2. Documents, referred to in (1), contain in particular information on the executed orders, as well as effected settlements, and fees and commissions charged by the Bank.

Article 18

The Bank is not liable for the loss and distortion of or delay in the execution of orders caused during the time of processing the order through any wired or wireless device, and for the effects of execution of the order submitted by the Customer.

Article 19

The Customer who submits foreign payment order is obliged to observe the provisions of the Foreign Exchange Act.

Article 20

The Customer who submits the foreign payment order assumes any obligations and bears consequences arising out of the application of laws and customs binding and prevailing abroad.

Article 21

The Customer who submits the foreign payment order concerning the funds from the loan granted by the Bank, is obliged to provide the information in the text of the order.

2. Special Terms of Execution of Foreign Currency Domestic Transfers and International Payments

Article 22

1. The Bank makes foreign currency domestic transfers and international payments involving the following cost sharing options:
 - 1/ SHA: commissions and fees are split between the Customer (the ordering party) and the beneficiary, accordingly (the Customer covers commissions and fees of the Bank and the beneficiary covers all other fees and commissions);
 - 2/ OUR: commissions and fees are covered by the Customer (the ordering party) only;
 - 3/ BEN: commissions and fees are covered by the beneficiary only (the Bank debits the full amount of payment to Customer's (ordering party's) account specified in the foreign currency domestic transfer or the international payment and reduces such transfer or payment by commissions and fees due to the Bank and payable by the beneficiary.
2. The Bank applies the following procedures to foreign currency domestic transfers and international payments depending on transaction currency and Customer's choice:
 - 1/ STANDARD: procedure for execution of an order on the beneficiary's bank D+2 value date, D being the date of execution of Customer's payment instruction by the Bank;
 - 2/ URGENT: procedure for execution of an order on the beneficiary's bank D+1 value date, D being the date of execution of Customer's payment instruction by the Bank;
 - 3/ EXPRESS: procedure for execution of an order on the beneficiary's bank D value date, D being the date of execution of Customer's payment instruction by the Bank;
3. Details of availability of procedures for execution of foreign currency domestic transfers and international payments according to order currency are specified in the current "mBank Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for SME and Corporates".
4. The Customer authorises the Bank to modify foreign currency domestic transfers and international payments to the extent of determination of the proper order execution procedure (replacement of the STANDARD procedure with the URGENT one) and choice of cost option (replacement of BEN with SHA) in order to guarantee compliance of payment orders with the provisions of the Act on Payment Services of 19 August 2011 - if Customer's original foreign currency domestic transfer or international payment does not comply with the said provisions.

Chapter 7 Limits in Order Execution

Article 23

1. §If the Customer's order is not consistent with the Agreement, the Rules or other agreement concluded between the Bank and the Customer, in particular the agreement based on which the Bank operates for the Customer the current or auxiliary bank account, referred to in Article 3 (1) point 1, or the generally applicable laws, the Bank refuses to execute the order.
2. If Customer's foreign currency domestic transfer order or international payment order is made in a currency not supported by the Bank, the Bank refuses to execute such order.
3. If Customer's foreign currency domestic transfer order or international payment order provides for a procedure for execution of a foreign currency domestic transfer order or an international payment order not supported by the Bank for the currency of the order, the Bank refuses to execute such order subject to Article 22 (4).
4. If the amount of the Customer's order plus the fees or commissions due to the Bank exceeds the bank account balance, the Bank may refuse to execute the order.
5. The Bank may refuse to execute the order not containing the provision of payment details.
6. The Bank refuses to execute the order with incomplete electronic signatures, subject to (7). The incomplete electronic signature is construed as signature put counter to the Agreement and parameterization in the bank's server of the MultiCash system.
7. The Bank suspends execution of the order with incomplete electronic signatures, submitted within installation with the distributed electronic signature, until supplementary signature has been sent from another installation of the Customer. The signature should be supplemented within 7 calendar days.
8. If the Customer uses invalid NRB or IBAN identifier in the order, the Bank may refuse to execute the order. Incorrect NRB or IBAN identifier means an identifier not in line with the bank account number standard set in the Regulation of the President of the National Bank of Poland, referred to in Article 2 point 7.

Article 24

In the case when the Customer submits the order without the authorizations arising from the *.BPD file, the Bank refuses to execute the order.

Article 25

1. In the case of refusal to execute the order, the Bank forthwith notifies the Customer of the fact giving the reason behind the refusal.
2. The notifications, referred to in (1), are sent by the Bank:

- 1/ via electronic mail to the email address indicated by the Customer, or
- 2/ via fax to the fax number indicated by the Customer, or
- 3/ via the system of notifications and messages generated by the MultiCash system.

Chapter 8 Interest Calculation

Article 26

1. The funds deposited in the Customer's current or auxiliary bank accounts bear interest at a variable interest rate.
2. The detailed rules governing the interest on funds deposited in the Customer's current and auxiliary bank accounts are set forth in the (current or auxiliary) bank account agreement and the "Rules for Opening, Maintaining and Closing Bank Accounts at mBank S.A."

