adoption of two or more resolutions en block, if none of the Supervisory Board Members participating in the meeting objects to this manner of voting.

6. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board passed during a particular term of office shall be assigned subsequent numbers followed by the year and the date; they shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting.

7. In all cases where a signature of a Supervisory Board Member is required, a qualified electronic signature is equal to a handwritten signature.

8. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board and materials presented to Members of the Supervisory Board shall remain confidential until published pursuant to, depending on circumstances:

a) binding provisions of law relating to reporting obligations; and/or

b) a decision of the Supervisory Board or the Management Board; and they shall not be disclosed to third parties.

In addition to those matters which the meeting has been convened to decide or discuss, the agenda of a meeting shall also include information concerning the adoption of resolutions by the Supervisory Board pursuant to § 12.4, and a report on all important aspects of the Bank's operations and risks related to its operations as well as risk management tools for the period since the previous meeting of the Supervisory Board.

1. Supervisory Board meetings shall be recorded by drafting their minutes in writing or in a form equivalent to writing. The minutes shall include at least the full names of Supervisory Board Members present, subject to the provisions of § 12.3, a clear description of items on the agenda, course of the discussion, findings, agreed actions and resolutions passed, the number of votes cast for particular resolutions and indication of any comments or dissenting opinions together with the reasons for them, if any. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board and by the Secretary to the Supervisory Board responsible for keeping the minutes.

2. The course of the Supervisory Board meeting may be recorded (only sound or sound and video). The recording shall exclusively be used to prepare the minutes of the Supervisory Board meeting and shall be permanently deleted after its approval by the Members of the Supervisory Board.

3. The minutes shall be subject to approval by the Members of the Supervisory Board taking part in the meeting at the next meeting of the Supervisory Board, subject to section

4. Members of the Supervisory Board shall be given the opportunity to examine and comment on the minutes documenting the meeting before their approval. Comments not taken into account and dissenting opinions shall be noted together with the reasons for not taking them into account.

4. If the period between meetings of the Supervisory Board is shorter than 14 days, the minutes may be approved not at the next (closest) but at a further meeting of the Supervisory Board.

5. Minutes of Supervisory Board meetings that took place during its term in office shall be filed by the Bank.

1. Supervisory Board meetings may be attended by Members of the Management Board, except in cases directly concerning the Management Board or its Members, in particular with regard to recalling, accountability, and remuneration of Management Board Members.
2. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board may invite any persons, in particular if so requested by the President of the Management Board, for an entire Supervisory Board meeting or its part.
3. The Supervisory Board shall give at least one week's notice and allow the key statutory auditor who audited the Bank's financial statements or another representative of the audit firm the opportunity to participate in a meeting the subject of which is the evaluation of the Management Board's report on the Bank's activities and the financial statements for the previous financial year, the evaluation of the Management Board's proposals for the distribution of profit or coverage of loss and the adoption by the Supervisory Board of the report to be submitted to the General Meeting for the previous financial year.
4. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall be informed about the agenda and date of every Management Board Meeting and shall be authorized to participate in Management Board meetings.
5. The Chairperson of the Supervisory Board shall be authorised to represent the Supervisory Board in providing information to authorised bodies in accordance with regulations binding on the Bank.

1. In their contacts with the media concerning matters of relevance for the Bank, the Supervisory Board Members shall release generally available information. Disclosure of other information or data shall be reserved for the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board pursuant to the relevant provisions of law relating to reporting obligations of the Bank.
2. Interviews given by Supervisory Board Members to the media on behalf of the Bank shall be consulted in advance with the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board or with the President of the Management Board.

1. The Management Board of the Bank ensures the conditions for the operation of the Office of the Supervisory Board.
2. The Office of the Supervisory Board is responsible for the operational support of the Supervisory Board in the performance of its tasks, in particular for the preparation of draft resolutions and the agenda of the meetings, preparation of minutes of the meetings, delivery of materials to the Supervisory Board members for meetings of the Supervisory Board.

3. In consultation with the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board, the Secretary of the Supervisory Board is appointed, who is responsible for contacts with members of the Supervisory Board.

1. Members of the Supervisory Board shall abide by the relevant provisions of law, regulations of the Polish Financial Supervisory Authority and the Bank in respect of the trading in financial instruments.

2. In the performance of their duties, Members of the Supervisory Board should exercise the diligence required by the professional nature of their activities and maintain their loyalty to the Bank. Members of the Supervisory Board must not disclose the Bank's secrets, even after the expiry of their mandate.

The audit firm's report on the annual financial statement shall be distributed to the Members of the Supervisory Board not less than two weeks before the meeting of the Supervisory Board having the allocation of profit or the coverage of loss on the agenda.

§ 20

The Rules of the Supervisory Board dated 21 September 2023 are hereby withdrawn and replaced.