Chapter 9 Fees and Commissions

Article 27

1. For the services provided under this Agreement, the Bank charges fees and commissions as per the "mBank Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for SME and Corporates", Section I Bank Accounts, which is an integral part of this Agreement.
2. The type and amount of fees or commissions may change. The change in the amount of fees and commissions depends in particular on operating costs incurred by the Bank, including market parameters affecting these costs such as: inflation rate, FX rates, and reference interest rates set by the National Bank of Poland.
3. The amended text of Chapter 1 of the "mBank Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for SME and Corporates", including changes in fees and commissions and their effective date is delivered to the Customer by the Bank in the manner provided for in the "Rules of Opening, Maintaining, and Closing Integrated Bank Account at mBank S.A." or the "Rules of Opening, Maintaining, and Closing Bank Accounts at mBank S.A." according to the bank account agreement (current or auxiliary account) concluded with the Customer.
4. If the Customer does not refuse the amendments in writing within 14 days from the delivery of the new wording of Section I of the "mBank Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for SME and Corporates", including changes in commissions and fees referred to in (3), such amendments will be deemed accepted by the Customer and binding upon the parties as of their effective date.
5. Customer's refusal to accept amendments in banking commissions and fees of mBank S.A. within the time referred to in (4) means termination of the bank account agreement by the Customer. Article 31 (4) applies accordingly.

Article 28

The Customer is informed of the current rates of the "mBank Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for SME and Corporates" and of any changes to the rates by means of announcements displayed at the Bank's outlets or on the Bank's website at 8www.mbank.pl/aktualnosci/msp-korporacje.

Article 29

1. The Customer authorises the Bank to debit his/her bank account with fees and commissions due to the Bank, including any costs of a foreign bank in the case of the execution of foreign payment.
2. The Bank debits the Customer's account with fees and commissions for executed order at the time of its execution.
3. Implementation fee (installation fee) for making the MultiCash software available to the Customer within a given location is charged on a one-off basis.
4. The monthly fee (subscription fee) for using the MultiCash system within a given location is charged in advance for each month that has begun.
5. Modification fee (maintenance) for each modification of the MultiCash software made available within a given location is charged upon completion of the modification.
6. The principles laid down in (2)-(5) apply, unless the provisions of the agreements concluded between the Customer and the Bank provide otherwise.

Article 30

The Customer is obliged to hold funds in the bank account at the time it is debited with the fees and commissions due to the Bank, in the amount at least equal to the amount of the fees and commissions.

Chapter 10

Amending the Rules, the Agreement and Terminating the Agreement

Article 31

1. Amendments to the Rules made during the Agreement term are delivered to the Customer by certified mail with return receipt requested to the Customer's latest address known to the Bank or delivered against confirmation of receipt including specification of the effective date of such amendments.
2. Providing the Customer with the amendments hereto referred to in (1) might occur alternatively by means of publishing the text of the amended Rules on the Bank's website, together with information on the date of publication of amendments and on the date of their entry into force. The day of the delivery of amendments to the Rules to the Customer is considered the eighth day from the date of the publication of amendments to the Rules on the Bank's website.
3. The Customer is entitled to submit a written notice of termination of the Agreement within 14 days following the delivery of amendments to the Rules.
4. The notice period is one month long and commences from the date of submitting (delivering) the termination notice to the Bank.
5. If the Customer does not hand in the notice of termination within 14 days from the date of the Bank's sending the information on amending the Rules or handing them in to the Customer against confirmation of receipt, the amendments take effect as of the effective date.

Article 32

1. The Bank may terminate the Agreement in writing pursuant to Article 31 (4) for substantial reasons, in particular:
 - 1/ §gross violation by the Customer of the provisions of the Agreement, the Rules, generally applicable laws or other agreement concluded between the Bank and the Customer, in particular the agreement based on which the Bank operates the Customer's current or auxiliary bank account, referred to in Article 3 (1) point 1,
 - 2/ false information provided by the Customer when entering into the Agreement,
 - 3/ disclosure of information about operation of the MultiCash system by the Customer, where such disclosure may render security mechanisms ineffective,
 - 4/ as a result of identification of actions of the User related to attempts made at violation of the system's security,
 - 5/ exclusion of the MultiCash System from use by the Bank.
2. In the event when the Bank terminates the Agreement, the Customer is notified of the reason for the termination.
3. The Customer may terminate the Agreement in writing pursuant to Article 31 (4) for substantial reasons, and in particular amendments in the Agreement, which are unacceptable according to the Customer.

Article 33

The Customer is responsible for all liabilities to the Bank, which have originated in the Agreement terms and are related to its performance.

Article 34

2. Complaints may be filed with every organisational unit of the Bank providing customer service. The list of organisational units of the Bank together with their addresses is published on the official website of mBank Group.
3. Complaints may be filed in writing, verbally - by phone or in person during a meeting with the Bank's employee, or electronically, in particular in the electronic banking system mBank CompanyNet.
4. Each complaint should contain a detailed description of the questionable event, the customer's expectations regarding the way of resolving the complaint, bank account number, name and statistical number REGON of the customer and data of the person filing the complaint (first name, last name, phone number and e-mail address).
5. The Bank handles complaints without delay, as soon as is reasonably practicable; however, the time limit for handling a complaint and providing a reply should not exceed 30 calendar days from the date of receipt of the complaint by the Bank. In particularly complex cases which make it impossible to handle a complaint and provide a reply within the time limit stated in the previous sentence, it is admissible to extend the - deadline for handling a complaint and providing a reply to a maximum of 60 days; if that is the case, the Bank notifies the customer accordingly.

6. Having handled the complaint, the Bank notifies the customer about the result of the complaint procedure. Replies to complaints are provided in writing, with the use of other durable medium, or - in the case of a customer being a legal person or an organisational unit without legal personality - by e-mail.
 7. In the event when the claims arising from the complaint are not acknowledged, the customer may request the Bank to reconsider the complaint within 14 days from the date of receipt of the reply to the complaint. The request should be made in writing. The request should contain the data referred to in paragraph 4.
 8. The provisions of paragraphs 1-7 do not preclude the customer from pursuing claims against the Bank in accordance with generally applicable law.
 9. The Bank's operations are supervised by the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (KNF).
